MANILA, Dec. 16 .- Rear-Admiral Dewey, when a correspondent of the Associated Press called upon him today, was pleasant and courteous, but absolutely declined to discuss the political situation in the Philippine islands, on the ground that his sphere was purely naval. He then proceeded to cross-examine the correspondent about everything ashore. He was glad to learn the insurgents were releasing the sick Spanish soldiers they as prisoners. notwithstanding Aguinaldo's grandiloquent refusal to do so. This proves that the insurgents are very conciliatory, in spite of their defiant talk. Admiral Dewey always believed that the insurgents were friendly, espedially since the warships of our fleet have visited the different ports of those islanas, and since some of our officers have taken tours inland, care fully investigating popular sentiment and judiciously preaching the gospel of peaceful settlement everywhere with highly satisfactory results.

A few influential Filipinos, in their ambition for self-advancement, are clamoring for independance though they scarcely know its true meaning. They are utterly ignorant of the difference between the name and the reality. Agitators here invariably admit they would be unable to stand without American protection, but in spite of this they continue their meaningless cry for independence, and may create trouble.

The admiral, however, believes this to be improbable at the present juncture, though every trifling incident counts. However, every day much gain, because the friendly feel-

Cribune from Washington says: The British embassy was subjected for several minutes last night to vicious combardment with brickbats by Joseph W. Pearson, a Washington printer. One of Sir Julian Pauncefote's daughters was struck on the foot and slightly hurt by the first missile thrown by Pearson. Several windows, the glass in the storm doors and the great plate-glass doors of the embassy, which were magnificently cut in a design of the British coat-of-arms, were smashed and ruined. Sir Julian and his daughters were sitting in the drawing-room when there was a crash and the rattling of alling glass. Miss Pauncefote leaped to her feet with an exclamation of pain. Half a brick lay near her foot, which had been struck and cut. In a few minutes the police were on their way to the embassy. Meanwhile Pearson took a position under the porte-cochere and began to bombard the storm door, soon smashing the glass out of them. Behind them were the main doors of the embassy, great sheets of plate-glass into which the arms of the embassy were cut. These glasses were imported and were valued at $300 each. Pearson deliberately stood in the porte-cochere and threw his remaining missils at these fine glasses, breaking one after the other. A policeman reached the embassy and arrested Pearson. He re-had but a few hours to live. Other inmates were similarly destitute and suffering from diseases bred by filth and hunger. Pinched and wan, they biessed the approach of the American relief with its hope of some alleviation of their misery. Agonellilo Makes a Protest Paris, Dec. 16.-The American peace commission leaves for Havre and Southampton tonight and will sail for New York tomorrow on the steamer St. Louis. Agoncillio, the representative of Aguinaldo, has lodged a strongly worded protest with the commission. He says before the declaration of war the American consuls-general Pratt. Wildman, Williams and Captain Wood in Hong Kong, offered to recognize the independance of the Philippine islands.

Baron Francis Napier Dead. LUNDON, Dec. 19 .- News was reseived here today of the death of Francis Napier, ninth Baron of Napier and Ettrick, minisier to the United States from Great Britain in 1857, at Florence, Italy. He was born in 1819 and entered the diplomatic service in 1840.

A Wee Baby Born at Sea On a recent trip of the steamer Weett there was born to Mrs. White, of Lebanon, a girl of one and one-half pounds weight. There were no other women nor any physician aboard the essel, and the illness of the lady rendered it necessary that Captain R. J. Dunham act in a professional capacity, in which it is said he was eminently successful. In consideration of his services he was accorded the honor of christening the babe, and he gave it the name of his vessel, with the addition of a letter for euphony-"Wee-ott-a." The captain regarded the whole matter seriously and sacredly and frowned viciously upon the passenger who suggessed, in view of the infant's weight, that it be named "Wee-tot-a." The mother and child are doing nicely, being well cared for at the Yaquina house.—Corvalile

A Pleasaut Surprise Last night the ladies of the W. R. C. met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Mc-Arthur and marched in a body to Mr. Parkin's residence where Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reese have rooms, the object of their visit being a surprise to Mrs. Reese, who is a member of the W. R. C., and so completely was the affair arranged that Mr. and Mrs. Reese knew nothing of it until the doors were thrown open and about 20 ladies marched in, taking possession of their cozy rooms. The evening was delightfufly spent in conversation, interspersed with sweet music executed by Messrs. Parkins and Reese, and a delicious lunch. During the evening Mrs. C. F. Stephens, on behalf of the W. R. C., presented Mrs. Reese with a pretty fruit stand. Besides the guests of the W. R. C. were Miss Quaid, of Portland, and Miss Anna Stubling, of The Dalles.
