Still Burning Hay. The mania for burning sheepmen's hay in the vicinity of Mitchell shows no signs of abating as is shown by the following taken from the Mitchell Monitor of the 8th:

On Wednesday night last Mr. Tom Stephenson's stacks, over on Beaver creek were destroyed, and on the same night the torch was applied to the stack yards of Frank Hereford and H. Shoemaker, on West Branch. We have not heard any details in regard to the matter, but enough is known to say that a fiend or fiends are abroad in the land who richly deserve hanging. The excitement among the sheepmen is now at a high tension, and every effort will be made to ferret out the fire bug or bugs, and if successful in finding them, the subsequent proceedings will inter

GROWTH OF PENSIONS.

The growth of the pension list during the past decade has been enormous, and this country now has the distinction of providing for a larger number of military pensioners than any other country in the world at any time since he records of governments first began to be kept. Since dealing with pensions and pensioners has been a factor in the politics of the nation for the past thirty years, a study of the figures showing the growth of the roll since 1865 is not uninteresting.

In 1865 the rolls contained only 85. 986 names: in 1875 there had been an increase to 234,821, with a further inlatter year the increase has almost exactly trippled.
