

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

Hon. John Mitchell came home last night from a visit to the state capital.

H. D. Perkins has added another new hydraulic chair to the furniture in his barber shop.

During the month of October the receipts of the county clerk's office for fees was $301.41.

Hon. H. H. Gilroy, reading clerk of the U. S. senate, spent the day in the city visiting old friends here.

The Eugene Guard is giving a full and complete report of the sensational Branton murder case.

Alfred and Claude Kelay returned this morning from St. Paul, where they went with a shipment of sheep two weeks ago.

General Traffic Manager B. Campbell, of the O. & N., passed down the road this morning, returning from a trip to New York.

Hon. J. A. Jeffrey, of Medford, has opened a law office in Salem. Mr. Jeffrey is one of the most eloquent orators in the state.

Everybody will attend the La Fayette exercises given by the public schools in the Vaux opera house this evening. Go early so as to insure getting a good seat.

The importance of the meeting at the church of Christ to-morrow evening after the sermon demands the presence of every member, please bear this in mind.

Hops are quoted in the Salem market at 16 1/2 cents per pound. Last year's mouldy crop, some of which has been held over as rejected and worthless, is bringing 54 to cents.

Today County Clerk Kelso issued a marriage license to Oliver Bowers and Ada May Ganger. The marriage will be solemnized at the bride's parents near Crater point tomorrow.

It is said that a Weston girl who was recently married, is such an extraordinarily neat housekeeper that she sprinkled an eight day clock with insect powder to get rid of the ticks.

Parties desiring blacksmithing or wagon work should not overlook the fact that Dave Hockman and A. Sandrock are doing a general business in this line at the old J. L. Thompson shop on Third street.

This morning Fred Archer and Geo. Russell shipped seven head of fine draft horses to Portland for sale. They were exceptionally fine animals, each weighing over 1,300 pounds and no doubts will command high prices.

Sherman county farmers are supplying the market with numerous well raised chickens that are in the grain fields up there. They are fine and fat, and are very toothsome. A good supply of them is carried by J. A. Carasby.

Yesterday afternoon a twelve year old daughter of L. L. Hill, while playing on the school grounds fell and broke her right arm above the wrist. She was attended by Dr. Hollister, and is made as comfortable as circumstances will permit.

The contract for setting the poles for the new telephone line between Dufur and Tygh Valley has been let. The work will commence early next week. The work of putting up the wires will be done by the company.

Yesterday little Grover Bonn presented the office with a box of splendid grapes that were raised on his father's place in the city. They were most excellent, notwithstanding the fact that they had been gathered for several weeks.

The resources of the great northwest are now being developed as never before. Although only in the infancy of our possibilities, we can hardly get cars enough to send away our products of the current year. We will be able to supply our population and our producing facilities have been doubled.

Last night some Indians got into an altercation in one of the East End feed yards, and Joe Kenoux, one of the participants, received some serious wounds on the head. He was struck with a pipe and his skull fractured in several places. Dr. Hollister dressed his wounds this morning, and while they are serious, they are not necessarily fatal. The Indians who made the assault has been arrested.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Stubling received a letter from their son Arthur, who is with the Second Oregon at Manila. He does not give a pleasant account of the soldier's life in the Philippines. It is not what the defenders of the nation are entitled to expect from a beneficent government by any means. Arthur says that only 15 soldiers are being drafted principally from the lack of proper officers.

Owners of wheat in large or small lots are feverishly watching the war news and hoping the two big animals—the British lion and the Russian bear—may get together and force the price up to the dollar mark. Buyers cannot hope for any extensive dealings until the war either is declared off, or the nations actually begin hostilities and the price of wheat climbs somewhat nearer the sky than it has yet attained.

The new wharf that is being built by J. B. Montgomery at Portland threatens to have the effect of doing irreparable injury to the river channel there. There is so much danger of this happening that the Port of Portland Commission has notified him to stop building it or they will ask the courts to restrain him. It is claimed that the wharf is being built beyond the established wharf line. Mr. Montgomery on the other hand refuses to cease building and claims that the outer extremity of his wharf does not reach beyond the line fixed by the government. He announces his willingness to have the matter tested in the courts but cannot be bluff by any threats of the Port of Portland commission. The pilot testing the river is too narrow now to maneuver vessels and if the wharf is finished as proposed it will cause bars to form below it in front of the warehouses lower down.

W. H. Gulliford, of Halsey, is in the city.

Thirty city lots for sale at $50 and up. Inquire at this office.

One car of cattle was shipped from here last night to Troutdale.

E. E. Allen, a prominent wool grower of Mitchell, is in the city buying supplies for the winter.

This evening J. W. Rogers will leave for Chicago with two loads of dried prunes which he will put on the market there. They were raised on his farm near The Dalles and dried at his dryer in the city.

Today D. F. Ketchum shipped twelve car loads of lambs, ten were shipped to St. Paul and two to Troutdale.

Mrs. E. E. Laramea, who has been visiting Judge and Mrs. Bradshaw, returned this morning to her home in Portland.

Mrs. Sampson was a passenger on the Sarah Dixon this morning, going to White Salmon to look after her farm at that place.

There will be a fire drill this evening by Jackson Engine Co., No. 1, at 8:30 sharp. All members are requested to be prompt.

Mrs. E. Neil and Mrs. D. Coman came up on the 11:55 train last evening to attend the funeral of their brother, Mr. Phil Brogan.

The funeral of the late Phil Brogan will be conducted at the family residence tomorrow at 9 a. m., at 8:30 sharp. All members are requested to be prompt.

Mrs. E. Neil and Mrs. D. Coman came up on the 11:55 train last evening to attend the funeral of their brother, Mr. Phil Brogan.

The funeral of the late Phil Brogan will be conducted at the family residence tomorrow at 9 a. m., at 8:30 sharp. All members are requested to be prompt.

Kissing a baby may result in deforming its nose or bringing on nearsightedness. The safest plan is not to kiss a baby of any age or to permit it to attain the age of six or seven years.

Mrs. Joe Erhart died in St. Vincent hospital last evening, and her remains will arrive in this city for burial on the 5:30 train this evening.

Mrs. E. Neil and Mrs. D. Coman came up on the 11:55 train last evening to attend the funeral of their brother, Mr. Phil Brogan.

Mrs. C. J. Crandall went to Hood River this morning to meet Miss Pauline Kilne, of Corvallis, president of the Daughters of Rebekah, jurisdiction of Oregon. Miss Kilne will make the Hood River circuit of official visit tonight, and will meet with the lodge here next Thursday evening.

The funeral of Charles Shank was conducted here yesterday afternoon by the Woodmen assisted by the Foresters. He died at Starbuck, Wash., Friday from typhoid fever, and his remains were brought here for burial. Mr. Shank was formerly employed in the railroad shops here, but had been a resident of Starbuck for several years. He leaves a wife and five children.

F. O. McCullough has returned from an extended trip through Idaho, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico and California, and comes home satisfied that Oregon is the best state in the West. While in the gold mining districts he found times good, in other sections of the state he visited there were no visible signs of prosperity, and no where did he find the farmers so well situated as in Eastern Oregon.

The Lowenberg & Goring Co., who have been conducting a foundry located from the state at the penitentiary and employing convict labor are now in the process of being sold. The sale is being handled by the present state officials. A. N. Gilbert, superintendent of the penitentiary has been appointed trustee to earn this money out of the business of the embarrassed company. It is thought the state will be a large loser.

Yesterday the Sarah Dixon went to Cascade Locks and brought up the new hull for the Regulator which was built in Portland. It is 155 feet long, 28 feet wide and 7 feet deep. The hull is made very substantially, and when the house is put on, the new Regulator will be a much more substantial vessel than before. It was wrecked by putting in the machinery and placing the house on the hull which commenced at once, and the company expects to have the Regulator running early in December.

Omaha Oakes the popular knight of the grip, is interviewing Dallas business men today.

Mrs. A. T. Tavenant, of Walla Walla, is visiting her sister Mrs. C. F. Stephens in this city.

A black purse with two keys in it was picked up on the streets and left at this office for the owner to claim.

J. W. Coodon, with a surveying party, has gone to Dufur to survey the new telephone route from that town to Tygh Valley.

A very enjoyable dancing party was given in Fraternity hall last evening by the Alpha Mandolin and Guitar Club. About 20 couples were present, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Hon. H. H. Gilroy returned today from a visit to Antelope. He leaves on the 5:30 train for the upper country.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING.

A Gathering of Teachers and Delegates Exercises of New School Building Barret District No. 4.

The morning session, Saturday, Nov. 6, was opened by a chorus "Greeting G." Reading, by Miss Grace Graham, 1st Intermediate Hood River school, brought forth some excellent ideas and mentioned a number of good methods and devices to be employed in teaching reading. A general discussion followed, with general opinion prevailing among the teachers present, being that not enough of the proper kind of supplementary reading matter is supplied the pupils in our schools and that reading, the "key" to all other studies, becomes far too often, a matter of indifference to the pupils as well as to the parents, and that the line of biography, history, geography and travel should be supplied in every school no matter how small.

Through the earnest efforts of County Superintendent Gilbert an active move is being made along this line.

Writing, by Miss Katie Davenport, of Odell district, No. 5, disclosed a carefully written paper and demonstrated the inconsistency of pupils buying the material separately, when by buying in larger quantities the same supplies may be had at least at one-fourth the ordinary cost.

Prin. J. T. Neff, of Frankton district gave an interesting talk upon the methods of teaching dictation. The topic was thoroughly exhausted and no discussion followed.

Mrs. R. R. Allard, 1st assistant Barret, District No. 4, rendered a pathetic recitation entitled "On Guard" which called vividly to mind the heroic deeds of our forefathers.

The afternoon session was opened by the vocal chorus, "Our Nation," the first number on the dedication program. Mr. C. G. Casper presided, followed by an invocation by Rev. J. W. Jenkins.

A five minutes talk followed upon "What is Waco County Doing in the Way of Building-up Schools?" Over $35,000 being expended in this direction during the probability of $50,000 being expended the coming year.

"Our School," by Dr. P. G. Harrett, the first clerk of what is now district No. 4, but originally No. 34, brought forth the fact that there was but one school house in Hood River valley in 1871, and that the school district, the next to be organized in the valley, was cut off in 1877. He recounted the hard struggle they had in organizing the district and raising the necessary funds for erecting the building, which was made over since, but its days of usefulness are numbered.

The entire audience then joined in singing "America," and passed on to witness the raising of the new flag and the flag salute.

Another educational meeting will be held on Saturday, Nov. 19th, at the Frankton school house, two miles west of Hood River.

The following teachers were present: Principal J. T. Neff, County Superintendent Gilbert, Miss Emma Benson, Miss Nettie Hart, Principal R. E. Allard, Miss Nellie White, Miss Grace Graham, Miss Eliza Stevens, Miss Anna Smith, Principal H. Howe, Mrs. R. R. Allard, Miss Katie Davenport, Miss Hester Howe, Miss Eliza Stevens, Miss Nettie Kemp, Mr. Troy Shelley.

HONOR TO A PATRIOT.

The Dallas Public Schools remember the Immortal Lafayette.

As has been previously stated in these columns, it was impossible for the Dallas Public schools to hold exercises commemorative of Lafayette on the day designated by the promoters of the movement, but what was lost in delay was made up in the excellence of the exercises rendered in the Vogt opera house last Saturday evening.

The building was filled to the very At Four Score.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health.

During the heavy wind yesterday, a spark from the steam laundry caught on the porch of one of Dr. Hollister's houses on Third street occupied by N. M. Lane, and started a considerable blaze before the fire was discovered. Two men passing by noticed the fire, and with the assistance of a garden hose and a good supply of water put it out before it had gained much headway. Had they not acted promptly there is no telling where the fire might have terminated, for with a strong wind blowing, the entire west end of town would have been endangered.

MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

Philip Brogan Killed by Frank Forester at Antelope.

MURDERER ESCAPES

When Last Heard of He Was Headed for Mitchell, With Officers and Citizens in Pursuit.

About 6 o'clock last Saturday evening Philip Brogan, sr., was killed in F. W. Silvertown's saloon at Antelope, by Frank Forester, a man who had been working for him during the past year.

As near as can be learned the circumstances of the killing and the cause leading up to the tragedy were as follows:

Forester had been working as packer for Mr. Brogan for about a year, and had been authorized to draw checks in payment for supplies for Mr. Brogan's sheep camp. Some time ago they had a settlement and it was discovered that Forester was in debt to Mr. Brogan, and it was agreed that he should continue work and pay back out of his wages what he had overdrawn. They met in Antelope Saturday morning to make a settlement, but Mr. Brogan had been thrown from a horse Friday and was suffering from his injuries, so it was agreed that the settlement should be postponed until Sunday.

During the day Forester and two companions, a fellow known as Slim and a Mexican named Silvertown's saloon, where Mr. Brogan, Mr. McEae and a number of others were. Slim invited all hands to drink, but Mr. Brogan declined, stating that he was not feeling well. During the conversation about the drinks, Forester took out of his coat and announced his intention of whipping Brogan, when Frank Gum came in and promptly knocked Forester down. Slim then jumped onto Gum, and Mr. McEae then knocked Slim to the floor. When Slim got up he seized a chair and started for Brogan, when McEae took the chair from him, and in the excitement Forester made a rush at Brogan with a knife, striking him in the heart. In the mean time Mr. Brogan had gotten to the door, having passed around the men who were engaged in the altercation. When struck with the knife, he said "Bye I'm Killed," and fell to the floor expiring almost instantly.

Forester immediately got out the door, and it is thought he headed for Mitchell, that having been his home. Deputy Sheriff Brown started a posse in pursuit, but at last accounts they had not overtaken the murderer.

Forester is a large man, about six feet in height, light complexioned, and when he was last seen had on a dark coat, a hat and wore a red sweater. He was a sort of a shiftless individual, and had lived about Mitchell for a number of years.

Phil Brogan was an Irishman by birth, and was 52 years of age. He came here about 25 years ago. He engaged in sheep raising near Antelope, where he accumulated a considerable amount of property. About seven years ago his wife died leaving six small children, five girls and one boy the youngest an infant. Mr. Brogan moved his family to The Dalles, building a comfortable residence on Third street, where the family has since resided, though Mr. Brogan has retained his land and stock interests at Antelope which has necessitated his being at that place a great portion of his time.

Mr. Brogan was an honest, generous man, ever ready to lend aid to the needy and drive his last mile with the afflicted. He was one whom everybody respected and his sudden death has cast a gloom over the entire community.

Sudden Death.

James Hartman died very suddenly nine miles south of The Dalles, on Mill creek last night. He and a party of about men were working on the county road and Mr. Hartman was in apparent good health when he retired last night. He and Daniel O'Brien slept together, and Mr. O'Brien did not notice anything unusual with his companion during the night, but when he awoke to awaken him for breakfast, he found Mr. Hartman was dead, death having occurred some time during the night and without a struggle.

Mr. Hartman was about 60 years of age and was a member of the G. A. R. For several years he was slightly afflicted with heart trouble, and it is presumed his death was due to heart failure.

Modern Treatment of Consumption.

The latest work on the treatment of diseases, written by forty eminent American physicians, says: "Cod-liver oil has done more for the consumptive than all other remedies put together." It also says: "The hypophosphites of lime and soda are regarded by many English observers as specifics for consumption."

Scott's Emulsion contains the best cod-liver oil in a partially digested form, combined with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This remedy, a standard for a quarter of a century, is in exact accord with the latest views of the medical profession. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

Ben Wilson Saloon

Second Street, opposite Diamond Mills,

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

Fine Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

Free Lunch served at all hours

Z. F. MOODY

General Commission and Forwarding Merchant

391, 393 and 395 SECOND STREET.

(Adjoining Railroad Depot.)

Consignments Solicited

Prompt attention will be paid to those who favor me with their patronage.

THE CELEBRATED

Columbia Brewery

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.

This well-known brewery is now turning out the best Beer and Porter east of the Cascades. The latest appliances for the manufacture of good healthful Beer have been introduced, and only the first-class article will be placed on the market.

East Second Street

The Dalles, Oregon

MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

Philip Brogan Killed by Frank Forester at Antelope.

MURDERER ESCAPES

When Last Heard of He Was Headed for Mitchell, With Officers and Citizens in Pursuit.

About 6 o'clock last Saturday evening Philip Brogan, sr., was killed in F. W. Silvertown's saloon at Antelope, by Frank Forester, a man who had been working for him during the past year.

As near as can be learned the circumstances of the killing and the cause leading up to the tragedy were as follows:

Forester had been working as packer for Mr. Brogan for about a year, and had been authorized to draw checks in payment for supplies for Mr. Brogan's sheep camp. Some time ago they had a settlement and it was discovered that Forester was in debt to Mr. Brogan, and it was agreed that he should continue work and pay back out of his wages what he had overdrawn. They met in Antelope Saturday morning to make a settlement, but Mr. Brogan had been thrown from a horse Friday and was suffering from his injuries, so it was agreed that the settlement should be postponed until Sunday.

During the day Forester and two companions, a fellow known as Slim and a Mexican named Silvertown's saloon, where Mr. Brogan, Mr. McEae and a number of others were. Slim invited all hands to drink, but Mr. Brogan declined, stating that he was not feeling well. During the conversation about the drinks, Forester took out of his coat and announced his intention of whipping Brogan, when Frank Gum came in and promptly knocked Forester down. Slim then jumped onto Gum, and Mr. McEae then knocked Slim to the floor. When Slim got up he seized a chair and started for Brogan, when McEae took the chair from him, and in the excitement Forester made a rush at Brogan with a knife, striking him in the heart. In the mean time Mr. Brogan had gotten to the door, having passed around the men who were engaged in the altercation. When struck with the knife, he said "Bye I'm Killed," and fell to the floor expiring almost instantly.

Forester immediately got out the door, and it is thought he headed for Mitchell, that having been his home. Deputy Sheriff Brown started a posse in pursuit, but at last accounts they had not overtaken the murderer.

Forester is a large man, about six feet in height, light complexioned, and when he was last seen had on a dark coat, a hat and wore a red sweater. He was a sort of a shiftless individual, and had lived about Mitchell for a number of years.

Phil Brogan was an Irishman by birth, and was 52 years of age. He came here about 25 years ago. He engaged in sheep raising near Antelope, where he accumulated a considerable amount of property. About seven years ago his wife died leaving six small children, five girls and one boy the youngest an infant. Mr. Brogan moved his family to The Dalles, building a comfortable residence on Third street, where the family has since resided, though Mr. Brogan has retained his land and stock interests at Antelope which has necessitated his being at that place a great portion of his time.

Modern Treatment of Consumption.

The latest work on the treatment of diseases, written by forty eminent American physicians, says: "Cod-liver oil has done more for the consumptive than all other remedies put together." It also says: "The hypophosphites of lime and soda are regarded by many English observers as specifics for consumption."

Scott's Emulsion contains the best cod-liver oil in a partially digested form, combined with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This remedy, a standard for a quarter of a century, is in exact accord with the latest views of the medical profession. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

Ben Wilson Saloon

Second Street, opposite Diamond Mills,

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

Fine Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

Free Lunch served at all hours

Z. F. MOODY

General Commission and Forwarding Merchant

391, 393 and 395 SECOND STREET.

(Adjoining Railroad Depot.)

Consignments Solicited

Prompt attention will be paid to those who favor me with their patronage.

THE CELEBRATED

Columbia Brewery

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.

This well-known brewery is now turning out the best Beer and Porter east of the Cascades. The latest appliances for the manufacture of good healthful Beer have been introduced, and only the first-class article will be placed on the market.

East Second Street

The Dalles, Oregon

MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

Philip Brogan Killed by Frank Forester at Antelope.

MURDERER ESCAPES

When Last Heard of He Was Headed for Mitchell, With Officers and Citizens in Pursuit.

About 6 o'clock last Saturday evening Philip Brogan, sr., was killed in F. W. Silvertown's saloon at Antelope, by Frank Forester, a man who had been working for him during the past year.

As near as can be learned the circumstances of the killing and the cause leading up to the tragedy were as follows:

Forester had been working as packer for Mr. Brogan for about a year, and had been authorized to draw checks in payment for supplies for Mr. Brogan's sheep camp. Some time ago they had a settlement and it was discovered that Forester was in debt to Mr. Brogan, and it was agreed that he should continue work and pay back out of his wages what he had overdrawn. They met in Antelope Saturday morning to make a settlement, but Mr. Brogan had been thrown from a horse Friday and was suffering from his injuries, so it was agreed that the settlement should be postponed until Sunday.

During the day Forester and two companions, a fellow known as Slim and a Mexican named Silvertown's saloon, where Mr. Brogan, Mr. McEae and a number of others were. Slim invited all hands to drink, but Mr. Brogan declined, stating that he was not feeling well. During the conversation about the drinks, Forester took out of his coat and announced his intention of whipping Brogan, when Frank Gum came in and promptly knocked Forester down. Slim then jumped onto Gum, and Mr. McEae then knocked Slim to the floor. When Slim got up he seized a chair and started for Brogan, when McEae took the chair from him, and in the excitement Forester made a rush at Brogan with a knife, striking him in the heart. In the mean time Mr. Brogan had gotten to the door, having passed around the men who were engaged in the altercation. When struck with the knife, he said "Bye I'm Killed," and fell to the floor expiring almost instantly.

Forester immediately got out the door, and it is thought he headed for Mitchell, that having been his home. Deputy Sheriff Brown started a posse in pursuit, but at last accounts they had not overtaken the murderer.

Forester is a large man, about six feet in height, light complexioned, and when he was last seen had on a dark coat, a hat and wore a red sweater. He was a sort of a shiftless individual, and had lived about Mitchell for a number of years.

Phil Brogan was an Irishman by birth, and was 52 years of age. He came here about 25 years ago. He engaged in sheep raising near Antelope, where he accumulated a considerable amount of property. About seven years ago his wife died leaving six small children, five girls and one boy the youngest an infant. Mr. Brogan moved his family to The Dalles, building a comfortable residence on Third street, where the family has since resided, though Mr. Brogan has retained his land and stock interests at Antelope which has necessitated his being at that place a great portion of his time.

Modern Treatment of Consumption.

The latest work on the treatment of diseases, written by forty eminent American physicians, says: "Cod-liver oil has done more for the consumptive than all other remedies put together." It also says: "The hypophosphites of lime and soda are regarded by many English observers as specifics for consumption."

Scott's Emulsion contains the best cod-liver oil in a partially digested form, combined with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This remedy, a standard for a quarter of a century, is in exact accord with the latest views of the medical profession. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

Ben Wilson Saloon

Second Street, opposite Diamond Mills,

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

Fine Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

Free Lunch served at all hours

Z. F. MOODY

General Commission and Forwarding Merchant

391, 393 and 395 SECOND STREET.

(Adjoining Railroad Depot.)

Consignments Solicited

Prompt attention will be paid to those who favor me with their patronage.

THE CELEBRATED

Columbia Brewery

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.

This well-known brewery is now turning out the best Beer and Porter east of the Cascades. The latest appliances for the manufacture of good healthful Beer have been introduced, and only the first-class article will be placed on the market.

East Second Street

The Dalles, Oregon

Columbus discovered America—but I have discovered BATTLE AX!

There is a satisfied—glad I've got it—expression on the faces of all who discover the rich quality of

Battle-Ax PLUG

It is an admirable chew fit for an Admiral.

In no other way can you get as large a piece of as good tobacco—for 10 cents.

Remember the name when you buy again.

Where Are You At? If You Want to Know

Secure one of our late maps of Oregon—just published—perfectly accurate, thoroughly reliable. We give it to you with the WEEKLY TIMES-MOUNTAINEER on these terms:

To every subscriber who pays up arrearages and one year's subscription, together with 50 cents, we supply the paper one year and the map. Price of paper $1.50; price of map $1.00. We give you both for $2.00. Take advantage of this offer now. It only holds good for a short time. The map is 28x34 inches, on heavy cloth and mounted substantially on rollers. The same map on paper, in pocket form will be furnished with the paper for $1.75.

Send for... Attend this... H. HOLMES... PRACTICAL... AGGRESSIVE... SCALP... COLIC... RHEUMATISM... COLLEGE... 414 Yamhill St. PORTLAND, OR.

Ben Wilson Saloon

Second Street, opposite Diamond Mills,

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

Fine Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

Free Lunch served at all hours

Z. F. MOODY

General Commission and Forwarding Merchant

391, 393 and 395 SECOND STREET.

(Adjoining Railroad Depot.)

Consignments Solicited

Prompt attention will be paid to those who favor me with their patronage.

THE CELEBRATED

Columbia Brewery

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.

This well-known brewery is now turning out the best Beer and Porter east of the Cascades. The latest appliances for the manufacture of good healthful Beer have been introduced, and only the first-class article will be placed on the market.

East Second Street

The Dalles, Oregon

NORTHERN PACIFIC

RUNS

PULLMAN SLEEPING CARS

ELEGANT DINING CARS

COURT SLIPPING CARS

MINERAL SPRINGS

ST. PAUL GRAND POIKS

DULUTH

FARGO

CROOKSTON

WINNIPEG

HELENA and BUTTE

THROUGH TICKETS

TO

CHICAGO

PHILADELPHIA

NEW YORK

HOSTON and all PORTS EAST and SOUTH

For information, time tables, maps and tickets all our routes, call on W. G. ALLIAPAY, Agents at 110 Broadway, New York City, or W. G. CHARLTON, Assistant General Passenger Agent, No. 25 Morrison Street, Corner Third Street, Portland, Oregon.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS

DESIGNS

Copyrights &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description and fully answering our questions free of charge, will receive a free opinion from our Patent Attorneys. Patents taken through Munie & Co. secure special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms: Five cents per month, $1.00 per annum in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.

Munie & Co., Patent Attorneys, New York

Star Feed & grinding Mill

Reliable, rapid, economical and a money maker. Capacity from 600 to 10,000 pounds an hour. Agents wanted. Address

T. BROWNHILL, Grass Valley, Oregon.

JUST OPENED NEW SHOP

J. NEAGLE

Has opened a Boot and Shoe shop in the rooms next door to the Times-Mountaineer office.

Firs-Class Workmanship

IN EVERY LINE

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY

R. E. Saltmarsh

—AT THE—

East End STOCK YARDS,

WILL PAY THE Highest Cash Price for Hay and Grain.

DEALER IN LIVE STOCK

"The Regulator Line"

The Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation Co.

THROUGH

Freight and Passenger Line

LOWEST RATES

BEST SERVICE

FASTEST TIME

The steamers of this line will leave The Dalles at 7:30 A. M.

Shipments received at any time, day or night.

Live stock shipments solicited.

Call on or address,

A. C. HILL & CO.

CHARLES FRANK

—OF THE—

Butchers & Farmers

EXCHANGE

Keeps on draught the celebrated BEST FINEST BREWED BEER, acknowledged the best beer in The Dalles, at the usual price. Come in, try it and be convinced. Also the Finest brands of Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

SANDWICHES, all kinds, ON HAND