The state board of equalization went through the formalities of meeting and adjourning in Salem, the other day. The board was at a loss how to procure a copy of a certain decision that it wished to consider, and after finding out that there was no money appropriated for purchasing decisions, D. P. Thompson was delegated to make a trip to Portland, and borrow, if he could, the book from Judge Northup The decision could have been copied by a private stenographer for about $2.50. The daily expenses of the board, including mileage, according to former changes, is about $130. This would make an expenditure of $130 in order to saye $2.50.

The wild geese shipped last week from Sherman county by G. W. Johnston, Willard Vanderpool and Milt Anderson were taken to Dallas instead of The Dalles, by an error on the part of he railroad company; and being perishable goods and shipped subject to such conditions, the R. Mrs. Ida E. Pierson. of Susanville, Became The people of Long Creek, in Grant county, were thrown into a state of excitement on the 4th inst., by the appearance on the streets of a woman carrying a caseknife and a stone weighing five or six pounds, and who stopped and told everyone she met that her husband was trying to kill her. She was almost barefooted, her shoes being worn out by a fearful trampin the mud and rain. Her dress was torn an't muddy, and her bair was hanging down her back. It soon beame evident that she was insane, says the Long Creek Eagle. As soon as her condition became known she was taken in charge by City Marshal Ward, who took her to the Mesumental hotel, where she was kindly cared for, and made as comfortable as possible by a number of ladies who kindly volunteered their assistance, and everything that could be was done to relieve her mind of the horrible delusion, but only with temporary results. The next morning e was placed under the care of a doctor, who has hopes that she may yet recover her mind. It was soon learned that the woman was the newly-wedded wife of N. Pierson, who resides near Susanville, about 20 miles east of Long Creek, and that she had suddenly became insane the night before her appearance in Long ·Creek.
