At a meeting of the ambassadors, resolutions were adopted, and it is beleived action was taken that the powers will support Said Pasha in the event of his agreeing to accept the office of grand vizier, but it is not probable that he will again take up the duties of that office after seeking refuge from the wrath of the sultan. It is said Said Pasha is desirous of leaving the country, but he will not quit the shelter of the British embassy except with a guarantee from all the powers. There has been absolutely no change
