CLAPTRAP POLITICS.

The demogogical systems resorted to by some politicians is amazing. C. W. Fulton has recently been campaigning through Eastern Oregon, and on his return to Portland, informed the Oregonian that many who voted for Bryan in 1876 would vote the republican ticket this year, saying:

"The principal reason assigned for the change is that it is considered the duty of every American citizen to sustain the administration at this time Such feeling prevails, irrespective of party, and it is realized that defeat of ministration in declaring war against Spain."

This is indeed a cheap method of attempting to steal patriotism, fer it is an effort on the part of the republicans to pose as the only patriots. Nothing vear since 1892: more fallacious could be perpetrated.

All Americans are patriots to a cer-tain degree, and that degree is more intense in the one who offers his life as a sacrifice to the nation than the 1895 one who is seeking to loan his money to the government on interest-bearing benas Every Ameritan citizen is today upholding the administration in proseouting the war against Spain, but to uphold the administration in this respect does not require that he vote the republican ticket. While the value of our property has gradually decreased, there has been no cutting down in expenses, but instead they have steadily increased. We therefore need relief from some service, and it certainly will not come from the republican and gold standard sources. The only hope of the people rests in the success of the union forces, who not only demand the restoration administration of state and county be turned over to a combination of

What abuses and extravagance have sheltered themselves be hind this opinion we all know. I there had been a perfectly clear relation between every inflated pension bill and the margin of saving of each citizen, we should not have seen what we have seen. But the war and the Dingley deficit combined are giving us saner notions. Taxes are so much taken from the wealth of the nation, and the process by which it is taken cannot be concealed, when a resort to direct levies has to be made, as now. Let us hope the lesson will not be forgotten before the war comes to teach it over again.
