Mallory is Elected Senator From Florida-A Bad Fire in Lexington, By.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.-Theodore Durrant, through his attorneys, will ask Governor Budd today to pardon him, on the ground that the real murderer of Blanche Lamont has at last confessed his crime. The lawyers declare that they have not been hoaxed, nor is it their purpose to impose on the executive. They insist that in the person of John Rosenberg, a convict at San Quentin prison, they have discovered the man who is guilty of the horrors in Emanuel church.

John Rosemberg has made a sworm confession before a notary public and in the presence of several witnesses that he killed Blanche Lamont at the instigation of a stranger, and in consideration of the payment of $700 for his bloody work. It is with this sensation that the attorneys will strengthen their case at Sacramento today.

The story and its details is one of the most remarkable that has developed in the case. Rosenberg is a Russian sailor, and arrived here on a sailing vessel from Hamburg during the last week of March, 1895, or on the first day of April. He is now serving a term for horsestealing, and appears

The Confession is False. SAN FRANCISCO, May 14 .- The alleged confession of Convict John Rosenberg, of San Quentin prison, that he murdered Blanche Lamont, is uttery discredited here, no one placing the least credence in it. The police pronounce it a baseless fabrication. The ship Hospidar, on which Rosenberg says he came hither from Hamburg, arrived, according to the records of the harbor commissioners, in November, 1895, but the police say she arrived in June, 1895. In either case, ner arrival was subsequent to the murder of Blanche Lamont, for which Durrant is to be hanged. She was murdered in April, 1895, so Rosenberg could not possibly be her murderer.

When they had approached within about 100 yards of the wine house, Brown mounted his horse, and disregarded the commands of the officers to surrender, whereupon they opened fire and sent about a dozen leaden messengers after him, but none took effect. Brown, being mounted on a fine horse, soon put sufficient distance between him and his pursuers that he was safe from their fire and escaped around a ledge of rocks, while the officers returned to town, determined to take lessons to markmanship under the tutorship of Capt. A. Ad. Keller at the rifle range. Brown is

Yours truly, KATIE CARSON,

To Bring Us Trade. wagon road from Fossil to The Dalles and also to build a bridge across the John Day on a road leading from and lay 300 feet of hose, and getting Canyon City to Fossil. A subscription to raise funds for the purpose has been circulated in The Dalles, and has been so liberally signed, that if it receives like encouragement in other interested places, the road is assured. Such a road would be of considerable advanttach and lay 300 feet of hose; first age to The Dalles, since it would divert a considerable amount of trade from the upper John Day, that now goes to Heppner, to this place. On account of the low freight rates to be had here, if a good wagon road were built to Fossil, people from the John Day would come here in preference to going to Heppner, and the majority of the freight for Canyon City, John Day Town and Prairie City would be
