SAURDAY, DECEMBER 11 1937

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Attorney H. H. Riddell went to Portland today.

Hon. A. A. Joyce left yesterday for Willamette Valley.

Charles Arnsold came home last night from a trip to Shearman county.

L. D. Claypool, of Paulina, and J. H. Douthett, of Cross Keys, are in the city.

Deputy Sheriff Butts was out in the country yesterday and says he found roads worse than he ever saw them before.

A move is on foot at Hood River to establish a fruit cannery. Such an enterprise is certainly needed there as well as in The Dalles.

The piling for the new railroad bridge across Chonoweth creek is all driven, and work of building trestles will commence at once.

It is stated the O. R. & N. Co. contemplates closing its office at Mosier, the receipts from the office at that place being insufficient to pay the agent's salary.

In Portland yesterday morning Geo. Barrett, saloon keeper, shot and killed Frank Williams, a gambler. There had been a row in the saloon all night, and the killing was the final outcome of the trouble.

Arrangements have been completed for building a flour mill at Wasco. It will be built by H. W. Williams, who has a capacity of 100 barrels a day. Wasco donated $1000 and the city for the mill.

H. M. Calk, attorney for the Standard Oil Co., was in the city today to oppose the motion of the plaintiff in the case of Bayard et al vs. the Standard Oil Co. for a new trial. The motion was argued before the court this forenoon and taken under advisement.

One of the biggest hog-killing that ever occurred in Benton county is in progress this week on T. W. B. Smith's farm, says the Corvallis Times. Between 125 and 140 carcasses will be slain, and their carcasses made into bacon. A glut in the sparrow market will probably result.

Plans to have one of the finest organs in the state, says the Astorian, are being completed by the Catholic church, and has been ordered and will be placed in position as soon as the building is ready for it. It will be a pipe organ 24 feet high and will cost $2000.

[From Monday's Daily.]

Hon. J. M. Long, of Portland, was in the city Sunday.

Hon. A. S. Blowers, of Hood River, was in the city today.

Rev. Jenkins went to Hood River on the Spokane train.

J. D. Gibson, of Wasco, came down on the morning train.

S. Farrell, of the firm of Everding & Farrell, is in the city on business.

Alf. D. Bowen, of Portland, is in the city, representing the Oregonian.

Prof. F. H. McEwan, the hypochondriac, is at the Umahila house with his company.

Ben E. Snipes, an old time resident of The Dalles, came over from Seattle last night.

H. Johnson, of Dufer, came in today and reports the roads in a horrible condition.

H. Brash returned this morning from a business trip to Baker City and Huntington.

L. J. Davenport, of Mosier, delivered a bunch of cattle Sunday, to a Portland buyer.

President E. E. Lytle, of the Columbia Southern, spent Sunday in the city with his family.

Yesterday the Spokane train was delayed about six hours by a wreck north of Walla Walla.

Ray W. Logan, who is pursuing a course in medicine in Portland, spent Sunday with his father, Dr. Hugh Logan.

Mr. Briggs, who has been at the bedside of his son Ted, returned Sunday, with much hope for the boy's final recovery.

The remains of Mr. Stegman, who died here Saturday, were taken to Centerville, where they were interred this afternoon.

Saturday night six men applied to Nightwatchman Wiley for a place to sleep and were given the best city affords in the hotel de Laurer.

Brother McEwen, of Salem Lodge, extends a gratuitous invitation to all his brethren to attend the entertainment at Vespers opera house tonight.

Ernest Drews, who some time since was injured by falling from a telephone pole at Grants, is now confined to his room with a severe attack of lumbago.

Judge Bennett goes to Dayton, Wash., tonight to make settlement with the O. R. & N. Co. in the damage case of Walker vs. the receiver of the O. R. & N.

Judge J. B. Condon received a telegram this morning, saying that Miss Fannie, daughter of Prof. Thomas Condon, of Eugene, had just died at Oakland, California.

Judge Myers, who returned this morning from the Baker Oven country, reports fine weather in that vicinity, a chinook wind coming up Saturday, leaving the ground well moistened for plowing.

Horace Jackson and Mamie Gage, who were on trial Saturday, in Judge Filson's court, charged with the robbery of $1200 from a boarding car, were discharged for want of sufficient evidence.

The judgment in favor of the state of Oregon and against Baker City, and a tax levy will have to be made to raise the amount of the judgement, $10,728.60.

Roads leading from The Dalles to the interior are almost impassible, but at present cannot be repaired because working roads during the winter in this country would be a useless expenditure of time and money.

One of the greatest needs of Condon is more house room, both dwelling and business houses, but especially the former. Every available room in town is occupied, and the demand for more is increasing, says the Condon Globe.

A prominent capitalist who was recently offered for $75,000 an interest in a Klondike scheme warranted to pay $100,000 a month from the start, repudiated with this message: "Paying it out of the first month's earnings."

Send the surplus at once.

The negotiation failed to go through.

Judge Myers returned yesterday from Astoria. He says a chinook wind prevailed there the latter part of last week, cutting all the snow off the country, and when he left there Saturday the weather was pleasant, being more like spring than winter.

The annual election of officers of the Commercial and Athletic Club will be held tomorrow evening at the club rooms. This is ordinarily ladies night at the club, but owing to today members of the club being entitled to vote, the rooms will not be opened for ladies.

An order was filed in the circuit court yesterday directing J. S. Wilson, receiver The Dalles National bank, to sell all the personal property of the bank, excepting the books and accounts. The fixtures in the bank were ordered sold at not less than one thousand dollars.

The greatest fate of the present day is the world building contest. Every contestant, no matter how many words they build from the word or sentence, are made to believe that they are the winners of the first or second prize. An elegant diamond ring worth $24 or a scarf pin worth $24, and all that is necessary for them to get it is to send $1 or whatever the price is for a magazine, probably not worth five cents a year. If they are gullible they bite. The ring or scarf pin comes and the recipient sends the jeweler to find what it is worth. They are somewhat humiliated when told ten cents.

From Tuesday's Daily.

H. L. Kuck is in Portland on business.

Dr. Pelkington, of Antelope, is spending a few days in The Dalles.

One solitary prisoner now trends the corridors of the hotel De Fitzgerald.

Mary Howell, a Stockton, California woman, spent $200,000 to save her husband from a term in the penitentiary, and after she had saved him she took a drink. She at once sued for a divorce and got it.

For constipation take Karl's Clover Root Tea, the great blood purifier. Cures headache, nervousness, eruptions on the face, and makes the head clear as a bell. Sold by Blackley & Houghton, The Dalles.

Watt Shipin, Salem's famous bicycle rider, came in on the Prineville stage last night and left for Portland on the morning train. Mr. Shipin had returned to Prineville for the purpose of racing a man from that place by the name of Hoages, and had been led to believe that all arrangements had been completed for the race, but on Shipin's arrival Hoages refused the race, and all there was left for the Salem man was to return home, out of his expenses.

Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood. Clears the complexion. Easy to make and pleasant to take. 25 cents. Sold by Blackley & Houghton, druggists, The Dalles, Ore.

A carload of good American horses were shipped yesterday from Pendleton over the W. & C. R. R. for Seattle, at which point they will be loaded on a Japan-bound steamer. They were bought in Walla Walla county by W. L. Powell, and driven across the mountain. Part of them will be used as cavalry horses in his Japanese majesty's army, and part as teams to work on a new railroad now projected. Several shipments to Japan have been previously made by Mr. Powell.

Cure that cough with Shilo's cure. The best cough cure. Relieves cough promptly. One million bottles sold last year. 40 doses for 25 cents. Sold by Blackley & Houghton, druggists, The Dalles, Ore.

Long learning, who left Lake county last June to assist in driving 8000 head of sheep to Amadee, Cal., has returned. He says that the sheep were bought before hearing or lambing for $1.87 to $2 a head, and that the buyers, the purchasers, have made a little fortune on the speculation, as the culls of the band are worth $3 a head at Amadee. Mr. Flournoy thinks their profit will be nearer 200 per cent than less. They had successful drive and spent the summer in the Bryan country, in Lake county.

Marshal Lauer intends notifying the property owners on Second street that the mud which has accumulated on the street has been declared a nuisance and must be removed as soon as possible at the expense of the property owners of the city, and will proceed to do the work and charge the same with costs to the property. This is a move in the right direction, and all property owners, should assist the marshal on Second street in his present condition is a disgrace to the city, and the sooner the mud is cleaned up and carried away the sooner will we have a thoroughfare that is in keeping with the city.

Death of Mr. Stegman.

Delitch Stegman died at the Umahila House at 10 o'clock last evening, aged 73 years and 9 months. Mr. Stegman was born in Bremen, Germany, and came to America seven years ago, settling at Centerville, Wash., where he resided with his son, D. H. Stegman, until last summer, when he came to Mill Creek to make his home with his son John. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Lagner, who resides at Bremen, Germany, and three sons, D. H. Stegman, of The Dalles, and August Stegman, of Hart, Calif.

Mr. Stegman was a life long member of the Lutheran church, and was a consistent Christian. The funeral will take place at Centerville, Wash., at 12 o'clock next Monday.

Dreadful Nerves.

Gents: I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and liver trouble, and your tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Sold by Blackley & Houghton, druggists, The Dalles, Oregon.

Why One of Our Divines Didn't Preach at a Wedding.

A sensation has lately been sprung in London among the preachers. The charges made that a number of the ministers of the gospel had been in the habit of tipping car drivers to bring couples, that were seeking to enjoy the pleasures and try the hardships of married life, to their churches. The result was, as it always will be, that the ones who had tipped were got it and the others who considered it beneath the dignity of a clergyman to have a capper for the game, as it were, protested vigorously against the pernicious habit.

No wonder that for a moment while to insinuate that our ministers are in the habit of tipping car drivers in the same manner, far from it, but we do know that they are very solicitous for a young man who is matrimonially inclined.

It was only Monday that one of The Dalles most popular ministers was sitting in his study pondering over the subject of next Sunday's sermon, when a gentle tapping came wrapping at the door. It was not the raven 'Ho! No, only a young man, who wished some advice in regard to procuring a marriage license and having the knot tied. After a few preliminary questions in regard to the girl's name and residence, the minister accompanied the would-be Benedict to the court house, where Sim, who is ever ready to put a young man on the right road, gave him an unlimited first class ticket which entitled the young man to a conveyance to the highest of happiness or unhappiness.

The minister of course, acting as a witness for the purchaser. After Sim had fixed everything satisfactorily for all concerned the minister departed with his friend and at the clerk's office supposed, after his fate.

Nothing more was thought of the matter until this morning when a paper was thrust into Sim's face accompanied with the explanation that what money bank my brother got this license yesterday and he hasn't even asked the girl yet, he is not in his right mind.

Sim returned the money, canceled the ticket and all was well in the clerk's office, save the scratching of a pen as it glided over the deed book.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents.

THE WHEAT CROP OF 1937.

A British Editor Makes an Estimate of the World's Supply.

Mr. Bromhall, editor of the Liverpool Cour Trade News, has revised early estimates of the wheat crop for 1937, and found a shortage in Europe of 300,000,000 bushels. Outside of Europe he estimates the average crop for the average crop of 200,000,000 bushels. The United States is credited with 682,000,000 bushels, which is 150,000,000 bushels in excess of an average crop. If Mr. Bromhall's estimates are correct, Europe has had a narrow escape from a famine. If the American crop had just reached the average, the difference between the average and the estimated crop would have been taken out of the amount available for export. Assuming the American surplus to be as large as Mr. Bromhall's estimates, he does not see how that quarter wheat enough is to be obtained to furnish Europe with its ordinary supply. The Argentine crop promises well, but it is still exposed to the perils of the season. Before G. J. Brown, engineer, .. 75 00 G. J. Brown, night watchman, .. 60 00 J. J. Verdict of Coroner's Jury.

We the jury empaneled by W. F. Butts, coroner of Wasco county, Oregon, to inquire into the cause of the death of a person whose body is now before us find as follows:

That the name of the deceased was H. A. Baker, of the age of about 65 years, and was at the time of his death he was pile inspector and had charge of pile inspection for the O. R. & N. Co. on his pile being placed for a bridge over Mill Creek, in Dalles City, Oregon.

That just a moment prior to his death he was standing on a cribbing constructed of two ties about 150 feet north of the line of said company, and fell therefrom, the cause of such fall being at this time unknown, and from the evidence we are not able to find any cause for such fall except an avoidable accident, and we therefore conclude that the cause of the death of said deceased was an unavoidable accident and that no one is at fault or responsible for said death.

Big Power Plant.

The brick for the new engine house at the woolen and scouring mills arrived Thursday from Weston, and the masons are now busy with the work of construction, which is expected will be pushed through in five days. The 250-horse-power twin Corliss engines 12x30 in dimensions, have been placed on their beds and hoisted a moister fly wheel nine feet in diameter, with a 31 inch face, weighing about 5,000 pounds. The brick boiler house is already completed, with the two boilers in position, ready for business. One is 60x16 and the other is 48x16 in size. This makes a fine power plant, sufficient for all purposes at the mills, which will be started up again as soon as the engine house is finished.—East Oregonian.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists Refund the money if it fails to cure. 5c. For sale by Blackley & Houghton.

LA GRIPPE.

Followed by Heart Disease, Cured by DR. MILLS' HEAT CURE.

Edw. Curran, of Westport, Ore., inventor and manufacturer of Shilo's Safety Whitening Compiling, writes to Dr. J. G. Shields. "Two years ago an attack of La Grippe left me with a weak heart. I had run down in both to mental and physical exhaustion. I tried for another spell, frequent sharp darting pains and palpitation caused a constant fear of sudden death, not being able to induce me to remain away from home over night. My local physician prescribed Dr. Miller's Cure and I used a few days but it failed to do me any good. I was unable to sleep well and the pains gradually lessened, and finally ceased. I reduced the dose, having gained fifteen pounds, and am now feeling better in every way than I have for years."
