PATRIOTISM AND ANARCHY.

Where anarchy ceases and patriotism'begins is indeed a delicate point, if we are to believe the discussions payment." that have been presented during the present campaign. The Chicago platform has been denounced as auarchistic for the following declaration: "We demand the free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 tc 1. without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard silver dollar shall be full legal tender, equal with gold, for all debts, public and private."

This, by the gold-standard press a mission so dishonest?" and gold-standard orators is said to be anarchism. That is to demand the reconsent of foreign powers, is anarchistic. In other words, if the United and for almost a century was the law of the country, without obtaining the consent of the other nations of the world, it is anarchistic. In short, when this nation undertakes to legislate for for itself, to pass independent laws without asking the consent of Europe. it and those who favor such action are anarchists. This assumption simmers down to the proposition that the United States is a servile government, not capable of legislating for itself without asking the crowned heads of Europe to acquiesce. Now here is patriotism according to the gold standard interpretation. It is embodied in the St. Louis platform: of silver, except by international agreement with the leading commercial nations of the world, and until such agreement can be obtained, the existing gold standard must be preserved.
