

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mr. Lon Hayes went to Portland today.

Mr. Jos. T. Peters arrived home today from San Francisco.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Humphrey went to Elgin last night.

Mr. John C. Hartz came up on today's local from Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Doane were passengers for Portland on the afternoon train.

Miss and Game Warden H. D. McGuire, accompanied by his wife, is in the city today.

Mrs. E. M. Wilson, who has been visiting in Portland the past week, returned home today.

Mr. Julius Wiley, who has been sick for some time past, left on the afternoon train today for Newbury to visit his mother.

At Lauer's market is exhibited a sturgeon that weighs 25 pounds. It was caught in the Columbia a few miles above the city.

It will be a night of fun at the Baldwin next Saturday evening. The Georgia University Graduates will be able to make everybody laugh.

A deed from Dallas City to Sarah E. Bunch for lot 6 block 43, Gates' addition, was filed in the clerk's office today. The consideration was $225.

Messrs. Lark, Lamb and Thomas Harlan, who have been in the city attending court the past two days, returned to their homes at Mosier today.

Two timber culture proofs were filed in the land office today. Wm. H. Hoover, for sec 2 and sec 14, tp 8 S., R. 2 E. and Wm. W. Stewart, for sec 31, tp 8 S., R. 2 E.

Regular quarterly examination of applicants for certificates to teach school began at the court house today. Superintendent Shelly arrived on the local to be present at the examination.

The date when The Dalles will celebrate the opening of the locks cannot at this time be fixed. But as soon as the date of opening is established arrangements for a grand celebration will be made.

Mr. Chas. Fraley, a substantial farmer of Tygh Bridge, is in the city. Mr. Fraley brings good reports from his locality. Most of the fall sown grain is looking fine, and the conditions for spring sowing are favorable.

Nineteen ladies and eight gentlemen presented themselves as applicants for teachers' certificates before the county board of examiners when they met at 1 o'clock this afternoon. This is the largest number that has ever been present at an examination in Wasco county.

When the Elks move their lodge from Cascade to The Dalles they will have an elegant set of elk horns with which to decorate their hall. The horns have been handsomely mounted under the supervision of Sheriff Driver, and we understand will be presented by him to the lodge.

Miss Essie Tittle, who is well known in this city, has just been offered and accepted a permanent engagement at $80 per week from the management of the Grand opera house in San Francisco. She and her mother will leave for that city about the middle of this week—Portland Telegram.

Baby bugs have been used for almost every conceivable purpose, but one C. C. Cunningham, of Milton, recently put one to a new use. He converted it into a saloon on wheels. Desiring to supply a dancing party with spirits, he loaded a baby buggy with whiskey bottles and wheels it to the dance, where he sold it indiscriminately to old and young, and now there are about thirty charges lodged against him for selling liquor without license and supplying it to minors.

Padewski played on a piano recently in Los Angeles to over one thousand $5 people. It was grand. His first piece was "The Boatman," which he promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it likewise aided to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10-cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Do not recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

From Friday's Daily.

Mr. Geo. Jones, a large owner of timber land on Hood river, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton were in the city yesterday and left today for their home at Bakedown.

Rev. Father Bronsgeest returned this morning from attending the jubilee services at Oregon City.

February is half gone, and we have had no winter weather. Today would pass well for the first day of May.

Hon. Henry Blackman, collector of internal revenues of the district of Oregon, spent the day in the city.

A regular April shower last night, just enough rain to prevent the dust rising on First and Second streets.

A deed from Lark Lamb to Amos Root et al conveying property in the Oak Grove cemetery was filed in the clerk's office today.

Senders Brothers arrived on today's local from Portland, and will lecture tonight and tomorrow night in the M. E. church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. James Gill, who has been assisting his brother, Engineer Sam Gill, to repair the machinery of the Regulator, returned today to his home in Portland.

Last evening Judge Blakeley recalled the fines imposed upon Thomas Denton and A. Sandor, and Mr. Denton was duly released from the county jail, where he had been confined.

Both the boats belonging to the D. P. & A. N. Co. are now in first-class shape, and the company will begin making regular trips between this place and Portland next Monday.

This being St. Valentine's day, the exchanges of compliments have been quite common. Through the exchange of these compliments some have been made glad while others have been offended, but such is life.

The man over in Goldendale that tickled the mule upon the sole of his hind foot to demonstrate to his friends that Friday was not an unobjection day, has not said a word on the subject since, and he probably never will.

The regular annual election of officers for Columbia Hose Co. No. 2 was held last night and resulted in the following officers: H. J. Maier, president.

SITUATION AT THE LOCKS.

Whether They Will Be Operated This Season Yet Uncertain.

Wednesday Messrs. A. S. MacAllister and E. Schanno, representatives of The Dalles Commercial Club, met with the city council.

Mr. N. Wheelan returned this morning from a visit to Portland. He says that while Portland shows some symptoms of improvement in the way of erecting new buildings, it is not ahead of The Dalles in this respect.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, organizer of the A. A., who was to have lectured in this city last night, met with a railroad accident, and was unable to fill his appointment here, but will make a date for a lecture in this city some time in the future.

School Clerk Jacobson has been engaged the past two weeks enumerating the persons of legal age in the district, and thus far has enumerated a few more than 600. He expects the enumeration this year to be considerably larger than that of 1895.

The trial trip of the Regulator was made without an accident, the machinery working perfectly. She was taken on 10,000 feet of lumber for F. H. Rowe, which will be used in the construction of the residence which he is building in this city.

Among the old established fraternal orders in this city, none are enjoying a steadier or more substantial growth than Temple Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W. Last night its lodge conferred the first degree upon two candidates, and the second upon three. The benefits which the Workmen order extends to its members are such that they commend themselves to business men everywhere.

It would seem that the recent grand jury was rather heavy in condemnation of the city council for their deplorable condition of the roads leading into the city. If we are correctly informed the council has exerted every effort in its power to better the condition of the roads, and besides it is rather questionable if the grand jury has jurisdiction over the acts of the council in such matters.

Dr. Farham and wife, who were passengers on the Regulator on her trial trip yesterday, were much pleased with the scenery on the Columbia, and also with the mellow sunlight like a big white awn. The machinery since being repaired appeared to be working admirably, and everything presends a successful season for the boat line. The Regulator will go to Colfax tomorrow, and is expected to return about 6 o'clock.

This is the season for planting tobacco, and farmers desiring to experiment in tobacco culture will be supplied with seed free of charge by applying to Ulrich & Son at The Dalles Clear factory. Messrs. Ulrich & Son last season demonstrated that a fine quality of tobacco could be grown in this vicinity, and it might prove a profitable crop for the farmers of Wasco county to cultivate. At all events it would cost nothing to make the experiment, since the seed will be furnished free.

Senders Brothers, of the Portland university, will entertain the citizens of The Dalles at the M. E. church on Friday and Saturday evenings with their most interesting "Wonderland," a lecture on the history of the world, and the land of perpetual summer, and illustrated songs, together with an exhibition of the curios from Prof. Brewer's private museum. The proceeds of the entertainments will be given to the Junior League, with which to purchase literature, etc. for the league. Admission 25c, children 15c.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Despair is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me a rest." To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body.

This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digestible food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it likewise aids to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10-cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Do not recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

From Friday's Daily.

Mr. Geo. Jones, a large owner of timber land on Hood river, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton were in the city yesterday and left today for their home at Bakedown.

Rev. Father Bronsgeest returned this morning from attending the jubilee services at Oregon City.

February is half gone, and we have had no winter weather. Today would pass well for the first day of May.

Hon. Henry Blackman, collector of internal revenues of the district of Oregon, spent the day in the city.

A regular April shower last night, just enough rain to prevent the dust rising on First and Second streets.

A deed from Lark Lamb to Amos Root et al conveying property in the Oak Grove cemetery was filed in the clerk's office today.

Senders Brothers arrived on today's local from Portland, and will lecture tonight and tomorrow night in the M. E. church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. James Gill, who has been assisting his brother, Engineer Sam Gill, to repair the machinery of the Regulator, returned today to his home in Portland.

Last evening Judge Blakeley recalled the fines imposed upon Thomas Denton and A. Sandor, and Mr. Denton was duly released from the county jail, where he had been confined.

Both the boats belonging to the D. P. & A. N. Co. are now in first-class shape, and the company will begin making regular trips between this place and Portland next Monday.

This being St. Valentine's day, the exchanges of compliments have been quite common. Through the exchange of these compliments some have been made glad while others have been offended, but such is life.

The man over in Goldendale that tickled the mule upon the sole of his hind foot to demonstrate to his friends that Friday was not an unobjection day, has not said a word on the subject since, and he probably never will.

The regular annual election of officers for Columbia Hose Co. No. 2 was held last night and resulted in the following officers: H. J. Maier, president.

Whether They Will Be Operated This Season Yet Uncertain.

Wednesday Messrs. A. S. MacAllister and E. Schanno, representatives of The Dalles Commercial Club, met with the city council.

Mr. N. Wheelan returned this morning from a visit to Portland. He says that while Portland shows some symptoms of improvement in the way of erecting new buildings, it is not ahead of The Dalles in this respect.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, organizer of the A. A., who was to have lectured in this city last night, met with a railroad accident, and was unable to fill his appointment here, but will make a date for a lecture in this city some time in the future.

School Clerk Jacobson has been engaged the past two weeks enumerating the persons of legal age in the district, and thus far has enumerated a few more than 600. He expects the enumeration this year to be considerably larger than that of 1895.

The trial trip of the Regulator was made without an accident, the machinery working perfectly. She was taken on 10,000 feet of lumber for F. H. Rowe, which will be used in the construction of the residence which he is building in this city.

Among the old established fraternal orders in this city, none are enjoying a steadier or more substantial growth than Temple Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W. Last night its lodge conferred the first degree upon two candidates, and the second upon three. The benefits which the Workmen order extends to its members are such that they commend themselves to business men everywhere.

It would seem that the recent grand jury was rather heavy in condemnation of the city council for their deplorable condition of the roads leading into the city. If we are correctly informed the council has exerted every effort in its power to better the condition of the roads, and besides it is rather questionable if the grand jury has jurisdiction over the acts of the council in such matters.

Dr. Farham and wife, who were passengers on the Regulator on her trial trip yesterday, were much pleased with the scenery on the Columbia, and also with the mellow sunlight like a big white awn. The machinery since being repaired appeared to be working admirably, and everything presends a successful season for the boat line. The Regulator will go to Colfax tomorrow, and is expected to return about 6 o'clock.

This is the season for planting tobacco, and farmers desiring to experiment in tobacco culture will be supplied with seed free of charge by applying to Ulrich & Son at The Dalles Clear factory. Messrs. Ulrich & Son last season demonstrated that a fine quality of tobacco could be grown in this vicinity, and it might prove a profitable crop for the farmers of Wasco county to cultivate. At all events it would cost nothing to make the experiment, since the seed will be furnished free.

Senders Brothers, of the Portland university, will entertain the citizens of The Dalles at the M. E. church on Friday and Saturday evenings with their most interesting "Wonderland," a lecture on the history of the world, and the land of perpetual summer, and illustrated songs, together with an exhibition of the curios from Prof. Brewer's private museum. The proceeds of the entertainments will be given to the Junior League, with which to purchase literature, etc. for the league. Admission 25c, children 15c.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Despair is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me a rest." To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body.

This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digestible food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it likewise aids to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10-cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Do not recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

From Friday's Daily.

Mr. Geo. Jones, a large owner of timber land on Hood river, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton were in the city yesterday and left today for their home at Bakedown.

Rev. Father Bronsgeest returned this morning from attending the jubilee services at Oregon City.

February is half gone, and we have had no winter weather. Today would pass well for the first day of May.

Hon. Henry Blackman, collector of internal revenues of the district of Oregon, spent the day in the city.

A regular April shower last night, just enough rain to prevent the dust rising on First and Second streets.

A deed from Lark Lamb to Amos Root et al conveying property in the Oak Grove cemetery was filed in the clerk's office today.

Senders Brothers arrived on today's local from Portland, and will lecture tonight and tomorrow night in the M. E. church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. James Gill, who has been assisting his brother, Engineer Sam Gill, to repair the machinery of the Regulator, returned today to his home in Portland.

Last evening Judge Blakeley recalled the fines imposed upon Thomas Denton and A. Sandor, and Mr. Denton was duly released from the county jail, where he had been confined.

Both the boats belonging to the D. P. & A. N. Co. are now in first-class shape, and the company will begin making regular trips between this place and Portland next Monday.

This being St. Valentine's day, the exchanges of compliments have been quite common. Through the exchange of these compliments some have been made glad while others have been offended, but such is life.

The man over in Goldendale that tickled the mule upon the sole of his hind foot to demonstrate to his friends that Friday was not an unobjection day, has not said a word on the subject since, and he probably never will.

The regular annual election of officers for Columbia Hose Co. No. 2 was held last night and resulted in the following officers: H. J. Maier, president.

Whether They Will Be Operated This Season Yet Uncertain.

Wednesday Messrs. A. S. MacAllister and E. Schanno, representatives of The Dalles Commercial Club, met with the city council.

Mr. N. Wheelan returned this morning from a visit to Portland. He says that while Portland shows some symptoms of improvement in the way of erecting new buildings, it is not ahead of The Dalles in this respect.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, organizer of the A. A., who was to have lectured in this city last night, met with a railroad accident, and was unable to fill his appointment here, but will make a date for a lecture in this city some time in the future.

School Clerk Jacobson has been engaged the past two weeks enumerating the persons of legal age in the district, and thus far has enumerated a few more than 600. He expects the enumeration this year to be considerably larger than that of 1895.

The trial trip of the Regulator was made without an accident, the machinery working perfectly. She was taken on 10,000 feet of lumber for F. H. Rowe, which will be used in the construction of the residence which he is building in this city.

Among the old established fraternal orders in this city, none are enjoying a steadier or more substantial growth than Temple Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W. Last night its lodge conferred the first degree upon two candidates, and the second upon three. The benefits which the Workmen order extends to its members are such that they commend themselves to business men everywhere.

It would seem that the recent grand jury was rather heavy in condemnation of the city council for their deplorable condition of the roads leading into the city. If we are correctly informed the council has exerted every effort in its power to better the condition of the roads, and besides it is rather questionable if the grand jury has jurisdiction over the acts of the council in such matters.

Dr. Farham and wife, who were passengers on the Regulator on her trial trip yesterday, were much pleased with the scenery on the Columbia, and also with the mellow sunlight like a big white awn. The machinery since being repaired appeared to be working admirably, and everything presends a successful season for the boat line. The Regulator will go to Colfax tomorrow, and is expected to return about 6 o'clock.

This is the season for planting tobacco, and farmers desiring to experiment in tobacco culture will be supplied with seed free of charge by applying to Ulrich & Son at The Dalles Clear factory. Messrs. Ulrich & Son last season demonstrated that a fine quality of tobacco could be grown in this vicinity, and it might prove a profitable crop for the farmers of Wasco county to cultivate. At all events it would cost nothing to make the experiment, since the seed will be furnished free.

Senders Brothers, of the Portland university, will entertain the citizens of The Dalles at the M. E. church on Friday and Saturday evenings with their most interesting "Wonderland," a lecture on the history of the world, and the land of perpetual summer, and illustrated songs, together with an exhibition of the curios from Prof. Brewer's private museum. The proceeds of the entertainments will be given to the Junior League, with which to purchase literature, etc. for the league. Admission 25c, children 15c.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Despair is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me a rest." To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body.

This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digestible food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it likewise aids to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10-cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Do not recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

From Friday's Daily.

Mr. Geo. Jones, a large owner of timber land on Hood river, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton were in the city yesterday and left today for their home at Bakedown.

Rev. Father Bronsgeest returned this morning from attending the jubilee services at Oregon City.

February is half gone, and we have had no winter weather. Today would pass well for the first day of May.

Hon. Henry Blackman, collector of internal revenues of the district of Oregon, spent the day in the city.

A regular April shower last night, just enough rain to prevent the dust rising on First and Second streets.

A deed from Lark Lamb to Amos Root et al conveying property in the Oak Grove cemetery was filed in the clerk's office today.

Senders Brothers arrived on today's local from Portland, and will lecture tonight and tomorrow night in the M. E. church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. James Gill, who has been assisting his brother, Engineer Sam Gill, to repair the machinery of the Regulator, returned today to his home in Portland.

Last evening Judge Blakeley recalled the fines imposed upon Thomas Denton and A. Sandor, and Mr. Denton was duly released from the county jail, where he had been confined.

Both the boats belonging to the D. P. & A. N. Co. are now in first-class shape, and the company will begin making regular trips between this place and Portland next Monday.

This being St. Valentine's day, the exchanges of compliments have been quite common. Through the exchange of these compliments some have been made glad while others have been offended, but such is life.

The man over in Goldendale that tickled the mule upon the sole of his hind foot to demonstrate to his friends that Friday was not an unobjection day, has not said a word on the subject since, and he probably never will.

The regular annual election of officers for Columbia Hose Co. No. 2 was held last night and resulted in the following officers: H. J. Maier, president.

Whether They Will Be Operated This Season Yet Uncertain.

Wednesday Messrs. A. S. MacAllister and E. Schanno, representatives of The Dalles Commercial Club, met with the city council.

Mr. N. Wheelan returned this morning from a visit to Portland. He says that while Portland shows some symptoms of improvement in the way of erecting new buildings, it is not ahead of The Dalles in this respect.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, organizer of the A. A., who was to have lectured in this city last night, met with a railroad accident, and was unable to fill his appointment here, but will make a date for a lecture in this city some time in the future.

School Clerk Jacobson has been engaged the past two weeks enumerating the persons of legal age in the district, and thus far has enumerated a few more than 600. He expects the enumeration this year to be considerably larger than that of 1895.

The trial trip of the Regulator was made without an accident, the machinery working perfectly. She was taken on 10,000 feet of lumber for F. H. Rowe, which will be used in the construction of the residence which he is building in this city.

Among the old established fraternal orders in this city, none are enjoying a steadier or more substantial growth than Temple Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W. Last night its lodge conferred the first degree upon two candidates, and the second upon three. The benefits which the Workmen order extends to its members are such that they commend themselves to business men everywhere.

It would seem that the recent grand jury was rather heavy in condemnation of the city council for their deplorable condition of the roads leading into the city. If we are correctly informed the council has exerted every effort in its power to better the condition of the roads, and besides it is rather questionable if the grand jury has jurisdiction over the acts of the council in such matters.

Dr. Farham and wife, who were passengers on the Regulator on her trial trip yesterday, were much pleased with the scenery on the Columbia, and also with the mellow sunlight like a big white awn. The machinery since being repaired appeared to be working admirably, and everything presends a successful season for the boat line. The Regulator will go to Colfax tomorrow, and is expected to return about 6 o'clock.

This is the season for planting tobacco, and farmers desiring to experiment in tobacco culture will be supplied with seed free of charge by applying to Ulrich & Son at The Dalles Clear factory. Messrs. Ulrich & Son last season demonstrated that a fine quality of tobacco could be grown in this vicinity, and it might prove a profitable crop for the farmers of Wasco county to cultivate. At all events it would cost nothing to make the experiment, since the seed will be furnished free.

Senders Brothers, of the Portland university, will entertain the citizens of The Dalles at the M. E. church on Friday and Saturday evenings with their most interesting "Wonderland," a lecture on the history of the world, and the land of perpetual summer, and illustrated songs, together with an exhibition of the curios from Prof. Brewer's private museum. The proceeds of the entertainments will be given to the Junior League, with which to purchase literature, etc. for the league. Admission 25c, children 15c.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Despair is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me a rest." To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body.

This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digestible food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it likewise aids to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10-cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Do not recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

From Friday's Daily.

Mr. Geo. Jones, a large owner of timber land on Hood river, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton were in the city yesterday and left today for their home at Bakedown.

Rev. Father Bronsgeest returned this morning from attending the jubilee services at Oregon City.

February is half gone, and we have had no winter weather. Today would pass well for the first day of May.

Hon. Henry Blackman, collector of internal revenues of the district of Oregon, spent the day in the city.

A regular April shower last night, just enough rain to prevent the dust rising on First and Second streets.

A deed from Lark Lamb to Amos Root et al conveying property in the Oak Grove cemetery was filed in the clerk's office today.

Senders Brothers arrived on today's local from Portland, and will lecture tonight and tomorrow night in the M. E. church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. James Gill, who has been assisting his brother, Engineer Sam Gill, to repair the machinery of the Regulator, returned today to his home in Portland.

Last evening Judge Blakeley recalled the fines imposed upon Thomas Denton and A. Sandor, and Mr. Denton was duly released from the county jail, where he had been confined.

Both the boats belonging to the D. P. & A. N. Co. are now in first-class shape, and the company will begin making regular trips between this place and Portland next Monday.

This being St. Valentine's day, the exchanges of compliments have been quite common. Through the exchange of these compliments some have been made glad while others have been offended, but such is life.

The man over in Goldendale that tickled the mule upon the sole of his hind foot to demonstrate to his friends that Friday was not an unobjection day, has not said a word on the subject since, and he probably never will.

The regular annual election of officers for Columbia Hose Co. No. 2 was held last night and resulted in the following officers: H. J. Maier, president.

Whether They Will Be Operated This Season Yet Uncertain.

Wednesday Messrs. A. S. MacAllister and E. Schanno, representatives of The Dalles Commercial Club, met with the city council.

Mr. N. Wheelan returned this morning from a visit to Portland. He says that while Portland shows some symptoms of improvement in the way of erecting new buildings, it is not ahead of The Dalles in this respect.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, organizer of the A. A., who was to have lectured in this city last night, met with a railroad accident, and was unable to fill his appointment here, but will make a date for a lecture in this city some time in the future.

School Clerk Jacobson has been engaged the past two weeks enumerating the persons of legal age in the district, and thus far has enumerated a few more than 600. He expects the enumeration this year to be considerably larger than that of 1895.

The trial trip of the Regulator was made without an accident, the machinery working perfectly. She was taken on 10,000 feet of lumber for F. H. Rowe, which will be used in the construction of the residence which he is building in this city.

Among the old established fraternal orders in this city, none are enjoying a steadier or more substantial growth than Temple Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W. Last night its lodge conferred the first degree upon two candidates, and the second upon three. The benefits which the Workmen order extends to its members are such that they commend themselves to business men everywhere.

It would seem that the recent grand jury was rather heavy in condemnation of the city council for their deplorable condition of the roads leading into the city. If we are correctly informed the council has exerted every effort in its power to better the condition of the roads, and besides