

From Wednesday's Daily. J. T. Cooper, of Mt. Hood, is in the city.

Miss Jennie Young went to Portland today to spend her summer vacation.

Charles Durbin, of Astoria, is in the city looking after the sale of his wool.

Today C. M. Grimes shipped one car of beef to the Union Meat Co., at Troutdale.

Miss Ketchum left on the boat this morning for Portland to visit with friends in that city.

Very little salmon is being caught in the river here at present, and canners are running in short time.

D. B. Kelly, a prominent land owner of Crook county, is in the city, having recently returned from a visit to Chicago.

Mrs. Blakeley, of Laurence, Kan., arrived here this morning, and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Clough, in this city.

Yesterday county Clerk Kelsoe issued marriage license to James W. Taylor and Bertha C. Coplee and G. W. Fisher and Lillian B. Coplee.

A large invoice of furniture and blackboards for the new school house has arrived and is stored at the depot awaiting the completion of the building.

Fred Flood and G. W. Staysen left this morning for Hood River, the former to write up that section for the Times-Mountaineer and the latter to look for trail funds with a view of purchasing.

The new stock of jewelry, watches, etc., carried by Arthur Clarke, is complete in every respect, and is well suited to the trade.

Spring grain in the southern part of Sherman county is said to be short, and will not yield an abundant harvest, but in the central and northern parts of the county, crops are better than they were a year ago.

At St. Mary's academy in Portland last Saturday, Miss Margaret Brogan, daughter of Thomas Brogan of Astoria, took the white veil as a sister of the sacred heart, and was given the name of Sister Mary Bonifida.

People may show their patriotism in a good many ways, but the best way is to patronize home industries and home people.

Miss Cassie Cheese was a passenger on the steamer "Orion" for Portland this morning. From there she goes to Stanford University to take a post graduate course.

Fruit growers are generally feeling that this year's crop will realize them good returns.

The weather the past week has been most favorable for ripening crops.

The Dallas warehouses are full of wool, and numerous wool buyers and raisers are in the city.

From Friday's Daily. G. J. Farley went to Portland on the 7 o'clock train.

Earnest Shearer, of Cross Keys, is visiting in the city.

Frank Gable was in town yesterday buying supplies for harvesting.

Y. Judd, president of the Pendleton Wool Mills Co., is in the city.

Dr. Livingston, who has been visiting Dr. Storey at the past two days, left this morning for his home in Denver, Colo.

Miss Katie Brogan, who has been visiting in Portland for the past few days, returned to her home last evening on the 6 o'clock train.

Rev. B. V. Palling, of Albany, Oregon, has consented to preach at the Congregational Church next Sunday morning and evening.

The rain that fell this morning is no benefit to the country, and will prove a source of annoyance to the farmers who have begun harvesting.

F. A. Chrisman, a merchant of Silver Lake, is in the city.

Mr. Chrisman hauls all his freight from the Dallas, a distance of over 200 miles.

Mike Gray, of Dufur, was in the city yesterday. He reports great activity among the farmers about Dufur, and says they are in readiness to begin harvesting in real earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houghton were passengers on the Sarah Dixon this morning, their destination being Coos Bay, where they go to spend the summer camping.

The small K. of P. hall at 8 o'clock this evening. All are asked to be present as work will be given out this evening.

A clearance sale of trimmed hats will be held during July and August at the millinery parlors of Campbell & Wilson.

The ladies of the Good Intent Society gave Mrs. W. H. Biggs a very pleasant surprise yesterday afternoon, a number of them calling at her home in a body and entertaining her for several hours.

Annie, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Remie Roudon, died at the home of her parents near Kingsley yesterday and was buried this afternoon. Her ailment was scarlet fever and diphtheria.

The pay of General Shafter's army in Cuba for the month of June was $750,000, but nobody begrudges the amount that will be paid out to the boys in blue.

The Regulator's machinery has all been taken out except the boilers, and the boat was in readiness to float this morning.

There has been little said about the growth of The Dalles this season, however there has been considerable building.

Miss Winifred Humphrey, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Wood, the past year, left this morning for home near Truckee, California.

The Regulator's machinery has all been taken out except the boilers, and the boat was in readiness to float this morning.

It is expected that the steamer Dallas City will be ready to go into service by the last of next week.

The dispatches state that W. H. H. Glifer, of Eastern Oregon, has been appointed forestry supervisor, to have charge of the northern portion of the Cascade and Bull Run reserves.

Those who have seen the Somers Family, speak in the highest terms of their ability as musicians, and cheerfully recommended their entertainment.

There will hardly be any shortage of tonnage to handle the wheat crops of Oregon and Washington this year.

For the most enjoyable outing at least possible expenditure of cash and time, take advantage of the Sunday Excursions to Hood River, Cascade Locks, Donville and Milwaukie Falls.

During the past few years Dave Garrison has been collecting Indian relics, and has quite a cabinet of curios that he has gathered up consisting of arrow and spear heads, stone pipes, bows, etc.

The Dallas warehouses are full of wool, and numerous wool buyers and raisers are in the city.

From Friday's Daily. G. J. Farley went to Portland on the 7 o'clock train.

Earnest Shearer, of Cross Keys, is visiting in the city.

Frank Gable was in town yesterday buying supplies for harvesting.

Y. Judd, president of the Pendleton Wool Mills Co., is in the city.

Dr. Livingston, who has been visiting Dr. Storey at the past two days, left this morning for his home in Denver, Colo.

Miss Katie Brogan, who has been visiting in Portland for the past few days, returned to her home last evening on the 6 o'clock train.

Rev. B. V. Palling, of Albany, Oregon, has consented to preach at the Congregational Church next Sunday morning and evening.

The rain that fell this morning is no benefit to the country, and will prove a source of annoyance to the farmers who have begun harvesting.

F. A. Chrisman, a merchant of Silver Lake, is in the city.

Mr. Chrisman hauls all his freight from the Dallas, a distance of over 200 miles.

Mike Gray, of Dufur, was in the city yesterday. He reports great activity among the farmers about Dufur, and says they are in readiness to begin harvesting in real earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houghton were passengers on the Sarah Dixon this morning, their destination being Coos Bay, where they go to spend the summer camping.

The Dallas warehouses are full of wool, and numerous wool buyers and raisers are in the city.

From Friday's Daily. G. J. Farley went to Portland on the 7 o'clock train.

Earnest Shearer, of Cross Keys, is visiting in the city.

Frank Gable was in town yesterday buying supplies for harvesting.

There will probably be a shortage in the ice supply at Moro the next few days.

Farmers throughout the county should recognize the importance of exhibiting products at Omaha and Portland.

Two prosperous stock raisers of Cabot, who have been in the city the past few days, are preparing to leave for the summer.

One of the boldest "obberies" ever committed in The Dalles occurred yesterday.

The duties of the officers are not clearly defined, but it is presumed that the supervisor will have control over the Cascade reserve.

There has been little said about the growth of The Dalles this season, however there has been considerable building.

Miss Winifred Humphrey, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Wood, the past year, left this morning for home near Truckee, California.

The Regulator's machinery has all been taken out except the boilers, and the boat was in readiness to float this morning.

It is expected that the steamer Dallas City will be ready to go into service by the last of next week.

The dispatches state that W. H. H. Glifer, of Eastern Oregon, has been appointed forestry supervisor, to have charge of the northern portion of the Cascade and Bull Run reserves.

Those who have seen the Somers Family, speak in the highest terms of their ability as musicians, and cheerfully recommended their entertainment.

There will hardly be any shortage of tonnage to handle the wheat crops of Oregon and Washington this year.

For the most enjoyable outing at least possible expenditure of cash and time, take advantage of the Sunday Excursions to Hood River, Cascade Locks, Donville and Milwaukie Falls.

During the past few years Dave Garrison has been collecting Indian relics, and has quite a cabinet of curios that he has gathered up consisting of arrow and spear heads, stone pipes, bows, etc.

The Dallas warehouses are full of wool, and numerous wool buyers and raisers are in the city.

From Friday's Daily. G. J. Farley went to Portland on the 7 o'clock train.

Earnest Shearer, of Cross Keys, is visiting in the city.

Frank Gable was in town yesterday buying supplies for harvesting.

Y. Judd, president of the Pendleton Wool Mills Co., is in the city.

Dr. Livingston, who has been visiting Dr. Storey at the past two days, left this morning for his home in Denver, Colo.

Miss Katie Brogan, who has been visiting in Portland for the past few days, returned to her home last evening on the 6 o'clock train.

Rev. B. V. Palling, of Albany, Oregon, has consented to preach at the Congregational Church next Sunday morning and evening.

The rain that fell this morning is no benefit to the country, and will prove a source of annoyance to the farmers who have begun harvesting.

F. A. Chrisman, a merchant of Silver Lake, is in the city.

Mr. Chrisman hauls all his freight from the Dallas, a distance of over 200 miles.

Mike Gray, of Dufur, was in the city yesterday. He reports great activity among the farmers about Dufur, and says they are in readiness to begin harvesting in real earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houghton were passengers on the Sarah Dixon this morning, their destination being Coos Bay, where they go to spend the summer camping.

The Dallas warehouses are full of wool, and numerous wool buyers and raisers are in the city.

From Friday's Daily. G. J. Farley went to Portland on the 7 o'clock train.

Earnest Shearer, of Cross Keys, is visiting in the city.

Frank Gable was in town yesterday buying supplies for harvesting.

No Time Like the Present for Money Saving

NO OTHER STORE OFFERS THE OPPORTUNITIES WE DO

Mens Suits

The kind of weather calling for a cool, neat Summer Suit finds us offering just what is wanted at from twenty to thirty-five per cent below the regular price. Therefore, to see is to buy, our

Boys Suits

Dalles mothers have learned to believe in the Boys Clothing we sell. They find that in the "Kant wear-out" brand true merit exists. That's why we continue to sell to the same people, and explain the steady growth of our Boys Clothing Department.

Ladies Oxford Ties

Every merchant likes to open a new season with a clean stock, and as little of the departed season's goods as possible. Therefore we say

4th Annual Sale of Blankets...

An important event in our store. Some people argue that this is the wrong season of the year to buy blankets, but we notice these same people become eager buyers on seeing what we are offering.

A. M. WILLIAMS & COMPANY.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

Sight-eight sacks of wool were sold at Hepper, Monday for 12¢ cents a pound.

The Baptist Young People's Union of Western Washington and British Columbia are making extraordinary preparations for their summer assembly to be held at Chautauque, Vancouver Island, August 4 to 15, inclusive.

Henry Blackman, of Walla Walla, must have been training with the Spaniards. He threw a rock at a rat the other night and hit John Cunningham in the mouth.

A drunkard named "Tennessee Bill" tore his clothes to shreds in the Penitentiary jail so that he would not have to go out to answer the charge against him.

A party of Dalles ladies have gone into summer quarters at Trout Lake, and have named their abode "Camp Mailla".

The directors of The Dalles district have generally ordered the use of the new school building for the institute, and on the closing day, September 9th, dedicatory exercises will be held.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

WESTERN NOTES.

Sight-eight sacks of wool were sold at Hepper, Monday for 12¢ cents a pound.

The Baptist Young People's Union of Western Washington and British Columbia are making extraordinary preparations for their summer assembly to be held at Chautauque, Vancouver Island, August 4 to 15, inclusive.

Henry Blackman, of Walla Walla, must have been training with the Spaniards. He threw a rock at a rat the other night and hit John Cunningham in the mouth.

A drunkard named "Tennessee Bill" tore his clothes to shreds in the Penitentiary jail so that he would not have to go out to answer the charge against him.

A party of Dalles ladies have gone into summer quarters at Trout Lake, and have named their abode "Camp Mailla".

The directors of The Dalles district have generally ordered the use of the new school building for the institute, and on the closing day, September 9th, dedicatory exercises will be held.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

AT CAMP "MANILLA"

A picturesque spot in the Cascade Mountains.

A party of Dalles ladies have gone into summer quarters at Trout Lake, and have named their abode "Camp Mailla".

The directors of The Dalles district have generally ordered the use of the new school building for the institute, and on the closing day, September 9th, dedicatory exercises will be held.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Public School Notes.

Matters of Interest Concerning the Schools of Wasco County.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

Prof. P. A. Snyder, formerly principal of the Hood River schools, has been employed as principal of the Prineville schools.

SWEPT BY WIND AND RAIN.

Terrible Storm in New York and New Jersey.