Mr. Montgomery's talk to the bankers and merchants was a telling one. chants cannot sell goods unless the farmers receive just compensation for their labor, and that banks cannot do a profitable business unless their clients, the producers, are prosperous. The only way the latter can be made prosperous is by increasing the circulating medium, and this can be accomplished only by opening our mints to silver.

Mr. Montgemery is a successful business man, possessing considerable wealth, and although he is not a fluent speaker, his high standing in commercial circles and his recognized ability as a financier, cause all to carefully

Last Night.

The temperance meeting given under the direction of the local W. C. T. U. at the court house last evening was well attended, the circuit court room being comfortably filled. The meet ing was presided over by Mrs. W. H. Biggs, president of the W. C. T. U., and addresses on temperance were delivered by Rev. L. Grey, Rev. J. H. Wood, Rev. W. C. Curtis and Mr. R. B. Hood, of this city, and Rev. Dr. Hines, of Hood River. The remarks of each of these gentlemen were appropriate, and many earnest appeals were made to the people of The Dalles to labor in the cause of temperance. Prof. Landers also gave a select reading, and interspersed between the addresses a number vocal selections were who may send their P. O. and Express s rendered, Mrs. Dr. Doane presiding at Prof. W.
