WASHINGTON, March 6 .- The president said to a representative of the Associated Press today: "I see it is assumed in certain quar ters that an article published a few days ago on the Cuban question may be taken as defining the attitude of the you would say that I never saw the alministration on the subject. I wish statement nor heard of it until I read it in the newspapers, and even then neglected to read all of it, supposing that it represented nothing more than newspaper guess. I do not know how it originated, nor by whom it was constructed or inspired, but I do know that I am in no manner responsible for it nor in any way related to it." "I only desire to say in addition that I do not know whether the publication referred to represents the views of the administration on the Cuban question or not, and that I never found any difficulty in communicating with the people in a manner which leaves no doubt as to the authenticity of any statement purporting to represent my views."

MUNITIONS OF WAR. Three More Expedititions Reach Cuba Safety.

NEW YORK, March 6 .- Cuban insurgents have succeeded in landing more munitions of war at Cuban points. Dr. Joaquin Castillo, chancellor of the Cuban legation, has received cipher dispatches announcing the safe arrival of three expeditions in Cuba. The expeditions sailed from Southern United States ports during the last two weeks, on three vessels, on February 20, 27 and 29. The first was a schooner, carrying 175 rifles and 175,000 rounds of cartridges; this vessel landed on the coast of Santa Clara provinces, between Caraterates and Sgua la Grande. The second expediion carried 150 rifles and 150,000 rounds of ammunition, and landed on the coast of Pinar del Rio between Bahia Honda and Mariet. This supply was placed in Cuba within 30 niles of the city of Havana. The ast expedition, sailing February 29, anded on the north of the province of Matanzas, near La Boca, about six miles from Cardenas.
