ITEMS IN BRIEF.

From Saturday's Daily. Mr. R. A. Power, the Mosier mer chant, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan and Mrs. Roach visited Cascade Locks today.

Today Bissinger & Co. made a large shipment of hides, pelts and furs to their house in Portland. Next week Mr. B. Wolf will begin erecting a large and commodious residence on East Third Street. Parties who are in from Chenoweth creek say farmers in that section are busy plowing and seeding. Ex-Gov. Hogg of Texas has three children and their names are as follows: Ima Hogg, Ura Hogg, and Beah

Hogg. The Regulator officers are al patriotic Americans, and this morning floated the national colors in honor of the anniversary of Washington. Old glory waved from the flag pole on the dome of the court house today, and all public offices and banks in the city were closed. Messrs. Kaehler & Burchtorf are strengthening the Fitzgerald ruins on Second street so as to avert any accident similar to the one that occurred some two weeks ago. Mr. Louis Commini, proprietor of The Dalles marble works, is in Sherman county, setting up monuments in and taking orders for new work. Hon. W. H. Dufur and Messrs. C. P. Balch, and Geo. Nolin, of Dufur, are in the city. Mr. Balch has fully recovered from his recent illness, and we are pleased to state, appears as hale and hearty as ever. Mr. Geo. McManemy, of the firm of Wright & McManemy, proprietors of the saw mill located eleven miles above Dufur, was in the city today. He reports the lumber business opening up fairly well this season.

The improved condition of the roads together with the advanced price of wheat, is causing farmers to bring their remaining surplus to market. A number of loads were received at the Wasco Warehouse today. The Farmers House continues to as gaged in raising it, succeeded in putting it up four feet, today and in a few days will have it raised sufficiently high to admit of the lower story being put in.

Canby Relief Corps, No. 16, of Hood River, held a patriotic meeting on this, Washington's birthday. Mrs. Mary Scott Myers, department commander of this district, went to that city this morning to be present at the meeting.

Mr. W. E. Kahler returned yesterday from a visit to Morrow county. of the Umatilla House. Farmers in Morrow county, Mr. Kahler says, are actively engaged in plowing and seeding, and if the weather remains favorable, will seed an unusually large acreage this year.

The air in the East end had a decidedly sulphurous odor this morning when Mr. Beckwith, a commercial traveler from Portland, smashed down a fine new Victor bike. The wheel was scattered all over the street, and it was with considerable difficulty the rider gathered himself together.

The funeral services over the remains of the late A. K. Dufur, conducted at Dufur yesterday by Rev. Mr. Merril, were largely attended, the entire community being present to perform the last sad rites for their departed friend and neighbor. The remains were brought to this city, and this morning were sent to Iola, Wis., for interment.
