PUSHING ON TO VICTORY. They Do Not Falter Under Heavy Fire.

WASHINGTON, July 2, 3:30 P. M.—San Juan heights have fallen and our army is pushing on under a heavy fire. Despite their terrible loss the Americans are steadily advancing, and driving the Spaniards out of their entrenchments.

Latest reports put our loss at over 1000 men killed and wounded. Reports are conflicting about Gen. Pando's movements. One dispatch says he is retreating and another is that he has reached Santiago with 9000 men. A Madrid dispatch says Pando is closing in on the Americans before Santiago.

THE BIG SHIPS HAVE MET. WASHINGTON, July 2.—Admiral Sampson has forced an entrance into Santiago harbor and is engaged to Cerro's vessels. The two fleets are fighting hard and the Americans are advancing.

General Shafter's army is gaining ground and is beating the Spaniards back. Latest reports put the American loss at 1000 killed and wounded. The Spanish loss is not known, but is believed to be very heavy.

General Otis Making Haste to Get Started. SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—General Otis has received orders from Washington to exert all possible haste in getting the fourth Manila expedition in readiness to sail.

In obedience to the order, troops are being equipped as rapidly as possible at the arsenal, and are being placed in readiness to embark at once. The expedition will probably be ready to start by Thursday, and will comprise all the men now mobilized at San Francisco.

SPANIARDS ARE CLEVER LIARS. The Minister of Marine Says Cerro Escaped. LONDON, July 5.—Madrid advises say the Spanish minister of the marine has published a long account of Cerro's escape from Santiago with his entire fleet. The report is accepted by the Spaniards as the truth, and aids in quelling the opposition to the government's war policy.

Affairs in Madrid have not improved, and dissections among the masses are great. When the truth of Cerro's surrender is made known to the public it is feared an uprising will occur.

A REPETITION OF MANILA. Sampson Knocked the Santiago Fleet into a Cocked Hat. The following dispatch was received by the Times-Mountaineer at noon on the 4th and published in a special edition at 10 o'clock: WASHINGTON, July 4.—Admiral Sampson annihilated Cerro's fleet in Santiago harbor yesterday morning. At 9:30 the Spanish vessels attempted to escape and were destroyed. The American loss was one killed and two wounded.

Admiral Cerro surrendered with 1300 sailors. A TERRIBLE DISASTER. A Bridge Goes Down With One Thousand People. SHELBY, Ohio, July 5.—While 1000 people were on the bridge across the Ohio river on this date yesterday, the structure gave way, leaving a large number of people drop into the river. Two were killed and over 100 wounded.

The people had assembled on the bridge to witness a public wedding when the accident occurred. The wildest excitement prevailed, and it was with difficulty that those plugged into the river were saved.

AS REPORTED AT MADRID. The cabinet meeting yesterday the ministers stated that official confirmation of the report that General Vera de Roy and two of General Linares' aides had been killed in the attack on the third attack on El Guapey. It was stated that the American losses exceed 2000. The government has no news from Aguadores. It is reported that General Linares has succumbed to his wounds, but this report is unconfirmed.

REFORM AT WORK. The notorious Larry Sullivan Opens a Dance House. PORTLAND, July 5.—The "reform" city administration has been duly installed. One of the most noticeable one is provoked and indignant to think of the thousands of dollars these "crowds of Americans" will spend, not only in England but through Europe, before the autumn will send them home again. Provoked because many of the thousands will go for things that will be bought under the impression that if they are the same price they are better than those that are bought at home, while, if they are cheaper than the same goods here, it will still be supposed that they are of the same quality.

A woman buying gloves in Paris last week was surprised at the price charged her for the make of gloves she was accustomed to buy for considerably less in New York. "Ah, madame," said the gilt shopgirl, "but we send only our seconds to New York." Of course this was wholly untrue. It is absurd to suppose that skilled American wholesale buyers are going to be imposed upon with seconds of anything, much less gloves, whose quality is a known quantity every time to an expert in the trade.

The same woman's experience in London was similar. Prices were always equal, and often greater, than in New York, but stress was invariably laid on the superior wearing qualities, a stress that was expensively disproved in the case of most articles. Tourists from this country are looked upon abroad every time as greece to lay golden eggs. They are given to give their gold for the value they get, nine times out of ten.—N. Y. Times.

THE WHEAT OUTLOOK. Crops Will Be Heavier Than Ever Before Known. PORTLAND, July 2.—The consensus of opinion among the grain buyers of this city is that there will be an enormous yield of wheat in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, the acreage being increased at least 25 per cent, and the outlook good for a full crop. In fact, as one of the shippers states, the same conditions prevail practically in all the wheat raising states of the Union, with the exception of California. In the world at large, there is no evidence of failure, but the crop will not be up to the average. The only danger is that more wheat may be produced than will supply the world's demands, thus demoralizing the market. On the other hand, if the price is a fair one an era of prosperity will be vouchsafed unparalleled in the history of the Pacific Northwest.

WILL AWAIT REINFORCEMENTS. Santiago Not to Be Bombarded at Present.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—General Shafter did not begin the bombardment of Santiago at noon today but will wait for reinforcements before he renews the attack. Yesterday he demanded the surrender of the city at noon today, which the Spanish general declined, but general Shafter deems it impracticable to renew the assault until his army is reinforced by the troops now on route, hence the army has remained inactive all day.

The American army now virtually surrounds the city, the line extending from the bay on the north to San Juan river on the south.

In fact,

results was the opening Saturday night of the old Theatre Comique on Third street as a dance hall by Larry Sullivan—the notorious north end sailor board-room keeper and republican politician. It is just such places as Sullivan's that Mayor Mason was pledged to abolish. "Franchy" Gratian is to reopen his gambling hall soon up stairs, corner of Washington and Fourth streets, the most prominent corner in the city. As a matter it would appear that Portland is to remain a wide-open town, only more so.

HAS PASSED THROUGH SUEZ. Camera's Fleet En Route to the Philippines. MADRID, July 5.—It is officially stated that Camara's fleet has passed through Suez canal and is now en route to the Philippines, where he will push forward with all possible haste. One hundred merchant vessels also entered the canal and passed through.

COLLECTOR DUNNE AND CIVIL SERVICE. He Fills Places With Residents of Washington. PORTLAND, July 5.—Collector of Internal Revenue Dunne recently removed W. T. McAfee, deputy at Spokane, and appointed some one from Colfax to the position. It is understood that McAfee has protested to the civil service commission at Washington, claiming that the office is under the civil service and that he had passed the required examination and had given no cause for removal, and furthermore that his successor was appointed for political reasons and had never stood the civil service examination. McAfee was promoted to the position from the office force of ex-Collector Blackman and was formerly of Salem, Oregon.

Our Troops at Manila. HONG KONG, July 4.—Friday the United States cruiser Charleston arrived at Cavite conveying the troop ship City of Sydney, Australia and City of Peking. The only loss on the voyage was Private Hutchinson, of the Oregon volunteers, who died on board the Peking June 20th.

Will Not Give Up. MADRID, July 5.—Officials state that Santiago will not surrender, but will fight to the bitter end. It is expected the forces now at Santiago will be reinforced by General Pando's army which is due to arrive at Santiago any time.

Struck by a Cyclone. HAMTON, N. H., July 5.—A tornado struck the beach yesterday while the people were celebrating the Fourth, and did terrible damage. Cottages and barns were blown down and all the vehicles that were on the beach were destroyed. Twenty persons were killed, and a large number injured.

Resting on Arms. WASHINGTON, July 5.—The American troops before Santiago have had two days' rest, having rested in their trenches since yesterday morning. There has been no firing since Sunday, at the close of the battle between Sampson's and Cerro's fleets.

Spain Claims a Victory. MADRID, July 2.—Officials here claim the battle yesterday at Santiago, was a victory for the Spanish army. While their outposts were driven in, it is claimed the invading army was repulsed and was forced to occupy nearly the same ground it did at the beginning of the fight.

Unmistakable Appearance of Furred Animals. Did you ever see a dog bark? Many people believe that dogs bark to keep those who have had much to do with their fidelity. They are not aware that on several occasions they will bark, as well as express sorrow, in the most heartrending manner. In the case of the dog, it is a common thing to see a dog bark to keep those who have had much to do with their fidelity. They are not aware that on several occasions they will bark, as well as express sorrow, in the most heartrending manner.

THE ORDER OF THE GARTER. Its Members Men of Great Personal Distinction. Lord Melbourne used to say that there was only one order in the world worth having, and that was the Garter, because there was no merit attached to it at all, and that was what made it the first order in Europe. And surely Lord Melbourne showed his own absurdity. The distinction men love best is the distinction which, instead of making a man distinguished, merely shows him out as already being so distinguished that no reason needs to be given for distinguishing him further. The Garter practically says: "Here is the man who every one will agree to think distinguished. The Garter receives distinction from him, rather than gives distinction to him."

And that is precisely the kind of testimony which men covet most, says the Spectator. We find it hard to think of ourselves as that they do not need that any external reason should be assigned for the honor in which they are held; that that honor is, indeed, inevitable, and is a natural consequence of their being what they are. "Merit" is something earned by effort and labor. But what people love most is distinction which is quite independent of effort and labor, which is imbedded in their nature, like grains or manner or breeding. To be well bred is not a man's own command.
