The present principal officials of Temple lodge are: C. J. Crandall, P. M. W.; S. P. M. Briggs, M. W.; J. F. Haworth, recorder; S. L. Young, financier; C. L. Phillips, receiver.

The number of deaths since organization is 13. The membership of Temple, No. 3, numbers 190. It meets every Thursday evening in Fraternity hall, corner Court and Second streets.

DEGREE OF HONOR.

This order was instituted April 7, 1894, by Mrs. Kate J. Young, of Portland. The order was organized with 80 members and christened Fern lodge, No. 25, D. of H.

It has a present membership of 156, and is one of the most social orders in the city. Its membership is congenial and harmonious, its officers courteous and efficient. Its chief officers now are: Mrs. G. G. Gibbons, C. of H.; Mrs. C. J. Crandall, L. of H.; Mrs. J. A. Douthit, C. of C.; Miss Cora Joles, F.; Miss Nettie Longmire, recorder; Miss Lizzie Schooling, receiver.

The local lodge has lost two lady members and one gentleman member since its organization.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Every order has an origin dating away back into the recesses of history or mythology.

Now, the K. of P. take their teachings and precepts from the beautiful story of Damon and Pythias, and no better followers could they have.

Friendship lodge, No. 9, was instituted in this city on September 24, 1881, by Ward S. Stevens, of Portland, Or. The charter officers were: T. A. Hudson, C. C.; S. E. Fancy, V. C.; C. Y. Sanders, P.; O. Mangold, K. of R. S.; D. L. Cates, M. of F.; R. E. Williams, M. of E.; H. C. Hammond, M. at A.; E. W. Garretson, I. G.; M. Sylvester, O. G.

Present officers are: H. H. Riddle, B. S. Huntington, J. A. Douthit, O. F. Shepherd, W. E. Walthers, J. Gavin, D. W. Vause, F. Burchtorff, R. H. Beber, G. A. Gosser.

The present membership is 106, and the number of deaths since organization, nine. Friendship lodge has a handsome hall in the new Vogt Block, which it dedicated in May, 1896.

RATHBONE SISTERS.

Harmony Temple, No. 12, Rathbone Sisters was organized on January 22, 1895, by Mrs. Ella Houston, grand chief, of Roseburg, Or.

The charter list numbered 65 members, and now is about 83. Mrs. Alice Crossen was the first M. E. C. of Harmony Temple; Mrs. Susie Phillips, E. S.; Mrs. Lizzie Lytle, E. J.; Mrs. Belle Berger, M. T.; Miss Annie Newman, M. of R. and C.; Mrs. Edith Menefee, M. of F.; Mrs. Carrie Genning, P. of T.; Mrs. H. Chrisman, G. of O. T.; Mrs. Ella Michell, P. C.

The order is a social and fraternal one, and is one of the most popular in the city. It meets the first and third Thursdays of each month in the K. of P. hall.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

The order of Woodmen of the World was organized in The Dalles in November, 1890, by Neighbor Ramplin, and the young camp was christened Mount Hood No. 59.

Its charter officers were: Consul, J. G. Farely; adviser, J. M. Huntington; clerk, W. H. Michell; banker, W. C. Al-laway.

Its present officers are: W. Mann, consul; adviser, Jas. Snipes; clerk, W. Harper; banker, C. S. Philips; escort, C. Brown.

It is although among one of the younger orders of our city, one of the largest, and like the others, numbers on its roster those men who think best, and who realize to the fullest the good of belonging to a truly fraternal order.

The camp here has 150 members, and is still increasing. It meets every Tuesday evening in Fraternity Hall. The camp has lost four members by death—W. H. Michell, Thos. N. Joles, Latimer Booth and Stephen Thompson.

PACIFIC CIRCLE WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.

Cedar Circle, No. 3, is the auxiliary to the Woodmen of the World, and sprang into existence in The Dalles on January 24, 1895. It was a puny infant, having had two sister orders ushered into existence about the same time. Cedar commenced business with 29 members. Its charter officers were: Inez Filloon, guardian neighbor; Georgia Weber, adviser; Sallie Clarke, great magician; Elizabeth Joles, banker; Della Phirman, clerk.

The present officers are: Ella Cushing, guardian neighbor; Katie Williams, adviser; Eva Reynolds, magician; Susie Phillips, past guardian neighbor; Ella Dawson, banker; Louise Rintaul, clerk.

The order numbers about eighty at the present time, and although a quiet order, is doing a vast amount of good.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF RED MEN.

The Independent Order of Red Men was instituted in this city on July 24, 1894, by A. A. Ellis, great sachem. The charter list numbered about forty of our prominent business and professional men.
