HIRTEEN YEARS AS A SLAVE ventures of an Italian Priest in the Father Paolo Rossignoli, who, after long series of almost incredible adcentures and 13 years' slavery in the Soudan, succeeded in miraculously es-caping from the hands of the caliph, has been received by the pope before returning to Africa, to the scene of his ormer painful sufferings. He is a road, strong, well-built man, tanned a deep brown by the African sun, and wears a full beard, which is rapidly turning white from the sufferings h has gone through. Father Rossignoli was a priest of the Austrian mission of El Obeid, in the Kordofan, and went through the borrors of the four and a half months' siege until January, 1883, when he was taken prisoner. It would be impossible to describe all he suffered for 13 long years, until assisted to escape by the Englishman, Maj. Wingate Bey and Mgr. Sogaro, archbishop of the Sou-
