Sixteen little misses left on the Regulator this morning for the Locks, where they will meet the Dalles City an return. They were accompanied by Miss Jessie Fisher and Miss Cheese in whose class most of the little ladies belong. They are out for an outing and good time, and from the jolly crowd that left, they will undoubtedly spend a pleasant day.

At a meeting of the Columbia Hose Co. last evening, it was decided not to take part in the G. A. R. parade. The members have no suits or regalia whatever, and as a good many of the boys are employed in stores, it would be quite inconvenient for them to get away, consequently they took the above action. However they donated a sum of money to help the cause along, and will decorate, having bought a beautiful 16 ft. flag which will adorn their quarters.

Marshal Lauer has done good work in cleaning up the streets of The Dalles, but there is more work he can has raised six inches and today stands do to advantage. There are numerous piles of wood and a considerable amount of farm machinery on the streets that should be removed before the assembling of the G. A. R. encampment. Let all the streets be cleared so that the old soldiers may be impressed with the idea that The Dalles is a "clean" city.

We have soms very witty people in town and of course our reporter usually has to stand the brunt of their clever remarks. In conversation with a prominent young jeweler this morning he said, "Did you see the latest bulletin about Dewey being arrested?" having we asked why. In response he said, bright East Ender who asked the conundrum, "why is the Columbia river like a certain dried fruit?" after several frutile guesses, he replied, "because its a raisin(g)."
