A. M. WILLIAMS & COMPANY

then took a revolver and shot himself twice through the head just above the right eye. He has a wife and one child. His recovery is doubtful.

Ed Patterson, who recently escaped from the insane asylum at Salem, was arrested at La Grande last Monday.

Prof. W. Wilson, of Providence, R. I., has been elected principal of the Washington Normal school at Ellensburg.

A train load of 800 head of one and two-year-old cattle is being bought in Benton county for shipment to North Dakota.

The five-year-old daughter of Joseph D. Frazer, who lives at Mount Hope, Wash., was run over by a traction engine and killed last Saturday.

Threshing has commenced in portions of Gilliam county, and the grain is turning out well. On Shutter Flat one machine is threshing 3,000 bushels a day.

At the last meeting of the Snohomish city council, the seat of Councilman C. L. Lawry was declared vacant, and S. E. Russell was elected. Mr. Lawry is in Alaska.

John Murphy, alias "Virginia Slim" was shot by James Leacy and instantly killed at Spokane last Monday. Both men were tough characters and were drunk at the time of the shooting.

Dr. Brooks, of the Port Townsend quarantine station, was recently called East by telegram, and it now develops that he will be sent to Cuba with a corps of surgeons for duty at the front.

Wm. Miles, one of the inmates of the Umatilla county poor farm, is an old soldier. He receives a pension of $12 a month, which he gives to the county for the privilege of living at the poor house.

William Raymond, a farmer living near Pendleton, has been arrested on a charge of having put poison in a washtub at Spokane last Monday. Both men were tough characters and were drunk at the time of the shooting.

The O. R. & N. Co. is building a mammoth dock below Albina. It will occupy the space between the old drydock and the ruins of the elevator, burned several years ago. The wharf will be 1000 feet long and will be covered with grain docks.

There was a disastrous fire on the farm of Charles Olson, of Wagner, Gilliam county, last week. The result was a good four room house, good well of water, within less than two blocks of the free school in the eastern part of town, all for $550. Pending of others just like this. Don't ask Butts any questions unless you mean business, for you thereby deprive others who desire his attention, of his valuable time. Don't everybody speak at once, but come one at a time and Butts will find time to treat you right.

THE LAW AND TRACTION ENGINES. Flasks Must be Laid on Bridges They Travel Over.

It is time for the frequent appearance of the heavy traction engines upon the highways of the country districts, consequently there will be more or less anxiety for the safety of the bridges and culverts.

The law governing the use of such machinery on the highways is as follows: "Section 4138. It shall be the duty of any person or persons in charge of any steam portable or traction engine, propelled wholly or in part by steam over the public highways or streets in this state to bring said portable or traction engine to a stop when within 100 yards of any person or persons engaged in the opposite direction with a team or teams and remain stationary until said team or teams shall have passed by."

"Section 4137. It shall be unlawful to blow the steam whistle of such portable or traction engine while upon the public highways or while passing over the streets of any city, town or village in this state.

"Section 4138. The penalty for the violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for each offense, or imprisonment in the county jail not more than ten days, or both, and in addition to said fine, any person causing damage to any said bridge or culvert shall be liable to the county to which the said bridge or culvert shall belong for all damages which may result from the crossing of such steam traction or portable engines."

A WORTHY ORIENT. Oregon Masons Propose to Establish a Mason's Home.

A move is on foot in the Masonic order of this state to establish a Mason's Home, which will be a place where the families of deceased Masons and their widows, in short, furnished a home that will supply every comfort that may be required. The move has been taken in hand by the Eastern Star, and it is hoped to be accomplished in the near future.
