Do You Know ✠

That you can get a 10-day round trip excursion ticket The Dalles to Portland via the O. R. & N. Co. for $4.50.

That the loss of two days required to make the round trip on the river costs you more than that, and when you pay your necessary expenses and your fare, you are "out and injured."

Are you going "down the valley" or to Eastern Washington, then take the O. R. & N. through between Portland and your destination and save a day or two in time and expenses.
