EAGAN TARES IT ALL BACK.

His Statement to the War Board. WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 .- Commissary General Eagan today sent to the war investigating commission a revised statement in place of that originally made in response to Miles' charges. The revised statement is about 35 per cent shorter than that which was ordered withdrawn because of its violent and abusive character The commis sion went into secret session to read the document and decide whether in its present form it has been expurgated sufficiently to permit it to be made a part of the commission records.

Accompanying Eagan's revised statement was a letter from the commissary-general in which he disclaimed any intention in his former testimony of disrespect to the commision. The writer in excuse for his vituperative language states that he has been placed before the world as a man who fed the army on poisioned meat. He says it is but natural that when proper opportunity was given him to meet and refute the charges he should characterize them in harsh language and in terms that are deemed improper, no matter what the provo cation. He concludes:

"I therefore withdraw the language and matter so objectionable, and resubmit to you my sworn statement, with abiding faith that your commission having all the facts before it will decide the points at issue justly."

NOW COMES ROOSEVELT.

Eagan's Beef. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 13.-Governor Roosevelt has sent to General Miles at Washington a letter concerning the meat furnished the "Rough Riders" during the recent war. Roosevelt states that four kinds of beef were issued. The corned beef was good, but the canned roast beef was unfit for food. When the rough riders left Tampa, a large quantity of specially prepared beef was placed on board the transport in which they embarked. This beef was stored in the forward end of the transport. It had been
