ITEMS IN BRIEF.

(From Saturday's Daily.) Mr. J. Anderson, of Dufur, spent

day in the city. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lake, of Wamic are visiting in the city.

The city council meets tonight to consider the tax levy for 1898. John Palmer has been quite ill at the land today to attend the republican Columbia Hotel for some time, but is club league, the streets present rather convalescent.

Wm. De Mars, general manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co., was in the city today.

Ben. F. Dennis, of Forest Grove, is visiting his old school fellow, Geo. Ernest Stewart, in the city.

Miss May Enright, secretary of the Columbia Seuthern, is visiting in the city. She expects to make Wasco her future home, and will move there in about a month.

Heppner is one of the few cities in Oregon that is clear of dept. It now pays its city warrants on presentation and has no bonded incumbances hanging ever it. Good for Heppner.

W. A. Storie, superintendent bridge carpenters for the O. R. & N., was in Portland yesterday, but re-turned last night, and is today pushing the work on the Mill Creek bridge. Bort Phelps is down from Heppper visiting old friends. He is firm in the belief that Heppner is the best town in Eastern Oregon outside of The Dalles, though he is still partial to his Dalles the past year, has been transold home and associates here. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McCoy came down this morning from Grants. Mr. bere in a few days. McCoy says the wheat market has ter weather has been experienced The Dalles is a steam laundry. At present some $300 is sent to Portland every month for laundry work, all of which would be kept here if there were a good steam laundry. Some enterprising person would make money by establishing a business here.

Charles Clarno has leased his place on the John Day river, including the ferry boat, to Frank Malone for one year. If at the end of his time Mr. Malone wants to retain it at the price in every particular, there having been of the first year, $300, he can do so for ferty additions to the church membertwo years longer. Then if Mr. Malone wants to buy it he has first chance for $1500.

When W. W. Wilson got to Port land the other day on his way to Klondike he found so many going that he became discouraged, and returned to The Dalles to again assume his duties as steward in the Umatilla House. He thinks anybody who has a sure thing on a living here is unwise to go chasing after gold in Alaska.

While hunting Wednesday, in the vicinity of Joseph Harbert's farm, on Mill creek, near Walla Walla, Charles Green, aged 15, was accidentally shot. He was crawling through a fence, pulling the gun after him, when the gun was discharged, the contents tearing away a large portion of his right hand, and lacerating it very badly.

Between March 5, 1894, and July 1 1896, there were issued by the state board of education 1395 teachers' certificates and diplomas, 462 college and university diplomas, 290 state diplomas and 477 state certificates. The time of the issuance of these papers covered a perion of 28 months, the average menthly issuance being 48. At the same monthly average as for the preceeding period, the number of papers issued during the past 18 months was 884. The estimated number of papers issued between March 5, 1894, and January 1, 1898, is 2229.

> The forestry committee, by whose influence the reserves were set apar proposed, he said to educate a body of trained foresters to guard the reserves against the encroachments of settlers. keeping, meanwhile, government troops on duty as guards. He likened he proposition to the situation in Germany, where 5,000 foresters are maintained to guard German timber lands, and he asserted an unwillingness to help maintain this additional army of government employes. He combatted the ide of those who favor the forest reserves, that timber in the mountains reserved the water courses.
