

ITEMS IN BRIEF

From Saturday's Daily. Prof. Shelly returned today to Hood River. Capt. McNulty was a passenger on the afternoon train for Portland.

Mr. W. A. Maxwell, editor of the Arlington Record, is in the city.

The roads throughout the country are now in excellent condition for travel.

A patent from the United States to B. W. Stone was filed in the clerk's office today.

All day J. B. Crossen has been selling at auction a stock of dry goods assorted to M. A. Moody.

Mrs. Theo. Prinz and children arrived home today from a visit to Mr. Prinz' brother in Monterey, Calif.

Mr. E. W. Kahler left this morning for Harlan, Morrow county, to look after his business interests there.

Rev. W. C. Curtis returned last night from Portland. He reports splendid weather west of the Cascades.

Twenty acres of land in Hood River valley was sold at sheriff's sale today, bringing $1315.90. It is the property known as the Disbro place.

Mrs. R. E. Barwick and son of Buffalo N. Y. are visiting at Rev. O. D. Taylor's. They seem greatly pleased by our climate and scenery.

W. S. Barzee has sold his grocery business in this city to H. Rice & Co. The new proprietors will take charge of the business next Wednesday. Mr. Barzee expects to return to his farm in Sherman county.

W. H. Hulbert, general passenger and ticket agent of the O. R. & N., passed through the Dalles yesterday en route east. He will visit Chicago and other cities on business for the railway corporations.

The trial of the case of the State vs. Stoy has occupied the attention of the circuit court all day. The case was closed at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and it is expected the case will be given to the jury this evening.

The dispatches announce the death of Col. E. W. Nevins, at Salt Lake City, on Feb. 12. Col. Nevins was well known in the Dalles, having at one time filled the position of chief clerk in the land office here under Capt. Lewis.

Mr. F. W. Wilson, editor of the Chronicle, went to Hood River this afternoon to be present at the mass meeting to be held there at 2 o'clock. The TIMES-MOUNTAINEER will be represented at the meeting by Mr. J. H. Cradlebaugh.

The lecture given by Senders Bros. at the church last evening was attended and furnished excellent and instructive entertainment for the audience. Their seripitization views of Yellowstone park are grand, and give one an excellent idea of that most wonderful place.

Quite an important sale of Dalles real estate was consummated today. The property known as the old Chronicle building was bought by Mr. F. Houghton. We understand the lower portion of the building will be divided into offices, one of which will be occupied by Mr. N. Wheldon.

It is the farmers of Wasco county do not harvest an immense crop of wheat this season, there is nothing in appearance. Flattering reports come from all sections. Coroner Butts has just returned from a visit to Wamic and Kingsley, and says he never saw fall grain look so well at this season of the year as it does now.

Noise and Owyhee have commenced the first railroad for the year 1896. The Owyhee & Owyhee railroad filed articles of incorporation on Friday. Capital stock $1,000,000, divided into 10,000 shares at par value of $100 each. Of this stock $65,100 has been subscribed. The length of the proposed road is sixty-five miles, and Fremont Wood, attorney for the company, says the work of securing right of way will be commenced at once, and the grading contracts let within a few days. The road will cross Snake river near Walter's ferry.

From Monday's Daily. Purple Iris and other early wild flowers are abundant at Hood River.

Mr. W. E. Prudhomme, of the firm of Glass & Prudhomme, is in the city today.

Mr. Verne Kountz and bride arrived home on yesterday's local from Portland.

Dr. Sutherland was a passenger on the Regulator this morning for White Salmon.

Mr. J. C. Crome, representing the American Type Foundry, was a caller at this office today.

Mr. Chas. Frank returned Saturday morning from a three-week's visit to his old home in Iowa.

Mr. Henry Maier, of the firm of Maier & Benton, is looking after wood business at White Salmon today.

Messrs. John Mitchell and C. L. Phillips went to Cascade Locks yesterday morning on this morning's train.

Mr. Julius Fisher went to Portland this morning to be present at the performance of Ulrich's band in that city.

This morning Sells & Son received a consignment of fine tobacco from Portland, which they will use in their cigar factory.

Mr. August Bookler, proprietor of the Columbia Brewery made a business trip to Cascade Locks this morning on the Regulator.

Some of the fishermen say that this is the year for a big salmon run, while others insist the water will be so low that the run will be light.

Parties interested in the mines discovered last fall northwest of Mt. Adams, expect to start for the gold fields toward the last of March.

Mr. Rupert is in receipt of a letter from a friend at Burns, stating farmers have begun plowing in Harney county, and are progressing.

Messrs. G. Pini and Louis Montecchi, who for some time past have been employed on the government works at the locks, have returned to this city.

The stage portage road at the Cascades was in good working order this morning in readiness to convey the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s freight around the falls.

The Georgia University Graduates, who appeared in the Baldwin Saturday night, proved themselves artists in their lines. Many of their "gags" were original and new, and their music, both vocal and instrumental, was of the class that is always appreciated. Should they appear on the stage in the Dalles again, they may rest assured of a liberal patronage.

Saturday license to wed was issued to Wm. L. Isbell and Catherine A. Eben, and today a like document was issued to J. G. Vibbert and Eva Southwell.

Mr. O. Kinross is rebuilding the photograph gallery that was wrecked recently by a blowing down of a portion of the Fitzgerald ruins. Mrs. Hogan will occupy the building as soon as it is completed.

The Regulator left this morning for the Cascades on its first regular trip for the year, carrying large number of passengers, and a fair amount of freight, and will continue making trips each day from now until the river closes next winter.

The stock yards are empty. Upon asking Mr. Saltmarsh whether there are any shipments of stock to be made, he said no, but Mr. Brown says that there is a carload of "breds" to ship to the Tomlinn factory in Portland this evening.

There was received at the land office today the homestead entries of Nellie Hotterhaus for the sec 21, sec 22, sec 11, T. 1 N., R. 10 E. and John W. Jossie for the sec 27, sec 28, sec 29, T. 16 S., R. 18 E. A state selection of 40 acres was also made.

Dr. Deane was called to hold a consultation with Dr. Logan this morning concerning Mr. McNeill's little son, who is very ill with typhoid fever and other complications. We are pleased to state the doctors are hopeful that the boy may recover.

The case of the State vs. Stoy was submitted to the jury at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, and at 1 o'clock Sunday morning they returned a verdict of guilty of simple assault. The indictment against Stoy was assault with a dangerous weapon.

The funeral of Wm. Thomas, who died at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Saturday, took place at Cascade Locks yesterday, conducted by Cascade lodge No. 104, I. O. O. F. Mr. Thomas was 39 years of age, and leaves a widow and four children. His home was across the river from Cascade.

Mr. Fred Wilson, of the Chronicle, and reporter of the same, passed a very pleasant evening in Hood River Saturday, being the guests of Mr. George Jones at the Mt. Hood hotel. Messrs. F. H. Button and James Langille assisted in making the evening so pleasurable that the 11:45 train came along apparently before 9 o'clock.

Two subscribers have stopped the Salem Post through the mail Postmaster card. The reason on the first is as follows: "He sees you say Cleveland is an honest man." The reason on the second card is: "You speak in favor of Cleveland." The Post says: "The joke of it is that this paper has never during all of its existence spoken a word 'in favor of Cleveland.'"

The freeman of Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington will hold a tournament at Pendleton prior to June 1, if the citizens of Pendleton will bid more for the tournament than the people of Walla Walla, or of The Dalles, La Grande, or of the City of Colfax, Washington. The town that offers the most will be selected as the place for holding it—East Oregonian.

The case of the state vs. D. McKelvey, indicted for larceny of hay, has been on trial in the circuit court today before a jury composed of Lark Lamb, L. J. Klinger, E. A. Griffin, J. C. Wheeler, J. P. Staniska, S. S. Johns, James Darnielle, Wm. Frizzell, S. R. Brooks, W. H. Williams and Geo. Rowland. Attorneys A. A. Jayne and E. B. Dufur are prosecuting and Huntington & Wilson defending.

From Tuesday's Daily. Mr. Joe Folco visited Cascade Locks today.

Mrs. Chas. Hilton went to Portland today.

Hon. L. N. Bowers, mayor of Hood River, is in the city.

Rev. J. C. Baker went to Lyle on the Regulator this morning.

Mr. A. Bettingen left on the Regulator for Portland this morning.

Mrs. J. W. French left yesterday for Oakland, Cal., where she will remain a month visiting friends.

Mr. Truman Butler came up from Portland yesterday to take the office of pursuer on the Regulator.

One Minute Cough Cure is a popular remedy for croup. Safe for children and adults. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Rev. Mr. Hawk, pastor of the M. E. Church of Goldendale, arrived on the local today returning from a visit to Portland.

A Salem man has been arrested for kissing a girl whom he had courted for two years. Served him right for waiting so long.

De Witt's Little Early Risers for biliousness, indigestion, constipation. A small pill, a prompt cure. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Mr. Alfred Slocum, of Portland, is in the city today, en route to Antelope to visit his brother who is engaged in sheep raising near that place.

Last evening Judge Bradshaw sentenced Ed. Stoy, who was convicted of assault, to a fine of $150 or seventy-five days' imprisonment in the county jail.

Mr. B. S. & L. Co.'s store at Hay Creek, arrived in the city yesterday. He was en route to Portland to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thompson left on the afternoon train for Portland to attend the wedding of Mrs. Thompson's brother, Mr. R. Hayes, Jr., and Miss Sommerville, which will be solemnized in Portland tomorrow.

Mr. J. J. Garlington, of Hillsboro, spent the day in the city visiting his old friend Hon. W. H. Biggs, and also perfecting title to 320 acres of land in Sherman county.

The nations that preach the loudest and longest about "peace on earth and good will to men," and the "fraternity of nations," and so on, are breaking the biggest battleships.

The building boom is fairly on in The Dalles. The latest report is that A. Hastings contemplates erecting a large building on the corner of Second and Union streets north of the court house.

Piles of which have piles, but De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. When promptly applied it cures scalds and burns without the slightest pain. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

A long-haired, cow-boy-hatted named Rice, who made a nuisance of himself in The Dalles some months ago as a street evangelist, is in jail again, this time in Los Angeles. Should they appear on the stage in the Dalles again, they may rest assured of a liberal patronage.

Saturday license to wed was issued to Wm. L. Isbell and Catherine A. Eben, and today a like document was issued to J. G. Vibbert and Eva Southwell.

Mr. O. Kinross is rebuilding the photograph gallery that was wrecked recently by a blowing down of a portion of the Fitzgerald ruins. Mrs. Hogan will occupy the building as soon as it is completed.

The Regulator left this morning for the Cascades on its first regular trip for the year, carrying large number of passengers, and a fair amount of freight, and will continue making trips each day from now until the river closes next winter.

The stock yards are empty. Upon asking Mr. Saltmarsh whether there are any shipments of stock to be made, he said no, but Mr. Brown says that there is a carload of "breds" to ship to the Tomlinn factory in Portland this evening.

There was received at the land office today the homestead entries of Nellie Hotterhaus for the sec 21, sec 22, sec 11, T. 1 N., R. 10 E. and John W. Jossie for the sec 27, sec 28, sec 29, T. 16 S., R. 18 E. A state selection of 40 acres was also made.

Dr. Deane was called to hold a consultation with Dr. Logan this morning concerning Mr. McNeill's little son, who is very ill with typhoid fever and other complications. We are pleased to state the doctors are hopeful that the boy may recover.

The case of the State vs. Stoy was submitted to the jury at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, and at 1 o'clock Sunday morning they returned a verdict of guilty of simple assault. The indictment against Stoy was assault with a dangerous weapon.

The funeral of Wm. Thomas, who died at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Saturday, took place at Cascade Locks yesterday, conducted by Cascade lodge No. 104, I. O. O. F. Mr. Thomas was 39 years of age, and leaves a widow and four children. His home was across the river from Cascade.

Mr. Fred Wilson, of the Chronicle, and reporter of the same, passed a very pleasant evening in Hood River Saturday, being the guests of Mr. George Jones at the Mt. Hood hotel. Messrs. F. H. Button and James Langille assisted in making the evening so pleasurable that the 11:45 train came along apparently before 9 o'clock.

Two subscribers have stopped the Salem Post through the mail Postmaster card. The reason on the first is as follows: "He sees you say Cleveland is an honest man." The reason on the second card is: "You speak in favor of Cleveland." The Post says: "The joke of it is that this paper has never during all of its existence spoken a word 'in favor of Cleveland.'"

The freeman of Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington will hold a tournament at Pendleton prior to June 1, if the citizens of Pendleton will bid more for the tournament than the people of Walla Walla, or of The Dalles, La Grande, or of the City of Colfax, Washington. The town that offers the most will be selected as the place for holding it—East Oregonian.

The case of the state vs. D. McKelvey, indicted for larceny of hay, has been on trial in the circuit court today before a jury composed of Lark Lamb, L. J. Klinger, E. A. Griffin, J. C. Wheeler, J. P. Staniska, S. S. Johns, James Darnielle, Wm. Frizzell, S. R. Brooks, W. H. Williams and Geo. Rowland. Attorneys A. A. Jayne and E. B. Dufur are prosecuting and Huntington & Wilson defending.

From Tuesday's Daily. Mr. Joe Folco visited Cascade Locks today.

Mrs. Chas. Hilton went to Portland today.

Hon. L. N. Bowers, mayor of Hood River, is in the city.

Rev. J. C. Baker went to Lyle on the Regulator this morning.

Mr. A. Bettingen left on the Regulator for Portland this morning.

Mrs. J. W. French left yesterday for Oakland, Cal., where she will remain a month visiting friends.

Mr. Truman Butler came up from Portland yesterday to take the office of pursuer on the Regulator.

One Minute Cough Cure is a popular remedy for croup. Safe for children and adults. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Rev. Mr. Hawk, pastor of the M. E. Church of Goldendale, arrived on the local today returning from a visit to Portland.

A Salem man has been arrested for kissing a girl whom he had courted for two years. Served him right for waiting so long.

De Witt's Little Early Risers for biliousness, indigestion, constipation. A small pill, a prompt cure. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Mr. Alfred Slocum, of Portland, is in the city today, en route to Antelope to visit his brother who is engaged in sheep raising near that place.

Last evening Judge Bradshaw sentenced Ed. Stoy, who was convicted of assault, to a fine of $150 or seventy-five days' imprisonment in the county jail.

Mr. B. S. & L. Co.'s store at Hay Creek, arrived in the city yesterday. He was en route to Portland to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thompson left on the afternoon train for Portland to attend the wedding of Mrs. Thompson's brother, Mr. R. Hayes, Jr., and Miss Sommerville, which will be solemnized in Portland tomorrow.

Mr. J. J. Garlington, of Hillsboro, spent the day in the city visiting his old friend Hon. W. H. Biggs, and also perfecting title to 320 acres of land in Sherman county.

The nations that preach the loudest and longest about "peace on earth and good will to men," and the "fraternity of nations," and so on, are breaking the biggest battleships.

The building boom is fairly on in The Dalles. The latest report is that A. Hastings contemplates erecting a large building on the corner of Second and Union streets north of the court house.

Piles of which have piles, but De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. When promptly applied it cures scalds and burns without the slightest pain. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

A long-haired, cow-boy-hatted named Rice, who made a nuisance of himself in The Dalles some months ago as a street evangelist, is in jail

again, this time in Los Angeles. Should they appear on the stage in the Dalles again, they may rest assured of a liberal patronage.

Saturday license to wed was issued to Wm. L. Isbell and Catherine A. Eben, and today a like document was issued to J. G. Vibbert and Eva Southwell.

Mr. O. Kinross is rebuilding the photograph gallery that was wrecked recently by a blowing down of a portion of the Fitzgerald ruins. Mrs. Hogan will occupy the building as soon as it is completed.

The Regulator left this morning for the Cascades on its first regular trip for the year, carrying large number of passengers, and a fair amount of freight, and will continue making trips each day from now until the river closes next winter.

The stock yards are empty. Upon asking Mr. Saltmarsh whether there are any shipments of stock to be made, he said no, but Mr. Brown says that there is a carload of "breds" to ship to the Tomlinn factory in Portland this evening.

There was received at the land office today the homestead entries of Nellie Hotterhaus for the sec 21, sec 22, sec 11, T. 1 N., R. 10 E. and John W. Jossie for the sec 27, sec 28, sec 29, T. 16 S., R. 18 E. A state selection of 40 acres was also made.

Dr. Deane was called to hold a consultation with Dr. Logan this morning concerning Mr. McNeill's little son, who is very ill with typhoid fever and other complications. We are pleased to state the doctors are hopeful that the boy may recover.

The case of the State vs. Stoy was submitted to the jury at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, and at 1 o'clock Sunday morning they returned a verdict of guilty of simple assault. The indictment against Stoy was assault with a dangerous weapon.

The funeral of Wm. Thomas, who died at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Saturday, took place at Cascade Locks yesterday, conducted by Cascade lodge No. 104, I. O. O. F. Mr. Thomas was 39 years of age, and leaves a widow and four children. His home was across the river from Cascade.

Mr. Fred Wilson, of the Chronicle, and reporter of the same, passed a very pleasant evening in Hood River Saturday, being the guests of Mr. George Jones at the Mt. Hood hotel. Messrs. F. H. Button and James Langille assisted in making the evening so pleasurable that the 11:45 train came along apparently before 9 o'clock.

Two subscribers have stopped the Salem Post through the mail Postmaster card. The reason on the first is as follows: "He sees you say Cleveland is an honest man." The reason on the second card is: "You speak in favor of Cleveland." The Post says: "The joke of it is that this paper has never during all of its existence spoken a word 'in favor of Cleveland.'"

The freeman of Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington will hold a tournament at Pendleton prior to June 1, if the citizens of Pendleton will bid more for the tournament than the people of Walla Walla, or of The Dalles, La Grande, or of the City of Colfax, Washington. The town that offers the most will be selected as the place for holding it—East Oregonian.

The case of the state vs. D. McKelvey, indicted for larceny of hay, has been on trial in the circuit court today before a jury composed of Lark Lamb, L. J. Klinger, E. A. Griffin, J. C. Wheeler, J. P. Staniska, S. S. Johns, James Darnielle, Wm. Frizzell, S. R. Brooks, W. H. Williams and Geo. Rowland. Attorneys A. A. Jayne and E. B. Dufur are prosecuting and Huntington & Wilson defending.

From Tuesday's Daily. Mr. Joe Folco visited Cascade Locks today.

Mrs. Chas. Hilton went to Portland today.

Hon. L. N. Bowers, mayor of Hood River, is in the city.

Rev. J. C. Baker went to Lyle on the Regulator this morning.

Mr. A. Bettingen left on the Regulator for Portland this morning.

Mrs. J. W. French left yesterday for Oakland, Cal., where she will remain a month visiting friends.

Mr. Truman Butler came up from Portland yesterday to take the office of pursuer on the Regulator.

One Minute Cough Cure is a popular remedy for croup. Safe for children and adults. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Rev. Mr. Hawk, pastor of the M. E. Church of Goldendale, arrived on the local today returning from a visit to Portland.

A Salem man has been arrested for kissing a girl whom he had courted for two years. Served him right for waiting so long.

De Witt's Little Early Risers for biliousness, indigestion, constipation. A small pill, a prompt cure. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Mr. Alfred Slocum, of Portland, is in the city today, en route to Antelope to visit his brother who is engaged in sheep raising near that place.

Last evening Judge Bradshaw sentenced Ed. Stoy, who was convicted of assault, to a fine of $150 or seventy-five days' imprisonment in the county jail.

Mr. B. S. & L. Co.'s store at Hay Creek, arrived in the city yesterday. He was en route to Portland to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thompson left on the afternoon train for Portland to attend the wedding of Mrs. Thompson's brother, Mr. R. Hayes, Jr., and Miss Sommerville, which will be solemnized in Portland tomorrow.

Mr. J. J. Garlington, of Hillsboro, spent the day in the city visiting his old friend Hon. W. H. Biggs, and also perfecting title to 320 acres of land in Sherman county.

The nations that preach the loudest and longest about "peace on earth and good will to men," and the "fraternity of nations," and so on, are breaking the biggest battleships.

The building boom is fairly on in The Dalles. The latest report is that A. Hastings contemplates erecting a large building on the corner of Second and Union streets north of the court house.

Piles of which have piles, but De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. When promptly applied it cures scalds and burns without the slightest pain. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

A long-haired, cow-boy-hatted named Rice, who made a nuisance of himself in The Dalles some months ago as a street evangelist, is in jail

again, this time in Los Angeles. Should they appear on the stage in the Dalles again, they may rest assured of a liberal patronage.

Saturday license to wed was issued to Wm. L. Isbell and Catherine A. Eben, and today a like document was issued to J. G. Vibbert and Eva Southwell.

Mr. O. Kinross is rebuilding the photograph gallery that was wrecked recently by a blowing down of a portion of the Fitzgerald ruins. Mrs. Hogan will occupy the building as soon as it is completed.

The Regulator left this morning for the Cascades on its first regular trip for the year, carrying large number of passengers, and a fair amount of freight, and will continue making trips each day from now until the river closes next winter.

The stock yards are empty. Upon asking Mr. Saltmarsh whether there are any shipments of stock to be made, he said no, but Mr. Brown says that there is a carload of "breds" to ship to the Tomlinn factory in Portland this evening.

There was received at the land office today the homestead entries of Nellie Hotterhaus for the sec 21, sec 22, sec 11, T. 1 N., R. 10 E. and John W. Jossie for the sec 27, sec 28, sec 29, T. 16 S., R. 18 E. A state selection of 40 acres was also made.

Dr. Deane was called to hold a consultation with Dr. Logan this morning concerning Mr. McNeill's little son, who is very ill with typhoid fever and other complications. We are pleased to state the doctors are hopeful that the boy may recover.

The case of the State vs. Stoy was submitted to the jury at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, and at 1 o'clock Sunday morning they returned a verdict of guilty of simple assault. The indictment against Stoy was assault with a dangerous weapon.

The funeral of Wm. Thomas, who died at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Saturday, took place at Cascade Locks yesterday, conducted by Cascade lodge No. 104, I. O. O. F. Mr. Thomas was 39 years of age, and leaves a widow and four children. His home was across the river from Cascade.

Mr. Fred Wilson, of the Chronicle, and reporter of the same, passed a very pleasant evening in Hood River Saturday, being the guests of Mr. George Jones at the Mt. Hood hotel. Messrs. F. H. Button and James Langille assisted in making the evening so pleasurable that the 11:45 train came along apparently before 9 o'clock.

Two subscribers have stopped the Salem Post through the mail Postmaster card. The reason on the first is as follows: "He sees you say Cleveland is an honest man." The reason on the second card is: "You speak in favor of Cleveland." The Post says: "The joke of it is that this paper has never during all of its existence spoken a word 'in favor of Cleveland.'"

The freeman of Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington will hold a tournament at Pendleton prior to June 1, if the citizens of Pendleton will bid more for the tournament than the people of Walla Walla, or of The Dalles, La Grande, or of the City of Colfax, Washington. The town that offers the most will be selected as the place for holding it—East Oregonian.

The case of the state vs. D. McKelvey, indicted for larceny of hay, has been on trial in the circuit court today before a jury composed of Lark Lamb, L. J. Klinger, E. A. Griffin, J. C. Wheeler, J. P. Staniska, S. S. Johns, James Darnielle, Wm. Frizzell, S. R. Brooks, W. H. Williams and Geo. Rowland. Attorneys A. A. Jayne and E. B. Dufur are prosecuting and Huntington & Wilson defending.

From Tuesday's Daily. Mr. Joe Folco visited Cascade Locks today.

Mrs. Chas. Hilton went to Portland today.

Hon. L. N. Bowers, mayor of Hood River, is in the city.

Rev. J. C. Baker went to Lyle on the Regulator this morning.

Mr. A. Bettingen left on the Regulator for Portland this morning.

Mrs. J. W. French left yesterday for Oakland, Cal., where she will remain a month visiting friends.

Mr. Truman Butler came up from Portland yesterday to take the office of pursuer on the Regulator.

One Minute Cough Cure is a popular remedy for croup. Safe for children and adults. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Rev. Mr. Hawk, pastor of the M. E. Church of Goldendale, arrived on the local today returning from a visit to Portland.

A Salem man has been arrested for kissing a girl whom he had courted for two years. Served him right for waiting so long.

De Witt's Little Early Risers for biliousness, indigestion, constipation. A small pill, a prompt cure. Snipes & Kinsley Drug Co.

Mr. Alfred Slocum, of Portland, is in the city today, en route to Antelope to visit his brother who is engaged in sheep raising near that place.

Last evening Judge Bradshaw sentenced Ed. Stoy, who was convicted of assault, to a fine of $150 or seventy-five days' imprisonment in the county jail.

Mr. B. S. & L. Co.'s store at Hay Creek, arrived in the city yesterday. He was en route to Portland to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thompson left on the afternoon train for Portland to attend the wedding of Mrs. Thompson's brother, Mr. R. Hayes, Jr., and Miss Sommerville, which will be solemnized in Portland tomorrow.