

TO SUBSCRIBER

During the past two years of extreme dull times the Times-Mountaineer has been sent regularly to a great many who no doubt appreciate the paper, but who have not been called upon for a settlement of their subscription. During those years we have endeavored to keep the paper going without calling upon delinquents, knowing that money was difficult to get, but now that times have improved we feel that our patrons should not only settle all arrearages, but pay their subscription one year in advance. We have trusted many of you one and two years, and feel that a return of the compliment is due. You are therefore urged to pay up back subscriptions and one year in advance, which will entitle you to the Times-Mountaineer and the Webfoot Planter one year as a premium.

ITEMS IN BRIEF

From Tuesday's Daily. Rev. Frank Spaulding, of Wasco, was in the city today. Attorney Webster Holmes, of Salem, is here attending court. Rev. J. H. Wood went to Portland on the 9:30 train this morning. This is elegant weather for ducks. Plans of rain and mud, mixed in with a little snow. Capt. Sherman, formerly master of the steamer Regulator, was in the city last night. H. M. Cate, attorney for the Standard Oil Co., came up from Portland on last night's train. E. Turnbow, of Portland, who has been visiting his uncle, Joe Shannon, will return home tomorrow. On Thursday evening, December 2, the Rathbone Sisters will give a social hop at the Vogt opera house. The rain, sleet and mud is a little disagreeable, but it is just the thing for the country, and nobody should complain. A year ago there was a foot of snow on the ground in The Dalles, and on Thanksgiving night the mercury was down to zero. The forms for the special edition of the Times-Mountaineer will be closed by the 10th of next month, and all parties desiring space in same should make application early. Mrs. D. L. Cates, of Cascade Locks, is in the city, having come up on the boat last evening. Mrs. Cates has been quite ill for some time and is here under medical treatment. Frank Heater and a man named Doffey had a slight altercation last night, and Doffey came out with a badly split head, necessitating several stitches being taken in his scalp to make it look like a normal head. Hon. W. E. Grace, a prominent druggist and leading democrat of Baker City, accompanied by his brother, Sheriff Geo. Grace, of Clackamas county, passed up the road last night on route to Baker. The financial condition of Grant county shows some improvement. Treasurer Hasting has taken on hand for the redemption of outstanding warrants bearing date of registration prior to January 24, 1937. P. C. Snyder returned last evening from Antelope where he had been working in the interest of the special edition of the Times-Mountaineer. He received a liberal contribution from the southern part of the county. Men who have been selling whisky to Indians at Pendleton are experiencing a slight unpleasantness with the U. S. court at Portland. Several of them have been indicted, and will have a day of recovering ere long. Yesterday the controller of the currency declared a dividend of 25 cents in favor of the creditors of The Dalles National bank that was closed last June. This would seem to indicate that all claims against the bank will be paid in full. Word was received from Chehalis this morning that a surgical operation was performed on little Teddie Briggs at that place Sunday, which was successful, but blood poisoning has set in, and it is only a question of a few days when death will ensue. Farmers throughout the country are now busy plowing. The ground is thoroughly wet, and is in fine condition for plowing. Indications are that there will be an immense crop of wheat soon during the winter and next spring if the weather continues favorable. The Kootenai river at Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, on the line of the Great Northern, rose 22 feet in 24 hours last Friday. The Kootenai Indians, who have lived there for generations, say the rise is unprecedented. Kootenai is the largest river in that section, and carries an immense body of water. It is navigable at many points. Hugh Brown and Robert Wilson, indicted jointly with E. Simmons for robbing a lot of Indians near the O. R. & N. Co. house last July, pleaded guilty, and this morning were sentenced to two years each in the penitentiary. Simmons, Brown and Wilson being exported to the penitentiary will be a good ridance to The Dalles. That wave of prosperity that has struck nearly every interior town in Oregon has not yet been realized in the metropolis of the state, except among the jobbers. Retailers in Portland complain seriously of all trade, and there are thousands of unemployed men on the streets looking for work, and some begging for bread. The highest stage of water above Willamette falls this season was 10.95 feet, reached Sunday morning at Oregon City. During the day the water receded 1.10 feet. During the preceding 24 hours the river below the falls fell 4.10 of a foot, by last night it stood at 18.8. The snow that fell Friday is practically all gone, and rain is falling copiously. There is a large consignment of goods at the O. R. & N. freight house for the Indian agency at the Warm Springs. One case of the goods is labeled "15 dozen tooth brushes, 21 dozen bed spreads, 40 pairs suspenders."

So it would seem that Uncle Sam proposes that Lo shall keep his teeth clean, his body tidy and his breeches brushed up, but it is not likely the Mr. Indian will find much use for the tooth brushes, for he is not given to brushing his teeth. Nevertheless Uncle Sam's tax payers will have to foot the bill for the brushes just the same. The Portlanders who visited The Dalles yesterday expressed surprise at the elegance of the club rooms here and were free to state that no club in Portland is so comfortably quartered. They suggested that the Portland Commercial Club send a committee here to take lessons in the art of decorating and furnishing a club house. During the past season Isaac Joles and Wm. Young have been prospecting a placer claim at Spanish Gulch, Grant county, and have returned well pleased with their mine. During one day they took out $10 with a single rocker, and have plenty of ground that prospects well. They arrived here from their mine last night, and have ordered hydraulic apparatus which they will put up on their mine next year. There is no place in Oregon that gets better freight rates than The Dalles. This is owing to its having an open river to the sea, which gives it competition between rail and river transportation. With such advantages The Dalles cannot but retain a considerable trade for the surrounding country, however, it cannot afford to rest on its own, but must put forth an effort to retain what trade it has and get more. A comparison of storm records reveals the fact that the recent storm was unique in its several features. The maximum velocity of the wind during the last gale at Fort Canby was 88 miles, from the southeast, at 8 A. M., the last day of the storm. The wind was unprecedented in that it blew at an average of 63 miles per hour for 36 consecutive hours, and blew over 70 miles for several hours. The highest wind record at Fort Canby shows a velocity of 104 miles, in December, 1884. When the Portland wholesalers started on their tour of the inland Empire a week ago Sunday they engaged a barber to accompany them, that they might appear well groomed wherever they might visit, but when they reached The Dalles and made a short stop, their barber, who had appeared, knew nobody. Anyway, when he went to ply his tonsorial skill he had neither razors, brush nor lather, and when the train reached Spokane he was re-outfitted by the tourists. From Wednesday's Daily. W. H. Holmes, of Salem, is in the city today. D. C. O'Reilly, superintendent of the College of Southern, was in the city last night. Miss Grace Smith has taught in Miss Flinn's room at Academy Park school the past few days. The tenth grade in the high school this afternoon held exercises, the subject being Tenison's poems. Mrs. Skibbe and Miss M. J. Brookhouse left yesterday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with friends in that city. Henry Darnelle has sold his interest in the East End feed yard to J. Banty, and hereafter the yard will be run by Sexton & Banty. Miss Millie Kemp, of Hood River, will arrive here this evening and will enter The Dalles public schools as a student next week. One hundred Webfoot calves will arrive here by boat this evening to be turned on the ranges in this county. They belong to Mr. Frasier. Walter Davy, a prominent stock raiser of Baker, is in the city today. He is suffering with a badly bruised hand and came here for medical treatment and is under the care of Dr. Logan. Yesterday Miss Maggie Flinn, teacher of the third grade in Academy Park school, received a telegram announcing the death of her brother who had just completed a medical course in Minnesota. Today Adolph Kober, of Kinsley, was made a full-fledged citizen of the United States, taking the oath of allegiance before Judge Bradshaw. He took out his first papers in Philadelphia 26 years ago. The checks for the second dividend declared by the controller of currency in favor of the creditors of The Dalles National bank have been received by Receiver Wilson, and are ready for delivery to the owners. On Monday, Mrs. Clara Underhill, of Boyd, was in the city buying supplies for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Underhill proposes to have a reunion of her friends and neighbors at her home tomorrow, and those who are fortunate guests at her table will be most hospitably entertained. Three elegant prizes were awarded by raffio at the Catholic fair last night. Silver pitcher, photograph album and basket ball. The prizes were won by pitcher, Hugh Farnham; the album and Wm. Herrick the lamp. A peculiar incident connected with the raffio was that ticket No. 2 won each of the two first prizes. A new secret order called the "Vigilantes," that has an insurance feature, has sprung into existence, and a gentleman by the name of Phillips is in the city undertaking to organize a lodge in The Dalles. Years ago the writer hereof happened to live in a community where an organization called the "Vigilantes" existed. It however did not have any special insurance features attached, but rather engaged in the business of decorating juniper trees with unsavory fruit-horse thieves, etc. Still it insured the community that a deserving candidate never escaped its vigilance. (From Friday's Daily.) M. Sichel, of Portland, is visiting in the city. L. V. Moore and wife, of Mero, are in the city. J. F. Graham, master mechanic for the O. R. & N. Co., is in the city. Claim Agent Hall, of the O. R. & N. Co., is in the city today attending court. The wheat market has settled down again and buyers today are offering 70 cents. Next week F. S. Gordon's new grist mill at Tygh Valley will be in readiness to begin grinding. T. H. Johnston, the enterprising Dufur merchant, is in the city today accompanied by his wife. Mr. Synnot, a prominent Sherman county farmer, was in the city this morning accompanied by his son, who resides in Chicago and who has been visiting his parents the past few weeks. Hon. J. F. Moore, register of the U. S. land office, is confined to his home by a severe case of tonsillitis. Fred Drews, who is in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co. at Portland, ate turkey with his parents in the city yesterday. Mrs. Harry Fowler, who has been visiting Mrs. L. E. Crowe since last Monday, returned this morning to Portland. Gertrude French spent Thanksgiving in the city with her parents and returned this morning to her home in Portland. Messrs. Wm. Minor and J. M. Long, of the law firm of Cox, Cotton, Teal & Minor, of Portland, are in the city today attending court. The turkey shooting on the beach yesterday attracted a considerable crowd and many a good marksmen went away loaded down with the birds. J. H. Cradlebaugh and R. B. Sinnott left for Sumpter to look after the mines near there in which they are interested. Mr. Cradlebaugh will probably remain at the mines during the winter. There will be a union meeting held at the M. E. church Sunday evening beginning at 8:15, conducted by the Christian Endeavor, Epworth League and Baptist Union. All are cordially invited. J. S. Edwards, advance agent of Prof. McEwen, the celebrated hypnotist, is in the city today, and has arranged for a week's engagement at Prof. McEwen at the Vogt opera house, commencing Dec. 6th. The foundation for the new school house is about completed and is a most substantial affair. The stone walls of the foundation reach from bedrock to the surface, and on top of this is laid eight feet of brick wall, making a 10 foot basement. The Episcopal Guild met at the vestry Wednesday afternoon and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. T. A. Hudson, president; Mrs. D. W. Vause, vice-president; Mrs. C. Hillon, secretary, and Mrs. C. J. Pringle, treasurer. The morning Sibel & Co., of Prineville, shipped two car loads of stock cattle from zero to Ontario. They were in charge of Prior Smith, and were a remnant of a band delivered by the company some time ago on a contract with an eastern buyer. Mrs. Margaret Farley, mother of Mrs. J. C. Christian, of Portland, died at Salem today. The remains will be brought here for burial and will be taken to Crandall & Burgett's undertaking parlors. The funeral will be conducted from the Catholic church at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. The most interesting features of the program at the fair last night were the vocal trio by Sulpes, Barrett and Frank, the recitation by Walter Reavis, solo by Geo. Kohler, and the ten minutes with the four corners. The orchestra also rendered some excellent music that was highly appreciated. Surveyor Golt has just returned from a trip into the southern part of the county, and says that section has been visited by abundant showers of rain and snow. While in the country Mr. Golt surveyed a ditch for Charles Uren that is one and one-half miles long, and by which Mr. Uren proposes to drain out of Deschutes and lead it to his farm at Cove. About 9 o'clock last night Sheriff Driver went to the jail to see that everything was all right and discovered that the inmates had been tampering with the lock on the front door, which they could reach by reaching through the grate. The lock is a heavy one, and the key hole had been filled with wood in an attempt to unfasten it. Mr. Driver could not unlock it at the time, and did not succeed in getting the door open until late this forenoon. As a result he was not able to start three men to the penitentiary today, as he had expected to do. What the Shakers of Mount Lebanon know more than about anybody else, is the use of herbs and how to be healthy. They have studied the power of food. They nearly all live to a ripe old age. The Shaker Digestive Cordial is prepared by the Shakers from herbs and plants with a special tonic power over the stomach. It helps the stomach digest its food, and digested food is the strength-maker. Strong muscles, strong body, strong brain, all come from properly digested food. A sick stomach can be cured, and digestion made easy by Shaker Digestive Cordial. It cures the nausea, loss of appetite, pain in the stomach, headache, giddiness, weakness and all the other symptoms of indigestion, certainly and permanently. Sold by druggists. Trial bottle 10 cents. Wania 8200 Damages. The case of N. O. Coderson, administrator of the estate of Wm. Coderson, deceased, vs. the O. R. & N. Co. was called up in court this morning and is being tried before a jury consisting of H. C. Bateman, J. M. Elliott, John Herricks, M. Dickman, M. V. Rand, Hans Lage, Geo. Cooper, C. H. Stranahan, W. R. Rodman, E. K. Russell, C. E. Chrisman and David Cooper. The case is one in which the plaintiff seeks to recover $5,000 damages for the death of Wm. Coderson about a year ago. Coderson started to cross the track of the O. R. & N. Co. near Sufers' cannery, and while waiting for a freight train to pass, the flange on one of the car wheels broke, letting the car leave the track, and fall upon Coderson, crushing him to death. Judge Bonnet is attorney for the plaintiff and Messrs. Minor and Long for the railroad company. Serious Storm at Antelope. Thursday of last week Antelope was visited by the severest wind storm ever known in that locality. There was no instrument there to measure the velocity of the wind, but it was estimated to have been at least 75 miles an hour. Three houses were blown down in the town of Antelope, and the damage to farm property in the surrounding country was considerable. Barns were unroofed and a large amount of fencing was damaged. Fortunately no lives were lost and no one was injured. The wind came from the southwest and fairly set everything loose moving. Lost-Liberal Reward. A purse containing $60 in gold was lost between Darnelle's feed yard and Five-Mile. Find it will be liberally rewarded by returning same to E. B. MILLER, Moro, Oregon.

THE PORTLAND MERCHANTS. They Were Entertained by Dalles Dealers for Two Hours. The special train carrying the Portland wholesale merchants who had been touring the upper country arrived here at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, and a stop of two hours was made in order that they should have an opportunity to cultivate a more intimate acquaintance with Dalles people. The weather was decidedly unfavorable for getting around, rain and snow having poured down during the entire journey, but the Portlanders are not unaccustomed to "falling" weather, hence they made the best of the situation and apparently enjoyed themselves. The train was met at the depot by Judge Blakeley and Messrs. Pease and Ireland, and was escorted down First street to in front of the Commercial Club rooms, where it was stopped, and the visitors alighted and proceeded to the club's home in a dreadful shower, but the weather outside made no difference to the club members that much more acceptable, so that the Portlanders were made to realize that while the elements were angry, The Dalles extended to them a hearty and most cordial greeting. After accepting the courtesies of the club for an hour, the visitors sought shelter under umbrellas and started out for a tour of the city, visiting their numerous customers and friends at their respective places of business, and forming acquaintances that will grow into lasting friendship. After an hour spent visiting different parts of the city, the visitors again boarded their train for Portland, all expressing themselves highly pleased with their visit to The Dalles. The gentlemen comprising the party of visitors and the business interests represented by them were as follows: Agricultural implements—F. V. Franklin, of the Buffalo Pitts Thresher Co. Attorneys—R. Large Attendance and an Enjoyable Evening Was Spent. Vogt opera house was filled to overflowing Tuesday night the opening of the fair given by the ladies of St. Peter's church. The hall was most tastefully decorated, and the booths had to be seen for one to appreciate their real beauty. They reached from the door to the stage on the right side of the entrance, while at the left was the voting contest for the most popular lodge in the city, the refre. H. advertisement and railroad booth, and at the farther end next to the stage was the paper booth, which presented the musical and literary program most attractive appearance of all, also a tastefully arranged candy booth. rendered by St. Mary's Academy orchestra and students was greatly enjoyed by all, and was as follows: Lillian Starnes, solo; R. Boushiser, judgment for want of answer. A. R. Florer vs. James M. Florer, decree of divorce. Going Back to Father's for Thanksgiving. Thursday there was a reunion of the family of Gov. Moody at the family home in Salem. All the children and grand children will be present to partake of the Thanksgiving dinner at the old homestead. They include Z. A. Moody and family, of Astoria; R. E. Moody and family, of Portland; W. H. and family and M. A., of The Dalles, and Miss Edna, who resides with her parents at Salem. Farm For Sale. One hundred and sixty acres of land one mile from The Dalles, on Dry Hollow. All fine fruit land, 50 acres in cultivation, 200 bearing apple trees on the place, house, barn and other improvements. Will be sold at a bargain. Address Robert Cooper, The Dalles, Oct. 15-16. White Star Line Notice. Until further notice the passenger fares between The Dalles and Portland will be as follows: One way.....$1.00 Round trip.....$1.50 J. S. BOOTH, General Agent. Karl's Clover Root Tea, for constipation is the best, and after using it you don't say so, returns the package and get your money. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, The Dalles. patients to such institutions often prefer the medical profession and as aid to the medical profession for the benefit of the afflicted a hospital should be established in every town of any considerable size. The Dalles certainly offers an excellent location for such an establishment. It has the advantage of a healthful climate, has skilled physicians in any city in the state, and is easy of access. A hospital here would be a great convenience to all who are afflicted with disease, and would also be the cause of retaining a large amount of money in the city that goes to Portland each year for hospital charges. Dalles physicians and druggists are most directly interested in the establishment of a hospital, and it would be well for them to take the matter in hand. ELEVATED ASSESSMENTS. Supreme Court Declines the Increase Requested by Taxpayers. The supreme court of Oregon has reversed the circuit court of Multnomah county in the test case of the Dayton Hardware Company and numerous other holders of large property interests of this city against the state board of equalization and Multnomah county, in the elevated assessments of business property. Attorney-General Idleman says a rehearing will be asked for. The plaintiff was assessed on merchandise and stock in trade in Multnomah county, and the valuation was raised 25 per cent by the state board, and having considered the same kind of personal property under a different classification in Marion county, it is held the board exceeded its powers, and the increase is void. The suit was instituted to review the action of the state board of equalization and to correct certain errors committed by it, to the injury of the plaintiff, in equalizing the assessment throughout the state for the year 1936. Concerning the objection to the classification made by the county assessor, the opinion says: "There are but two classes of real property for assessment, under the laws of the state." The board's method of equalizing these two classes, the supreme court holds, was valid; but, in the course of equalizing personal property, cause is found for reversing the lower court. The tabulated statement shows that the Marion county roll classified personal property under three heads, viz, "railroad rolling stock," "livestock," and "other personal property." The railroad rolling stock and livestock, while other counties made 12 to 13 classifications of the same classes of property, none corresponding with Marion county's classification, except one denominated "railroad rolling stock," the board attempted to equalize. For instance, "horses and mules," "cattle," "swine," "sheep and goats," all coming under one classification in the summary of the Marion county roll, the valuation of none of the four main classes of real property was affected. Thus, 20 per cent was deducted from the valuation of horses and mules, 20 per cent added to cattle, 20 per cent deducted on sheep and goats in Benton county, but this could not be done in Marion county. In this method, the court, in its ruling, says: "It is very evident the state board could not, by adopting dissimilar classifications, or such as are not uniform throughout all counties, as a basis for their deduction, produce that uniformity and equality in values contemplated by the constitution." The Columbia Candy Factory. Walter Norman has bought the Columbia Candy Factory which has always been one of the most popular confectioneries in the city. Mr. Norman has ordered a large supply of goods needed in conducting the business and purposes making it one of the most attractive places in The Dalles, being prepared to meet the demands of all, and no pains will be spared to cater to the wishes of the public. The candy business, says Mr. Norman will be assisted by Harry Kelly, and both being popular young gentlemen will certainly draw a large patronage. Besides carrying a complete line of confectioneries Mr. Norman will be prepared to serve stylists and all every day needs of dress costumes of the bivalent dress from suit water. The Columbia Candy Factory has certainly fallen into good hands, and will become a most popular resort under the new management. Circuit Court Notes. The following cases have been disposed of in circuit court during the week. Oregon Wholesale Nursery Co. vs. Wm. Tillot, set for trial on second day of next term. E. Beck vs. W. H. Cook, default and judgment. Venz Bauer vs. Antonio Bauer, settled and dismissed. C. C. Mailing vs. Z. Taylor, settled and dismissed. John Casey vs. Elizabeth Carey, decree of divorce. M. J. Hendrickson vs. L. A. Hendrickson, referred to Chas. Schutz to take issue. C. E. Bayard et al. vs. The Standard Oil Co., plaintiff allowed until June 10 to file bill of exceptions. Lillian Starnes vs. Roushiser, judgment for want of answer. A. R. Florer vs. James M. Florer, decree of divorce. Going Back to Father's for Thanksgiving. Two Pleasant Evenings. The Catholic Fair Has Entertained Large Crowds Each Evening. No public entertainment has ever been given in Dalles that has afforded more general pleasure than the Catholic fair that is in progress at the Vogt opera house. Large crowds have been in attendance each evening, and the merry laughter that was heard on every side indicated that all were enjoying themselves. Each of the several booths were liberally patronized, and it was indeed a pleasure to make purchases of the fair managers who presided over them. Booth No. 1, managed by Mrs. Fish and Mrs. Seufert, assisted by Mesdames Bradshaw, Hertz and Brown, is next to the front entrance and is an attractive stand, while the fish pond, conducted by Anna Haslam, immediately at the right of the front door, furnishes considerable amusement for the little folks. Booth No. 2, managed by Herb and Mrs. Nolan, is assisted by Misses Lizzie Gates and Frances Fouts, who are in charge of the lottery, and Miss Lizzie Farmer in charge of the fancy articles and acting as cashier, is very attractive. They are assisted by Mrs. Bunch, Mrs. Long and Miss Greiner. Next the flower booth, presided over by Miss Glenn and Miss Jackson, is an inviting place, made so by the beautiful flowers offered for sale, also by the next neighbor, Mayor Nolan, who with a blackboard next to him, receives votes for the most popular young lady in the city. The paper booth in charge of Misses Alma Schanno and Lizzie Lauer, and the candy booth conducted by Misses Rosemary Baldwin and Grace Lauer occupy the position at the right of the stage, and attract a large crowd of admirers and patrons. On the north side of the building "Aunt Sally" looms up serenely in charge of Carl Gutfried and furnishes a vast amount of sport. Mrs. Sandrock has charge of the refreshment booth and Miss Marie Sandrock attracts a large crowd of admirers and patrons.
