A woman's attractiveness in the eyes of A woman's attractiveness in the eyes of man depends largely on her physical ap-pearance. Nature, in order to preserve the race, guides mankind by the instinctive preference for a mate who is physically sound and wholesome. If intellect alone were chiefly sought, the offspring might be a generation of Solo-mons for wisdom, but they would perish in infancy for want of physical stamina. A weak or unhealty woman is unfitted to fulfil her part in perpetuating the race; she is unequal to the demards of motherhood and wifchood, she is robbed of her natural womanly attractiveness.
