WASHINGTON, April 24 .- In the caucus of republican senators vesterday nention was made of several general ills which it was considered Imporant should receive attention before adjournment, among them being the Pacific railroads, the bankruptcy, imnigration and filled cheese bills. But t was the general opinion that no ttempt should be made to get up any of these at the expense of appropriation bills and that they should be postponed until the appropriation bills are out of the way. The order of their consideration will be left wholly to the eering committee. Considerable interest was manifested n caucus as to the attitude of the dem crats on the subject of adjournment, but no one was able to give definite nformation on this point. It was stated, however, that so far the individual democrats have expressed a wish for early adjournment. Senator Sherman appointed Messrs.
