Decrease in The Public Debt—Judge Morrow Decides That Native Born Chinese Are Citizens—Another Strike Threatened.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The senate finance committee did not conclude consideration of the house bill today.
The failure was due to the fact that the silver majority of the committee was unable to agree on the terms of a substitute, which they propose to report for the house bill. The differences are not radical and it is still believed by a majority that there is no insurmountable difficulty in the way of reaching an agreement on a section of the bill providing for free coinage.
The republican members were in conference several hours and devoted a greater part of the time to the tariff bill. The republicans are disposed to give more attention to this measure than the bond bill. They consider it the latter measure has been virtually taken out of their hands, as a majority is against them, but consider it possible that the tariff bill may be so modified as to get it through.

The presence of many holiday visitors at the national hotel was the cause today by the well-dressed senate gallery.
Morrill, republicans, of Vermont, chairman of the finance committee, moved that when the senate adjourned it be until Tuesday next, and said: "I hope that by Tuesday when the senate resembles the committee on the tariff will be ready to report on both the tariff and bond bills passed by the house."

The motion for adjournment until Tuesday was agreed to. Squire offered a resolution for the negotiations forthcoming in connection with the United States and Great Britain for making the boundary between Alaska and British North America, and appropriating $75,000 for expense.

The senate passed the bill repealing the law which required the oath of loyalty as a prerequisite to the secure of property for service in the Mexican war.

Elkins' motion for a consideration, not the passage, of his resolution for public advertisements for bonds, passed the senate, 45 yeas to 2 nays.

Editor Hesse Talks.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Editor Hesse, of the South Africa Critic, says he has a cable dispatch referring to the recent events at Johannesburg, sentiments Dr.
Jamieson's defeat, of such a grave nature that he declined to publish it, until it is confirmed from other sources. "Hesse has had a long experience in the Transvaal, and his previous news regarding points in the crisis has been accurate." In the course of an interview today he was quoted as saying: "If Johannesburg is the same town I knew, the city has risen, and either succeeded or failed in the attempt to liberate Jamieson.
I am satisfied that all foreigners there, including Americans, would help the English. There are practically no Boers at Johannesburg, except armed burghers who are parading the streets."

Will Contest For $50,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—The board of school teachers' retirement fund commissioners, in determining who should be the possessor of the $50,000 bequeathed to that body, in what is alleged to be the last will and testament of James G. Fair, dated September 24, 1894, and left in the custody of Mrs.
Nettie Craven. The document was written with a lead pencil and is known as the "pencil will." Two contents to the will, dated September 21, 1895, have been filed, one over the signature of Dr. Marc Levinson, the other over that of the board of school teachers' retirement fund commissioners.

THE BOND CALL ISSUED

No Syndicate Will Have Control of the Issue.

NOW FOR TURKEY

American Bluejackets Going to the Rescue of Suffering Humanity in Turkey.

Speculation Concerning the Account and Character of the New Bond Issue, Was Set at Rest Last Night, when Secretary Car-lele made public the circular on the subject. The loan will be a "popular" one, and the circular, which is dated January 6, gives notice that the government will sell $100,000,000, 30-year 4 per cent coupon or registered bonds, dated February 1, 1895, for which purchased will be required to pay in gold coin or gold certificates. This will be the first issue by the present administration of such a large amount of bonds at such a low rate. The circular also contains an intimation of a possible further issue of bonds should the issue or sale of an additional or different form of bond for the maintenance of the gold reserve be authorized by law before February 1.

It was almost midnight when Secretary Carlele's circular was made public, too late an hour to obtain the opinion of the public men on the action of the government or the prospect of the absorption of the bonds by the people.
The fact that the bonds will be issued in sums of $50 and $100, and that they are payable in installments is a feature which it is believed will make them be regarded with popular favor.

DEMANDS ON TURKEY.

Our Vessels May Force the Passage of the Dardanelles.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—A dispatch to the Times-Herald from Washington says:
"Washington, Jan. 3.—The American fleet, and manned by the American bluejackets, may force the passage of the Dardanelles and Bosphorus, and anchor at Constantinople and show the Sultan that Uncle Sam is not to be trifled with. It is now known that the Bosphorus is likely to be the destination of the North Atlantic squadron of American battle-ships, instead of the Caribbean sea."

"According to the plan arranged by Secretary Herbert and Admiral Bance the squadron would have sailed from Hampton roads for St. Thomas, December 21. Though every ship was ready for sea on the date, the fleet of seven vessels has been held for some reason, which the secretary of the navy has declined to reveal, and which Secretary Herbert has not known."

"It is now stated that Admiral Bance, when he visited Washington December 19, was given sealed instructions, which postponed the Southern cruise, pending certain development in Turkey. Now the cruise in the waters of the Bosphorus and Mediterranean at almost any hour.

Secretary Herbert had a consultation yesterday with the president about the situation. December 18 a cable was received at the state department from Constantinople, which Secretary Herbert has in substance to the senate. He said:

"Mintzer Terrel expresses the gravest apprehension about the safety of American citizens in the disturbed regions unless the appalling massacres can be stopped by the united efforts of the Christian powers. He has no doubt, however, of European concert to end. He says that if the missionaries leave to save Turkey he can procure their transportation to Christian ports.
If the men wish to remain he can furnish escort for all to the seashore, whereupon the men can return, but he adds that the women and children should quit Turkey."

To be a Public Loan

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A special to the World from Washington says it is given out by a senator, who has on several occasions represented the administration, that the president has definitely broken with the Morgan syndicate.
Mr. Cleveland, so the senator says, is intensely angry with Morgan, and declares that the syndicate's action in preparing to take a loan was entirely unauthorized, and has greatly embarassed the government. There will be no bond call, it is said, till congress has a chance to act, and then it will be a public loan, if the president is able to follow his will."

More Turkish Massacres.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 4.—The recent massacre at Ormah is stated to have been terrible. Official dispatches admit 900 Christians were killed, but according to private accounts about 2000 Christians were killed. No further details of the massacre, however, have been received. A massacre is said to have occurred at Elredjik, an important town on the Euphrates. This outrage is believed to have been committed by Kurds and Hamadies in the country.
The ambassadors have received word that the bloodshed there was exceptionally serious.

Wheat Jumped Up At Walls Walls.

WALLS WALLS, Wash. Jan. 4.— There has been considerable excitement over a sudden jump in the price of wheat from 39 to 45 cents here today. A large amount was sold at 46 cents, and it was reported that several lots of extra choice bluestem were disposed of at 47 cents. Local dealers state they do not believe the advance will be permanent, as there is nothing in the market to warrant it. The jump is only in the local market.

Something is Wrong.

A correspondent of the Roseburg Review has discovered some peculiar fact connected with the assessment of certain classes of property in 1895 compared with the census report of 1890, which disclose either an alarming shrinkage of values in those few years, or a decided under valuation by the assessors. The correspondent says—"In today's Oregonian I see a tabulated statement of the assessment property of the state as compiled by the state board of equalization. Just to advance a little thought on the subject, will you permit me through your valued paper to state a few plain, unadorned statistical facts? The value of the railroads of this state are reported at $75,000,000, and the live stock at $27,000,000. Nearly three times that of all the live stock backed by the value of the railroads at $51,000,000 and the railroads at $5,100,000.
The railroads were live in 1890, and in 1895 are assessed at $5,332,000 less. The live stock is assessed at 314 per cent of its value in 1890, the railroads at only 7 per cent.

Preparing for War.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The Globe this evening prints sensational news under the following press headlines:
"Activity in War Office—Anticipated Military Measures." The Globe then states that the war office sent a special messenger this afternoon to the colonial office, stating it is rumored important orders are pending.
A dispatch from the military camp at Aldershot says a general belief, although not a proof, prevails that the authorities are considering the mobilizing of the army reserves, and the ordinance stores are busy.

The Dalles is Good Enough.

Some three weeks ago Mr. Henry Fiege left The Dalles for San Francisco with the intention of locating in that city, but after looking over the situation in the great city by the sea, he considered that was no place for him.
He returned to The Dalles Monday night, and will remain. Mr. Fiege was on his way in other places to convince that The Dalles is good enough for him, and in fact anybody.
