heart. Why? He couldn't have given a good reason himself. But everything looked gloomy to him. He was in a gloomy frame of mind. It was the way he looked at life that day. He had been living in too much of a hurry, rushing and driving at business, hustling through his meals, cutting short his sleep. His nerves got on edge; his stomach and liver got out of order; he grew dyspeptic and melancholy.

liver got out of order; he grew dyspeptic and melancholy. When the digestion is out of order there is little use trying to look on the bright side of things, practically there isn't any bright side.
