Tom is proving one of the most attractive drawing cards among the McKinley orators, according to Mr. Warner.

Good roads are essential to any city that expects to do business in this country. The Dalles especially is dependent on wagon traffic for its prosperity. Four teams broke down yesterday between this city and Floyd's. This should not be. What is coming in farmers are buying winter supplies, and yet the people living on this road between The Dalles and Floyd's say that it is the worst piece of road in the country.

Some criminal statistics which have just been published will doubtless interest a great many people. They give the number of murders and suicides which were perpetrated in this country in the year 1895 and they show a considerable increase in both classes of crime, as compared with the figures of the previous year. In 1895 there were 4200 murders, and last year the figures had risen to 10,500.

Undoubtedly the republicans are deceiving themselves with reference to what the result of the coming election will be, since they are estimating that The Dalles will go three to one for McKinley. This is probably on a par with their estimate of the vote of Sherman county, which they believe will be a stand-off, while a strong McKinley man writes from a precinct in that county, that has 47 voters, that he is the only McKinley man in it.

While making his daily tour of the East End this morning, the T-M reporter was informed of an attempt to hold up one of our citizens of that part of the city. Last night between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock Mr. — on his way home, saw two men standing in the dark on the corner opposite Moody's warehouse, having a suspicion that something was wrong, he stepped off the sidewalk into the street and started to run. When passing the two men in "the dark" he heard two loud whistles, as if used for a signal. It was immediately answered by another loud whistle, which seemed to come from the rear of Blaser's wagon shop, fearing that he was about to be relieved of all he possessed, Mr. — once more started his pace up Second street. He succeeded in evading the bold and naughty rascals, and arrived home safe and sound.

The Portland Welcome, a gold standard paper, figures it out this way: Two years ago unemployed men were being sent down the Coxy banner to Washington. Now they are riding free in palace coaches to Canton. The great American political campaign is quite a "snapp" to some people.

An Innovation. The matinee given by the Guild at the Baldwin last Saturday was indeed something unusual as an entertainment in this city, since it was one to which ladies and children only were admitted. This being the case, of course no newspaper reporters were there, hence all that could be learned regarding the play was through hearsay. This however is to the effect that the entertainment was a success in every sense of the word, as are all events conducted exclusively by and for the ladies. The farce, "The Garreters," was handsomely rendered, evidencing the fact that Miss Grubbs carefully and successfully drilled the participants. Another feature of the entertainment was a male quartet rendered by the ladies, which if reports are true, would have put all our base and tenor singers to shame. The entertainment drew a fair house, the Baldwin being completely filled, and all who were fortunate enough to have been admitted, pronounce the entertainment first class.

As there will be numerous requests for reduced rates on account of political meetings during the coming contest it has been decided that in order to treat all parties alike, a one fare will be given to all who attend the Company for various meetings of this character. This of course, is intended only for occasions where there is sufficient number to justify a reduction in rates. This is done so that there will be no partiality in favor of any one party.

The High-Banded Outrage. The Crook County Journal of the 8th, gives the following account of a transaction that occurred in the South Fork county, in Grant county:

"Some sheep from the Mitchell country, moved in on territory which the cattlemen say shall not be herded by sheep. One day last week, 14 armed men, riding on the backs of 14 horses, and one of the party, who was tasked, relieved the herder of his gun, at the same time giving him some pointers as to the advisability of his remaining in that section of the country if he placed any valuation on his life. The whole party then fired into the hand of sheep, killing and wounding from 200 to 250 head, burned the camp out and departed; promising to return again if the sheep were in that locality at a given time."

YEARS OF INTENSE PAIN. Dr. J. H. Watts, druggist and physician, Humboldt, Neb., who suffered with heart disease for four years, trying every remedy and all treatments known to himself and other practitioners, believes that heart disease is curable. He writes: "I wish to tell what your valuable medicine has done for me. For four years I had heart disease of the very worst kind. Several physicians I consulted, said it was Rheumatism of the Heart. It was intense, and endured with shortness of breath, palpitations, severe pains, unable to sleep, especially on the left side. No one can describe my sufferings, particularly during the last months of those four years. I finally tried Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and was surprised at the result. It put new life into and made a new man of me. I have had a complete cure of my heart disease, and I am satisfied your medicine has cured me for I have now enjoyed, since taking it."

Three Years of Splendid Health. I might say that I am a druggist and have sold and recommended your Heart Cure for I know what it has done for me and only wish I could state more clearly my suffering through and the good health I now enjoy. Your Nervine and other remedies also give excellent satisfaction." J. H. Watts, Humboldt, Neb., May 9, '96.

CONVERTED TO BRYANISM. Free Excursions to Canton Makes Votes Against McKinley.

A gentleman of this city received a communication from a relative who resides at Motels, Ind., who recently went on one of those free excursions to Canton, from which the following extracts are taken: "I was over to Meesa a few days ago (I suppose you know where that is) and I saw the 'golden calf,' but could not worship at his shrine. "You know I have been a republican all my life. When I read the St. Louisian I checked my faith considerably, for I expected something better, but I thought over the matter and concluded it was probably for the best. "On my rounds I met a good many men who had been to Canton. Most of them denounced it as a sham and a farce, some did not care to say much about it, and others considered it grand. I decided if there was another chance I would go and see for myself. The chance came, so I arranged to go, and the head manager seemed pleased to have me. We arrived at Canton about 8 A. M. and were marched direct to Mr. McKinley's home. We had a pleasant reception. He made us a speech, appeared to be pleased to see us, and after the reception, many men passed through the crowd inviting us to have refreshments. We were led down the street about two blocks where they led us into a large beer hall where there were several tables, and the head manager seemed pleased to have me. We arrived at Canton about 8 A. M. and were marched direct to Mr. McKinley's home. We had a pleasant reception. He made us a speech, appeared to be pleased to see us, and after the reception, many men passed through the crowd inviting us to have refreshments.
