Encounter Between President Miller and Lawyer Yates

A SILVER SENATOR

The Washington Legislature Elects the Brilliant Spokane Silver Advocate Judge Geo. Turner.

A Fortune Accumulated by Thirty-Six Years of Saving—A Triumph of Modern Surgery.

CORVALLAS, Or., Jan. 23.—An altercation between H. B. Miller, president of the agricultural college, and J. Fred Yates, a prominent Corvallis lawyer and chairman of the Benton county republican central committee, occurred this morning on main street.

Miller sought Yates, and meeting him, accused him and his brother, William E. Yates, who is prosecuting attorney for this district and a member of the board of regents, of circulating a report that Miller was instrumental in bringing forth the Stanley bill, to establish an agricultural college in Eastern Oregon.

Yates asked Miller his authority for making such an accusation. Miller at first refused to divulge his authority. Finally he said he did not know who told him, but that he was so told and that such reports were derogatory to him and harmful to the institution.

Yates replied that if Miller was told such a thing he would certainly know who was his informant.

"You are a liar," said the president of the college, and was immediately knocked down by Yates. In falling he clinched with Yates, and both fell in the street. Yates broke loose and they continued to fight until separated by friends.

Mr. Miller could not be seen in regard to the affair, as he took the train for Salem.

Constipation in its worst forms, dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness and derangement of the liver, are readily cured by the use of the cathartic known as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

THE ROSEBURG HOLD-UP. ROSEBURG, Or., Jan. 30.—Yesterday the sheriff tracked one of the supposed train robbers over the hill east of the railroad into Grosvenor canyon.

The man had gone to an empty holding pen to the fence as when down the hill to the creek, finally turning and coming toward town, where the trail was lost on the hard ground.

The supposition is the robbers are now in town.

The officers are reticent as to the theory they are working upon, but claim they have a slight edge, which they will not divulge.

Several detectives today are on the case. Many people today were fishing for valuables in the small stream at the mouth of the hold-up. One man found one $20 and one $10 gold piece in a handful of mud.

If you want to give your boy or girl a thorough business education, Holmes' business college in Portland affords the best opportunity.

General Arbitration Favored. WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Senator Bacon, of Georgia, presented in the senate today resolutions declaring that the United States desires to maintain peace with all the world and favoring international arbitration for the settlement of all differences with any other nation, where they fall to adjust a diplomatic negotiation.

BEING TAKEN TO TACOMA. Henry Earl Arrested in San Francisco for Hoarding the Macabees.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—Henry M. Earl, 24 years of age, was arrested Saturday night by Police Constable Graham and Sheriff Cunningham, of San Joaquin county, and booked at the city prison en route to Tacoma, where he is wanted for the embezzlement of the funds of the Macabees.

Earl was a collector for the Macabees, and failed to turn over to the treasurer all the money paid to him. He left Tacoma shortly after he embezzled the money and came to California.

The penitentiaries of Earl are known to be $200. The money was paid in by members for insurance. The examination made so far covers the accounts of about one month. It is feared the total will be much larger, possibly as much as $2000, when the accounts of the entire year 1896 are gone over.

DAWES FOR CONTROLLER. He Has Accepted the Appointment to Succeed Eckels.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Charles G. Dawes said to an Associated Press representative today: "I have been tendered and have accepted the appointment of controller of the currency. I have much regretted the early publicity which has unavoidably attached to the matter, for it seems to have given rise to the inference that I had some doubts of succeeding Eckels prior to the expiration of his commission in 1898. I can say for myself and I think I speak for all concerned, that I sincerely hope that Eckels may see his way clear to the retention of his position until the expiration of his commission. He is a distinguished services as controller of the currency, rendered with honor and credit."

FOUGHT WITH BOMBS

Cuban Insurgents Dynamiting Railroad Trains.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL

Two Prisoners in the Jackson County Jail Make Their Escape From the Officers.

Cuba's Break Through the Trocha—Three Forts Destroyed and Spanish Soldiers Join the Insurgents—New Cuban Governor.

HAVANA, via Key West, Jan. 31.—Despite rumors lately circulated to the effect that the insurgents were completely demoralized, and that the Cubans had broken into scattered bands of 50 or so in the province of Pinar del Rio, news has been received that the insurgents have blown a passenger train up, causing much damage and considerable loss of life. Although the censor prohibited the publication of the news in Havana, it soon leaked out, creating a sensation, and the liveliest discussion in places where groups gathered. At 6 o'clock on the morning of January 29 a military train, with engine No. 17, carrying Captain Dupla and a force of engineers, left Artemisa, and while passing a culvert at a place called Ocumara, between Candelaria and Mangas stations, a dynamite bomb exploded, destroying the engine and the armored train, as well as the culvert, also wrecking several cars. Engineer Genaro Rodriguez, an American; Ciraco Carreras, the fireman, and three soldiers were killed. Military Dr. Gonzalez, Aedo, the conductor, the brakeman and 12 private soldiers were wounded. Captain Dupla and the sergeant escaped injury. The bodies of the engineer and fireman were sent to Havana for burial. A repair train has been sent from Candelaria to repair injuries to the line. All the wounded were sent to Candelaria.

Other reports from the province of Pinar del Rio announce that Mariel Rodriguez and 1500 men succeeded in crossing the trocha and joining the insurgents in the province of Pinar del Rio. General Ruiz Rivas, it is asserted, also succeeded in passing the trocha, entering Havana province, and it is claimed he is in charge of insurgent forces in this province.

BROKE JAIL EASILY. How Two Prisoners Gained Freedom at Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., Jan. 31.—J. C. Hopkins and Frank Murphy, held for burglarizing the store of D. M. Miner in Ashland about three weeks ago and who were confined in the county jail here awaiting the action of the grand jury, broke jail last night and have not been recaptured. They succeeded in getting out of the jail by cutting the staple which held the bar in the lock-box and as the lower bar was not locked they had only to slide it out of the way and the door was open. The staple was removed it appears by reaching the hand through a section of the lattice work and using a chain piece of wood or iron along beneath the staple and lifting it up, when it would turn over and fall out of the bar, thus relieving it and leaving it free to be drawn out and the door was opened without further hindrance. One in the open jail it was an easy matter with a heavy piece of iron they had wrenched from the building, to burst open the outer door and gain their liberty.
