

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

(From Saturday's Daily.) E. C. Peseo took an outing today going as far east as Rufus.

Charlie Francis is improving rapidly and will be found well in a short time.

The roads are drying fast and people can get about with little inconvenience.

The Misses Jay are reported convalescent, and their recovery is now assured.

John Anthony, of LaGrande, is in the city visiting his cousin, August Buchler and family.

Father Bronsegg was called to Hood River today to visit one of his parishioners who is dangerously ill.

The Pilgrim brought up a good number of passengers from Portland yesterday, and took away quite a number this morning.

The 1897 assessment roll was turned over to the sheriff by County Clerk Kelsey today with a warrant attached for the collection of the taxes thereon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Kretzer left for Waco today. Mr. Kretzer is engaged in drilling artesian wells in Sherman county and has put down six during the past winter.

We are pleased to state that District Attorney A. A. Jayne has determined to locate in The Dalles, and that he will become a permanent resident of the city.

Moore Bros., bankers of Moro, in Sherman county, are working for an electric plant for the town, the waters of the Deschutes to be used to operate the plant.

Last night Star Rebekah Lodge, No. 23 was installed at Dufur by Dr. O. D. Doane, district deputy. The lodge was organized with a charter membership of 24.

W. L. Campbell, of Caleb, Grant county, is in the city today, and is exhibiting a cancer about the size of a walnut that was removed from his left hand by Dr. Dietrich, of Dufur.

Carl Peitz was in from Eschaville yesterday, where he reported everything flourishing throughout Sherman county. Crop prospects are better than ever before known in that section.

A. Field was the first man in Waco county to pay his taxes for 1937. No sooner had the roll been turned over to the sheriff today, than Mr. Field appeared and squared his account with the county, taking up tax receipt No. 1.

The idea that the ground-hog came out on the 21 of February, saw his shadow and crawled back into his hole was today exploded. Billy Hoisinger captured one near the Cosmopolitan building's appearance as if he had been in his hole for six months.

Tom Ward is the happy possessor of a little bantam rooster that has more pluck than either Corbett or Fitzsimmons. The little bird is given the freedom of the Ward, Kerns & Robinson livery barn, and is ready for a "scraper" with all comers.

Those who contemplate attending the minstrel on the 8th are warned to all be on hand at 8 o'clock sharp, as members of the troupe desire to take the 10 o'clock train for the East, in order to escape the retribution that may follow their appearance on the stage.

This morning N. Jensen, of the employe of Sanford Bros., at their cannery above The Dalles, slipped and fell, striking his head upon some timber cutting a fearful gash in his scalp. He was brought to this city and had his wound dressed by Dr. Logan.

Had it not been for the Regulator line, the people of The Dalles have paid out a quarter of a million dollars more for freight than they have in the last five or six years. A line that has thus saved them money in the past is still entitled to their patronage in the future.

A "loaded" stick of wood in the office of Brokaw Bros., at Stanwood, in Snohomish county, a few days ago, shattered the stove and injured C. J. Jorne. Mr. Hancock and another man escaped unharmed, though pieces of the stove were hurled past their heads and buried in the walls.

The "nickel-in-the-slot" machine has invaded Dufur. It may be seen and tested at the drug store. As a nickel consumer it will discount the "nearest-the-crack" game. It won't take buttons, so hereafter our deacons when taking collections will find it a "button-in-the-hat" game.—Dispatch.

Some of the apple orchards of Hood river seem to have been considerably injured by the freezing weather in November last, but we do not believe the damage is as great as has been reported during the past week. The Yellow Newtown and Spitzenberg apple trees seem to be the most affected.—Glacier.

The city jail evidently has charms for a drunk who was released yesterday after having served a sentence and at once proceeded to celebrate the event by getting on a big drunk last night, and was run in again by the marshal. Recorder Phelps gave him a $15 dose this morning, and he will have another term in the jail.

Last night Cedar Grove entertained their friends and invited guests of the Woodmen lodge with the institution of a new lodge, the Hilaro Jound and the initiation of a stranger into the fold. The exercises were most humorous, and together with the other exercises furnished abundant amusement for the guests.

Recently the state game commissioner of Ohio introduced six Denny pheasants from Oregon into Ohio, and the legislature of that state passed a law prohibiting the slaughter of pheasants for any purpose until the year 1939, in hope that the birds may be multiplied sufficiently by that time to enable the flocks to survive the open game season.

Now is the season of the year to re-tille roads. While the ground is still soft, and we would suggest, to this effect. We would suggest, to this effect. We would suggest, to this effect.

Dr. Billie Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the free bottle will be sent to any sufferer who will make a clear profit of $1000.

mony, is insouciant to sustain a conviction.—Portland Oregonian. This is repetition of the old saying about going away from home for news. The trial of Baker took place in Portland, but the fact evidently escaped the notice of the Oregonian news gatherer, though the case was reported in that paper the day after it was tried. Fitzsimmons' wife, Rose Julian, who has just lost her mother, will be remembered by many in Portland as having been here in about 1853. She and her brother, Martin, the prize-fight promoter, formed a famous scuba team that performed well about that time. Since these married Fitzsimmons, Martin has abandoned the stage to abide in the reflected glory of his brother-in-law—Oregonian.

The beautiful weather of last week has changed into a drizzling weebot mist again, and Eastern Oregon cannot boast of being itself any longer.

The U. S. senate desecrated the Sabbath and held a session yesterday, passing the sundry civil bill, which carries an appropriation of $31,000,000.

Messrs. Ernest Hatch and J. Pond, prominent businessmen of Arlington, and the latter an attaché of the Arlington Record, are in the city visiting friends.

Slight repairs are being made to the locks at Cascades today, hence a transfer of freight and passengers was made and the Regulator will return here this evening.

J. P. Province arrived last evening with a load of beef from Summit prairie, Crook county. Mr. Province shipped his cattle to Portland this afternoon.

If the old saying of "coming in like a lion and going out like a lamb," we ought to have a dandy last day of March. Today had something of a "lion" appearance.

Mr. Brooks, who has been supervising the repairing of the Dalles City in Portland, has returned here, the boat now being in perfect repair and ready to go into service as soon as the new paint hardens.

The Albany Democrat says it is learned that 10 or 12 young men of the Albany will go to Carson City to witness the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. They will walk all the way, and expect to leave Albany this morning.

Rev. J. N. T. Goss, who has filled the station of rector of the Episcopal church of this city the past year, has accepted a call from Salt Lake, and has severed his connection with the church here. Mr. Goss' farewell sermon was delivered yesterday.

One of the men employed by Glenn & Co., the contractors of the Astoria & Goble railroad, had a terrible experience recently. He was sent with a horse from near Clifton to a point near Clifton on the Columbia river, and for three days and nights wandered helplessly lost in the timber, finally bringing up near Knappa, in McFarlane's camp.

Special Agent Sherwood, of the Indian department, recently held a council with about 25 Indians, who live near Tumwater, on the Columbia river, for the purpose of ascertaining if they would consent to be moved to the Yakima reservation. The old braves, who had made Tumwater their home since childhood, by a unanimous vote, declined the government's proposal to move them. The matter is left to the option of the Indians, hence the colony at Tumwater will not be disturbed.

A. G. Ogilvie, of Fossil, Gilliam county, has sold a bond of 2000 3-year-old weathers to Charles White, for $2 a head, after shearing, to be delivered in several miles away. The man for his Mr. White in the purchase. There are the sheep Mr. Ogilvie bought of Mr. Steiner last fall for $1.75 a head. The expense of running them from that time until shearing will be about $500, and they will produce 11 pounds of wool a head; and Mr. Ogilvie figures that by this sale he will make a clear profit of $1500.

A pleasing program has been prepared for that evening, after which a dietary lunch will be served. You are cordially invited to be present. Divors are at work repairing the valves that operate the gates at Cascades. It will require several days to get the locks in operation. C. W. Watts, editor of the Albany Telescope, spent last night in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fillion, and left this morning for his home. The Good Templars have postponed their social which was to be given next Saturday evening, for one week, and will be given Saturday evening March 13th. It is conceded that the Senter Payton Co. furnishes better entertainment than any other company of like size on this coast. They open in The Dalles tonight. R. J. Gilmore, of Heppner, who is buying beef for Fry, Brune & Co. of Seattle, is in the city, and shipped three car loads of cattle to the sound this afternoon. Judge Mays got home last night from Seattle, and is much improved in health, though he has not thoroughly recovered, being still bothered some what with rheumatism. Chas. Donnelly, who has had a position in T. A. Hudson's office the past year, left this morning for San Francisco, where he will reside in the future, pursuing the study of law. Several fossil sports, blessed with more time and horses than money, are planning to go on horseback to see the big fight at Carson City on March 17th. The ride can be made in ten days. J. C. Hertz has moved his clothing store to 177 Second street, and now has one of the handsomest stores in the city.
