

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

From Wednesday's Daily. Fred N. Wallace, of Antelope, is in the city. A. S. MacAllister came home last night from Portland. A. E. Negus returned last night from a visit to Corvallis. Miss Jennie Marden returned last evening from a visit to Portland. E. M. McComas, of Pendleton, is registered at the Umattilla House. Polk says has 100 head of cattle at the stock yards which he will ship tomorrow to his farm in Wallawa county. A meeting of the taxpayers of school district No. 12 is called on Monday, January 30th, to consider the voting of a tax for school purposes during the coming year. At 5 o'clock this morning Leo, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harkness died of spinal meningitis. The funeral will be conducted from the family residence on Friday. A young man by the name of Elmer Miller, of Pendleton, is in the toils of the law at Portland for having fraudulently obtained a registered letter from the Pendleton postoffice containing $87. A. J. Knightly, of Cascade Locks, has been sentenced by Judge Bellinger of the U. S. district court, to three months in the county jail for having made a false return as a bankrupt debtor. If the ice goes out between here and Crates' point, where it is now blocked, the steamer Dalles City will make a trip up from Portland Friday. The ice is all out from Crates' point to the mouth of the river. The funeral of the late John Brookhouse was held at the Catholic Church at 9 o'clock this morning, where Rev. A. Bronsgeest said mass, after which the remains were conveyed to the cemetery, followed by a large number of friends. Yesterday J. M. and Geo. Nolan, of Dufur, were in the city to receive the remains of Elmer Frost, who died at Canby, Clackamas county, last Sunday, and convey them to Dufur for burial. Mr. Frost was a former resident of Dufur, and was Mrs. J. M. Nolan's father. The Columbia presented a beautiful night this morning when the ice began moving. At first one could see great mountains of ice rise up in midstream, then they would subside and open places would be noticed. These would soon close up with ice from above, and would appear a solid mass until another opening would be formed by the action of the water. Finally about noon the ice quit moving, a jam being formed at Crates' point. A sturdy old farmer explains why the legislature adjourned on Thursday of last week. He says he saw the legislators off to the capitol, and they apparently knew just what was to be done, but in the battle and whir of the city by the Willamette they forgot their text, and had to return home to learn it from their constituents. His explanation is satisfactory. This morning L. Morris was taken before Recorder Gates on a charge of larceny from a dwelling, and was held in bonds of $200 to answer before the next grand jury. Not being able to furnish bonds he was removed to the custody of the sheriff. Morris claims to have arrived here last night, and the first thing he did was to enter M. T. Nolan's residence and steal some coats. Chas. E. Blaney's big extravaganza success, "A Boy Wanted" will be Manager's Kinersly's next attraction at the Vogt Jan. 21st. It is a bright burlesque, musical farce, opera buff, and extravaganza, so arranged as to permit of the varied list of specialties which that company presents. There is presumed to be a plot but this presumption is merely one of the theatrical fiction invented as an excuse for the presentation of other features. "A Boy Wanted" is one of those peculiar plays in which the reason for the title is mental enigma. The "Boy" in this case is hardly the central figure of the show as all the characters are prominent. From Thursday's Daily. L. O'Brien and wife, of Centerville, are in the city. E. Jacobson returned last evening from Portland. A. Ogilvie and A. B. Lamb, of Fossil, were in The Dalles last night. L. E. Morse came up yesterday from White Salmon and returned on the morning train. Baker City talks of putting in a sewerage system the coming summer that will cost $5,000. The Bonanza mine, in Baker county, is taking out $100,000 a week from its mill. Recently it worked rock that gave $2 to the pound. O. J. Barrett, a miling man from Deadwood, S. D., who has been out in Crook county examining the mines of Ochooc, returned from there yesterday by stage. Farmers who have been in town today, say that the grain fields where the snow has disappeared, look splendid, the grain having grown right along under the snow. M. W. Freeman, of Boyd, was in the city today. He says the snow is disappearing rapidly about Boyd, and the ground in all places exposed to the south wind is now bare. Dr. O. C. Hollister was called to Grass Valley this afternoon on account of the serious illness of a son of Alexander Scott of that place. The doctor will return home tomorrow afternoon. Arch E. Crosby, representing Fry's drug house in Salem, spent the day in the city. Fry is the manufacturer of the celebrated Fry's squirrel poison that has proven so satisfactory to the farmers of this section. Peter Johnson, who for a number of years was employed in the O. R. & N. shops here, died yesterday at Wallace, Idaho. Mr. Johnson was a member of Temple Lodge, A. O. U. W., of this place, and his remains may be brought here for burial. The ice that was blocked above Crates' point yesterday, moved down the river to Memorial island last night where it has formed a jam. All the ice has left The Dalles except a strip about half a mile long, reaching from bank to bank. Tomorrow will be the last day of the first school term, and as the teachers in the different grades will be quite busy attending the examinations for advancement, the pupils from the high grade to the High school inclusive will be given a holiday. School in the 1st, 2d and 3d grades as usual. Wister Hawthorn, son of Prof. B. J. Hawthorn of Eugene, died at Manila on the 15th of paralysis of the heart. Young Hawthorn was 29 years of age, and died while at the state university last spring to go to Co. C, Second Oregon, at the breaking out of the war with Spain. The Quaker Doctors give one of the best entertainments that the people here have seen for a long time, everybody is well pleased. Dandy, the high diving dog, jumps from a 20 ft. ladder every night in front of the Baldwin opera house. Come and see him at 7 o'clock. Admission 15 cents. Workmen have begun putting up the shelving and balconies in Mays & Crowe's new store, and it is expected that the building will be completed inside of two months. When finished this will be the most complete hardware store in Eastern Oregon. Both floors of the building, which is 100x100 feet, will be occupied by the firm, the upper floor as a sales room and the lower floor for storage of stock. The program for the coming minstrel show promises to be a neat souvenir, something to remember the winter season by, and will be a good medium of advertising. The minstrel boys have authorized Joe Heroux, of this office, to prepare the program for them, and he will ere long interview advertisers soliciting their patronage. From Friday's Daily. B. Cannon, of Antelope, is in the city. E. J. Collins is on the sick list, being laid up with a grip. During the past week the river has risen four feet, and now stands at 410. Yesterday a car of sheep was shipped from there to the Spokane Butchering Co. W. C. Alloway went to the Cascade Locks today to meet the boat which arrived this evening. All the ice in the river opposite The Dalles disappeared last night, it having broken loose and floated down the stream. In the probate court today R. J. Comans was appointed administrator of the estate of John Brookhouse, deceased. Today 2000 sacks of wheat were hauled down from Moody's warehouse to the Regulator dock for shipment to Portland. On account of the illness of Mrs. Bennett, Judge Bennett did not go to Walla Walla last evening as he had intended. The steamer Dalles City will leave her dock here at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning for Portland prepared to take through passengers and freight. Johnston & Co's store has been a little short of help today. Mr. Johnston and Bob Teague both being confined to their rooms by sickness. There will be a special meeting of the city council tonight for the purpose of levying a tax for city purposes, also for considering the amended charter. L. M. Wilson has bought Fred Archer's livery stable in the East End, and is prepared to do a general livery business. Good treatment to all patrons. Anyone having $250 or $300 to invest in a paying enterprise, a business already established in The Dalles, can learn something of interest by calling at this office. This morning the ferry was brought down from its winter quarters at Hungry harbor, attached to the cable and began making regular trips between here and Rockland. Grand opening of the new Midway Saturday evening. Splendid lunch served before and after the theater. A cordial invitation extended to all by the proprietor, W. I. Marders. 2d. Today Mike Doyle, of Chenoweth creek, delivered five dressed hogs to Christian Bros. the total weight of which was 1382 pounds. The hogs were rosy and fat and were hammed and packed for shipment. The county assessor has finished extending the assessment roll and listing the taxable property in the several incorporated towns in the county. It shows $1,110,127 of taxable property in The Dalles. The Dalles City left Cascade Locks at 8 o'clock this morning, and on reaching Crates' point found a blockade of ice which it has been hammering at ever since noon trying to break its way through. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Field, died at Vashon, King county, Wash., on Tuesday, January 17th, after an illness of six hours with spasms. Mr. and Mrs. Field formerly lived in the city of Portland. Field was born here January 29, 1896. The stock yards presented a livelier appearance today than for some time past. There were two car loads of hogs there feeding that belonged to Kilder Bros., of Island City, and a car of cattle belonging to Capt. Irvine, of Payette. Both shipments were on route to Troutdale. According to a decision of Adjutant General Corbin volunteers in the United States service will receive pay for their service between the time they presented themselves for enlistment and the time of mustering in, but no pay will be allowed those who were recruited at the state university. United States District Attorney Hall will probably not fool around the state capitol building much in the future, or if he does will be more careful about picking up hats. By mistake he wore off Senator Reed's hat the other day, and was promptly arrested on a charge of larceny. The driver who came in with the stage from Prineville last night reported the snow having gone off all the country south of Deschutes river. This side of the river the snow gradually deepens from Tygh Ridge towards The Dalles, but has gone off all the south hills along the road. It is now believed that A. K. Handy, of Corvallis, who disappeared while hunting in Eastern Oregon. Both Handy and the man with whom he was hunting, was murdered. Blood has been found on the snow near where Handy was last seen, and tracks leading to the Siletz river lead to the belief that his murderers threw the body into the stream. The manager of The Dalles-Prineville stage is in a difficult position as to matter to make trip on schedule time since the law has been rendered the roads difficult to travel. The schedule time between here and Prineville, a distance of 121 miles, in 23 hours, which requires pretty lively traveling and under the most favorable circumstances is quite difficult to make, as from two to three hours are consumed on each trip in necessary stops. LIFE AT MANILA. An interesting letter from one of the Oregon boys in the Philippines. The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Barzee, from A. Bonner, private in Co. L, Second Oregon, now stationed at Manila, and bears date of December 23: We received the Christmas box today and were agreeably surprised as we didn't know they were coming. I can assure you they were a most welcome addition to our bill of fare, which is very slim at best, but it is far better now than it was a few months ago. We get fresh meat from Australia, fresh vegetables from Hong Kong, and the rest of our rations come from America. While we were at Cavite we nearly starved, but we have fared very well since we came to Manila, that is very well for soldiers. We arrived at Cavite on the last day of June, and went ashore on the first day of July. We moved into old Spanish barracks that had been used for more than 100 years by the Spaniards before Dewey came this way. We stayed there till August 13th. At four o'clock in the morning, we marched aboard the Chinese steamer Kwong Hai, and pulled out into the bay and waited until about 10 o'clock when Dewey's flagship, the Olympia, opened fire on the forts and trenches, quickly followed by the rest of the fleet. After a short engagement the Spanish forts were silenced and our vessels moved close in shore, in the line of fire and it was a sight for any man to see our men go over the Spanish works. Then we went ashore under the guns of the fleet and marched into the city. It was one of the proudest moments of our lives when we pulled the Spanish flag down from the wall, and then marched to the governor's palace and pulled down another flag and raised Old Glory. That night we slept in marble halls, the floors were of white and black marble. I believe it was the hardest bed that I have slept on. Since I joined the army I have slept on all kinds of beds, but good ones. I have slept on the floor of a car, on the deck of a ship, on the sand at the sea side, in the mud in the trenches, but the marble floor was the worst. We have a bamboo bunk and for bedding one wool blanket and one rubber blanket. We are quartered in very good barracks now, but it is very hard to tell how long we will be here, as they change the regiment every few weeks. We now have four kinds of uniforms, the blue, a brown, which is the fatigue uniform, a white uniform and a khaki. We have church services here every Sunday. They are conducted by the chaplain, and he has organized a Y. M. C. A. here, that is well attended. I suppose you are having cold weather and a little sleighing by this time. I only wish we could have some of your cold weather down here for it is very warm. We do not know how long we will be here, but hope we will leave before the hot season comes again. We have had but one death, two discharged for disability, and we have about a dozen in the hospital.

HOUSE BILL NO. 108. To Provide for the Destruction of Predatory Animals. Section 1. That the county courts of the several counties of the state of Oregon shall levy a tax upon the assessed number of sheep in their respective counties which are owned by residents of the counties, or are being pastured in the counties, that may appear on the assessment rolls as if made on the first day of March of each year; thereby creating a fund to be placed in the state treasurer's hands to be known as "The State Scalp Bounty Fund." Sec. 2. The tax shall be as follows: One and one half cent per head on the sheep appearing on the assessment rolls as aforesaid. The county courts of the several counties of this state shall levy a tax of one fourth mill on all personal and real property that may be returned on the assessment rolls of their respective counties, to be used and placed in the above fund in the possession of the state treasurer, to be used in conjunction and in connection with the aforesaid tax on sheep; provided, however, that personal property, as stated in this section, shall not include sheep enumerated in the previous section. Sec. 3. There shall be paid, as hereinafter provided, the sum of two dollars apiece for each coyote, mountain lion, or cougar, and gray or timber wolf scalp. Sec. 4. Every person or persons having in his or her possession any scalp or scalps of the animal or animals named shall take the same to the nearest notary public or magistrate in the county in which the animal or animals were killed, and shall make an affidavit that the animal or animals named were killed in said county, and taken were killed in said county, and said affidavit shall be in the following form: STATE OF OREGON, County of _____, ss. I, _____, being first duly sworn, depose and say, that I killed, or caused to be killed, (No.) _____ (the animal killed), the scalp or scalps of which are here presented, on _____ day of _____, 19____, in _____ county state of Oregon. (Signed) _____ Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19____. Attest (Seal) _____ County clerk of _____ county. And said notary public or magistrate shall demand corroborative testimony if, in his judgment, the case seems to require it, and, after being satisfied as to the facts, he shall thereupon cut off and remove at least two thirds of one ear of each and every scalp so presented and shall give to the owner of the scalp or scalps a certificate stating that the animal or animals named in the affidavit were killed and the name of the person or persons claiming to own or to have killed the animal or animals from which the scalp or scalps were taken; provided, that the expenses of the notary public or magistrate for administering the affidavit and removing the ear from the scalp or scalps and making the certificate shall be paid by the person owning or claiming to have killed, or caused to have killed, the animal or animals from which the scalp or scalps were taken, and such notary or magistrate may collect from such claimant a sum not exceeding five per centum of the amount of such certificate and said sum shall be his sole compensation. Sec. 5. The notary public or magistrate shall take such scalp or scalps so presented and bring the same and attach thereto a tag with the name of the owner or claimant written thereon and at every meeting of the county court of his respective county he shall cause to be delivered to such county court such scalp or scalps with a certificate of the notary public or magistrate and with the amount of bounty "certificates" and the name of the claimant to whom issued. When the county court shall have satisfied itself as to the justice of the claim so presented, it shall there and then cause such scalp or scalps to be destroyed by burning the same to ashes. Sec. 6. A scalp shall consist of both ears of the animal connected by a strip of skin that grew between them at least two inches wide all whole and intact. Sec. 7. That the notary public or magistrate before whom such scalps are taken shall issue, or cause to be issued to the owner of scalps, a certificate in substantially the following form: _____ precinct, _____ 19____. State of Oregon. I hereby certify that on this day delivered to me in the form prescribed by law, the following scalps, to-wit: _____ No. caught _____ at $2.00 each. (Signed) _____ A stub of which shall be kept by the notary public or magistrate in his office. Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the county court at each regular session to cause the scalps delivered to them by the notaries public and magistrates of the various precincts of their respective counties and compare them with the statements sent in by said notaries and magistrates. After the scalps have been ascertained as provided above, the county clerk of said county, where such scalps are taken shall test the validity of such certificate by attaching his official seal. The secretary of state shall forthwith, upon presentation of such certificate slightly by the notary public or magistrate before whom such scalps were taken, and signed and sealed by the county clerk of said county, issue or cause to be issued a warrant on the state treasury for a like amount from the above fund to the party thereto entitled. Sec. 9. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $500 or imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than six months nor more than two years or both. Sec. 10. Inasmuch as the depredations of wild animals are a great menace to one of the leading industries of the state, thousands of dollars' worth of property being destroyed annually, an emergency is hereby declared and this act shall take effect on and after its approval by the governor. WOODMEN INSTALLATION. Last night the Woodmen and their families assembled at Fraternal Hall to witness the installation ceremonies of Mt. Hood Camp, W. of W., and their auxiliary, Cedar Circle No. 8, Women of Woodcraft. After a piano solo by Mrs. E. J. Collins, Consul Commander Jas. Snipes installed the following officers: Con. Com., C. T. Rawson; advisor, C. F. Stephens; banker, C. L. Phillips; clerk, W. D. Harper; escort, S. D. Garner; secretary, D. W. Mann; watchman R. G. Wilson. The officers of Cedar Circle were then installed by Mrs. Anna Blakely: Guardian, Mrs. Ollie F. Stephens; advisor, Mrs. Inez Fillion; clerk, Miss Etta Wrean, banker, Mrs. Ella Dawson; magician, Mrs. Belle Berger; attendant, Miss Emma Williams. I. S. Miss Lena Jackson; O. S. Mrs. James Taylor; captain of guards, Miss Rachel Morgan; manager, Miss Viola Rorden. A vocal duet by Madam Jayne and Groat, select reading, Mrs. Inez Fillion, and an instrumental duet, piano and mandolin by Lela and Lota Kelsey, completed the program, after which refreshments were served and a pleasant evening spent. Invited to Heppner. The Dalles Minstrel club have received an invitation from G. W. Phelps to put their show on in Heppner, and Mr. Phelps takes occasion to mention that the minstrels need not come to Heppner unless they can give something first class, as the Elks have taken the matter in hand, and they never foster anything except. It is the best. The friends at Heppner need have no fears in this regard, for the Dalles Minstrels will put on the best show Heppner has ever seen. There will be 20 people in the troupe, and every one of them will be an artist— a whole show within himself. It is expected the show will be put on here on the 30th or 31st, then the boys will be ready to entertain their friends at Heppner as they were never entertained before, for it will be a show that would merit patronage in the biggest city in America. Heppner has a reputation that no one will care to have his admission fee returned after having seen the entertainment.

The New City Charter. A draft of the new charter for Dalles City, prepared by the commission appointed by the council, is now at the office of the recorder for inspection. All who are interested may examine the charter and if they have any suggestions to make are requested to do so before the copy is forwarded to the legislators. The changes made in the draft for the new charter are only slight. The principal changes are those giving the county greater powers concerning the construction and repairs of sewers, side and crosswalks; authorizing the bond to put aside and loan $1000 a year at a sinking fund to meet the bonded indebtedness of the city amounting to $57,000; authorizing the water commission to regulate the duties and fix the salary of the superintendent of water works; making the recorder the clerk of the water commission by changing the boundaries of the corporation so that the western line of the "Methodist mission" shall be the western boundary of the city. Extra Pay for Captain Lewis. Commissioner Hermann, of the general land office, has just returned to the president, through the secretary of the interior, a report upon a bill which recently passed congress, granting to Captain J. W. Lewis, former register of the United States land office at The Dalles a payment of $521 for extra service rendered by him during the vacancy in the office of recorder occasioned by the death of Col. Thomas S. Laug. As technically correct, the existing law refuses compensation to the register for the amount of fees which he otherwise would have been entitled to receive had the recorder lived, and this bill is to compensate him for that which he would otherwise have received. The commissioner of the general land office recommends the approval of the bill. Started in Early. A Pendleton dispatch to the Oregonian gives the following account of an escapee of three young bunch grass boys that may get them into serious trouble. It says: John Morgan, son of the mayor of Heppner; Jud Hart, son J. C. Hart, and a lad named Greenwell are being pursued by officers from Heppner. Warrants having been issued for their arrest. The boys are each about 14 years old, and all resided with their parents in Heppner until a few days ago, when they went to Oscar Minor's pasture, near their homes, and stole three horses and a truck out for Grant county. Warrants were sworn out for their arrest. The boys have quite a start of the officers, and will probably make a long ride before being overhauled. A Bad Measure. A copy of a bill for an "act to prohibit the carrying in the waters of the Columbia river, has been received, and provides that for a period of six years it shall be unlawful to take, capture or kill any sturgeon in the waters of the Columbia, and also fixes punishment for violators of this provision. While the sturgeon should be protected, since they are a desirable food fish, and catching them has become a profitable industry, there is no call for such a law as this. It might be well to have a close season for six months, and prevent the taking of fish less than 18 inches in length, but the catching of them should not be entirely prevented. For Over Fifty Years. AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. WOODMEN INSTALLATION. Last night the Woodmen and their families assembled at Fraternal Hall to witness the installation ceremonies of Mt. Hood Camp, W. of W., and their auxiliary, Cedar Circle No. 8, Women of Woodcraft. After a piano solo by Mrs. E. J. Collins, Consul Commander Jas. Snipes installed the following officers: Con. Com., C. T. Rawson; advisor, C. F. Stephens; banker, C. L. Phillips; clerk, W. D. Harper; escort, S. D. Garner; secretary, D. W. Mann; watchman R. G. Wilson. The officers of Cedar Circle were then installed by Mrs. Anna Blakely: Guardian, Mrs. Ollie F. Stephens; advisor, Mrs. Inez Fillion; clerk, Miss Etta Wrean, banker, Mrs. Ella Dawson; magician, Mrs. Belle Berger; attendant, Miss Emma Williams. I. S. Miss Lena Jackson; O. S. Mrs. James Taylor; captain of guards, Miss Rachel Morgan; manager, Miss Viola Rorden. A vocal duet by Madam Jayne and Groat, select reading, Mrs. Inez Fillion, and an instrumental duet, piano and mandolin by Lela and Lota Kelsey, completed the program, after which refreshments were served and a pleasant evening spent. Invited to Heppner. The Dalles Minstrel club have received an invitation from G. W. Phelps to put their show on in Heppner, and Mr. Phelps takes occasion to mention that the minstrels need not come to Heppner unless they can give something first class, as the Elks have taken the matter in hand, and they never foster anything except. It is the best. The friends at Heppner need have no fears in this regard, for the Dalles Minstrels will put on the best show Heppner has ever seen. There will be 20 people in the troupe, and every one of them will be an artist— a whole show within himself. It is expected the show will be put on here on the 30th or 31st, then the boys will be ready to entertain their friends at Heppner as they were never entertained before, for it will be a show that would merit patronage in the biggest city in America. Heppner has a reputation that no one will care to have his admission fee returned after having seen the entertainment.

The New City Charter. A draft of the new charter for Dalles City, prepared by the commission appointed by the council, is now at the office of the recorder for inspection. All who are interested may examine the charter and if they have any suggestions to make are requested to do so before the copy is forwarded to the legislators. The changes made in the draft for the new charter are only slight. The principal changes are those giving the county greater powers concerning the construction and repairs of sewers, side and crosswalks; authorizing the bond to put aside and loan $1000 a year at a sinking fund to meet the bonded indebtedness of the city amounting to $57,000; authorizing the water commission to regulate the duties and fix the salary of the superintendent of water works; making the recorder the clerk of the water commission by changing the boundaries of the corporation so that the western line of the "Methodist mission" shall be the western boundary of the city. Extra Pay for Captain Lewis. Commissioner Hermann, of the general land office, has just returned to the president, through the secretary of the interior, a report upon a bill which recently passed congress, granting to Captain J. W. Lewis, former register of the United States land office at The Dalles a payment of $521 for extra service rendered by him during the vacancy in the office of recorder occasioned by the death of Col. Thomas S. Laug. As technically correct, the existing law refuses compensation to the register for the amount of fees which he otherwise would have been entitled to receive had the recorder lived, and this bill is to compensate him for that which he would otherwise have received. The commissioner of the general land office recommends the approval of the bill. Started in Early. A Pendleton dispatch to the Oregonian gives the following account of an escapee of three young bunch grass boys that may get them into serious trouble. It says: John Morgan, son of the mayor of Heppner; Jud Hart, son J. C. Hart, and a lad named Greenwell are being pursued by officers from Heppner. Warrants having been issued for their arrest. The boys are each about 14 years old, and all resided with their parents in Heppner until a few days ago, when they went to Oscar Minor's pasture, near their homes, and stole three horses and a truck out for Grant county. Warrants were sworn out for their arrest. The boys have quite a start of the officers, and will probably make a long ride before being overhauled. A Bad Measure. A copy of a bill for an "act to prohibit the carrying in the waters of the Columbia river, has been received, and provides that for a period of six years it shall be unlawful to take, capture or kill any sturgeon in the waters of the Columbia, and also fixes punishment for violators of this provision. While the sturgeon should be protected, since they are a desirable food fish, and catching them has become a profitable industry, there is no call for such a law as this. It might be well to have a close season for six months, and prevent the taking of fish less than 18 inches in length, but the catching of them should not be entirely prevented. For Over Fifty Years. THE DAY FOR STOCK-TAKING. Comes on apace and we discover odd lots of goods that require the Pruning Knife. We are loath to give them their just desert for these things must perish, if not by the aid of the Knife, then by the dust of summer, so we give the Knife the preference.

Ladies' Wool Shirt Waists. This has been one of our choice lines but the sizes are small. We have one number at 10c that is a crack-jack for value, also one at 22c. There are only a few of these. We have a bamboo bank and for bedding one wool blanket and one rubber blanket. We are quartered in very good barracks now, but it is very hard to tell how long we will be here, as they change the regiment every few weeks. We now have four kinds of uniforms, the blue, a brown, which is the fatigue uniform, a white uniform and a khaki. We have church services here every Sunday. They are conducted by the chaplain, and he has organized a Y. M. C. A. here, that is well attended. I suppose you are having cold weather and a little sleighing by this time. I only wish we could have some of your cold weather down here for it is very warm. We do not know how long we will be here, but hope we will leave before the hot season comes again. We have had but one death, two discharged for disability, and we have about a dozen in the hospital.
