The Knebel boys, D. L. and J., have waged a relentless war upon wild cats this winter, having captured seven thus far. One of them was out on Government Flat yesterday and captured a large old cat that had been invading the neighboring hen roosts.

The McKinley club had an enthusiastic meeting last night. Spirited speeches were made by a number o members of the club, all of whom expressed themselves confident of success next June, but Oh! how badly their hopes will be blighted.

Further evidence of the sand-ladened snow which fell last Monday was received at this office today. Mr. T. M Denton, who resides on Mill Creek six the same is true of every section of miles west of the city, gathered from one square foot of surface one-fourth ounce of the sand that had fallen with the snow. The sand is a very fine powder, is of a redish brown color and is impregnated with alkali.

Considerable progress was made in the dredging work at the Cascades during the latter part of last week, and with favorable weather for a few days the channel leading to the upper end of the canal will be open. After that work is finished the dredger will likely be taken through the locks and put to work removing the lower bulkhead.

Although the mercury was down to zero at Moro last Monday morning, Sherman county farmers do not believe fall grain was injured by the freeze. The ground was covered with snow which protected the grain from the cold. Everything indicates that Sherman county will produce an immense yield of wheat this season, and in fact Eastern Oregon.

The members of the Bible class of the Christian church, of which Mr. George Ernest Stewart is teacher, as sembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Dufur last Saturday evening to commemorate Mr. Stewart's twentieth anniversary. About twenty members of the class were present, and after presenting Mr. Stewart with an elegant gold fountain pen, the remainder of the evening was very pleas antly devoted to music, conversation and appropriate games. Mr. J. M. Filloon returned last Sat arday from a visit to Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He reports business good in Iowa and very little complaint of dull times. On his return he came through North Dakota and Montana, which states were experiencing bitter cold weather. Mr. Filloon brought home with him some specimens of ore from the renowned Trail Creek country, in British Columbia, which are beauties. The rock carries gold, silver, copper and lead, and is very rich.

Wrong doers will sooner or later learn that Dalles City officials are not to be trifled with. Last night a man named Crate concluded that he could defy the city authorities, and would not be arrested, but he found Marshal Blakeney a more determined man than he had calculated, and as a result went to jail in a most dilapedated condition, his head being sorely bruised and his eyes dressed in mourning. He pleed guilty today in the recorder's court of disturb ing the peace, and was fined $50.

Hon. John Michell returned last night from Grass Valley, where he attended the republican rally last Saturday. The meeting, Mr. Michell says, was attended by about 500 persons, representatives of all political parties being present. Excellent music for the occasion was furnished by the Michigan, Moro and Grass Valley brass bands, and by two quartets, one from Moro and the other of Grass Valley.
