THE PRICE OF WARRANTS.

The Chronicle quotes Dr. Hugh Logan as authority on the price of Wasco county warrants and credits him as saying they were sold at par in 1892.

The gold row in the republican party has been a large buyer of county script both in this and other counties.

THE POPULIST DOCTRINE

The representative of a political party who goes upon the stump as the nominee of the party, is supposed to voice the principles and doctrines, which will be adopted by that party should it secure the reins of government.

A SPECIMEN "INFANT."

A specimen of the "infant" industries that are reeling for McKinley and more protection was revealed in all its lusty strength in The World's dispatch from Pittsburgh on Saturday.

ELLIS' POSITION.

Since Mr. Dodd's speech, delivered in this city on Tuesday night of last week, at which a telegram was read from Hon. W. R. Ellis concerning what his position was on the financial question, there has been considerable controversy as to what the contents of the telegram was, what it meant, and if there was any question on the subject of what position Mr. Ellis would take on the money question after the promulgation of the St. Louis platform.

Mr. R. S. Huntington is credited with having said in his speech at Wasco that if elected to the legislature he would vote for no man for United States senator who is not a republican.

AN HONEST CONFESSION.

In the hard times, the falling in the values of securities, and the stagnation of business throughout the commercial world during the past three years has been accounted for by the republican press of the country in the change in policies adopted by the national administration in the United States in 1893-94.

TWO FALLACIOUS STATEMENTS

Both the Oregonian and the Telegram are holding out to the free-silver advocates that they wish to voice their sentiment for free-coinage in the coming election, the only way to do so is to vote for Martin Quinn.

DEAD WEIGHT.

The cause of Judge Northrup is not helped by the assistance he is receiving from the taxators, Lydell Baker, clerk of the railroad commission, and J. A. McCrum, one of the board.

A PRETTY FINE POINT.

Wherein the judge of a county court is clothed with any more authority than the judge of a county court in Oregon, is indeed a fine point of distinction.

PROMISED REFORMERS.

The democratic ticket in this county is stronger with the voters today than it was when nominated. The candidates are making an earnest, dignified and resolute campaign.

THE MOUNTAIN.

Mr. B. S. Huntington is credited with having said in his speech at Wasco that if elected to the legislature he would vote for no man for United States senator who is not a republican.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

An active and competent man, who possesses a knowledge of values and also has clerical ability is needed in the assessor's office.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

It is not so much of a question whether John H. Mitchell or J. N. Dolph shall be elected U. S. senator, as it is whether the taxpayers shall be protected from the ravages of the tax-gatherer.
