

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

From Saturday's Daily. Mrs. G. C. Blackley went to Portland yesterday afternoon. A. J. Douglas, proprietor of the Dufur Dispatch, is in the city. Judge Frank Fulton, is in the city from his home in Sherman county. A carload of farm wagons are at the Wasco Warehouse for C. W. Elkins of Prineville.

S. Wilson, of Hillsboro, is in the city visiting his son W. W. Wilson, manager of the Baldwin restaurant. S. P. Briggs and children formerly of this city, who live at Arlington at present spent yesterday in the Dalles visiting old friends.

Mays & Crowe are busily engaged today in moving their stock into their splendid new store which is rapidly nearing completion.

Rev. J. M. Morrison, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Moro, has resigned. Dr. Morrison had charge of Presbyterian work in Sherman county.

Harry Mahour of 8 mile is in the city today. He informs us that he has finished his spring work and is at present resting after his arduous labors on the farm.

A party of Elks consisting of Al Bestigen, P. H. DeHuff, H. W. Erench and James Fall, went to Portland yesterday afternoon to attend the reception given last night to Ward and James by the Portland Elks.

An error was made in stating that Saturday night's soiree at the Baldwin would be the last given by Smith Bros, this season. Such is not the case and the soiree will be held every Saturday for some time to come.

Frank Smith a prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic living at Biglow in Sherman county was stricken with paralysis Wednesday night and died in a few hours. He was a prominent and respected citizen.

From two to four freight teams are being daily at the Wasco Warehouse for patina in the interior. In a short time the wool clip will begin to roll in and freighters will make greater profits as they will have loads to and from the interior.

A surveying party from Portland who are going into the interior to make a government survey, arrived in the city last evening. The party consists of O. H. and Howard Bellingher, Homer Frick and Samuel Lockard, all of Portland.

Yesterday D. Fulton, of Biggs, brother of Judge Fulton, arrived from the East with a newly wedded bride. Mrs. Fulton was formerly Miss Bussy a niece of James D. Gibson, formerly county commissioner of this county. Mr. Fulton's many friends extend hearty congratulations.

The Metropolitan opera Co., which will appear at the Baldwin Tuesday evening, certainly merits the title of the big society event of the season. The acoustic properties of the Baldwin are unexcelled, and as they have their own scenery the performance can be put on to the best possible advantage.

We learn from Mr. Sigman who recently returned from Portland where he had been selling some work horses that the latter place is a poor market. It was with difficulty that he disposed of what he brought down and they did command a satisfactory price although they were splendid young animals.

A Washington dispatch to the Oregonian, dated March 9, says no action has been taken looking to the appointment of a postmaster at The Dalles since congress adjourned, though the appointment will probably be made during recess. In this event, the dispatch says, H. H. Riddell will probably be re-appointed.

Velarde Brothers demonstrated their ability as house movers beyond doubt yesterday by starting in yesterday morning and moving the workshop of Seufers & Condon from its former location opposite George Lelich's residence to the vacant lot next to Yauze's paint shop and having the building in its new location early yesterday evening.

A bold burglary occurred in this city sometime last night. The burglars entered through the side door of F. S. Gunnings blacksmith shop and stole tools to the amount of about $35, consisting of saws, files and other tools of value. As yet no clue to the perpetrators of the crime has been found. There were a number of traps in the city yesterday who left sometime during the night, and as they were suspicious looking characters it is thought more likely that they are the ones who did the stealing. Marshal Lauer telephoned to police along the road this morning and it is likely they will be discovered and brought to justice.

J. J. Luckey of Hood River is in the city. He is one of the enterprising fruit men of that section and has no complaint to make concerning the prospects for this year's fruit crop. He informs us that the Hood River people are beginning to find out the value of that section for raising apples and is of the opinion that in a few years, many who are giving almost their undivided attention to the cultivation of strawberries will change their berry patches into apple orchards in which they will raise only prime fruits and in this way reap greater profits than they do at present.

Louise Adams and wife, of Spokane Washington are in the city for the night. Mrs. Adams is in the city for the night. Mrs. Adams is in the city for the night.

office. Bids will be received from noon until 8 p. m. Monday where at which hours the commission meet.

Today a petition was filed with the county court asking for the removal of three children, Grace, Kaito and Emma Waud, to the Boys and Girls aid society. The first named two are six and three years of age while the other is a mere infant. It is alleged that their father, Edward Waud, has failed to take proper care of the children and that he is not fit person to have charge of the children. They will be taken care of by the sheriff until Monday when the case will be looked into more fully and they will in all probability be committed to the home. Their mother died a few weeks since.

W. D. Roberts of Antelope, is in the city. John Malone left today for his home at Antelope. Robert Mays Jr. left for his home at Antelope today.

E. C. Fitzpatrick is in the city from his home at Tygh. F. W. Magan and Thomas Balfour are in the city from Lytle.

W. Wing and wife of Goldendale, are guests at the Umattilla House. J. C. Herts returned last evening from a visit to friends at Salem.

Mrs. Willison, the gentle hostess at the Grant's Hotel accompanied by her little daughter, is in the city. The Herman, the representative of the Oregon Short line left for the east on the Spokane train last evening. J. H. Corlock, W. R. Manning and M. P. Page, who are employed in the United States Geological Survey are in the city.

A. F. Rogers, the popular representative of Blake McCall & Co. of Portland is in the city in the interest of his house today. Dr. Gelsendorfer received a dispatch from Albany announcing the serious illness of his sister, and he will leave for Albany on tonight's train. The doctor will be absent from the city a few days.

The funeral of Mrs. V. Rose was held from the Catholic church this morning and was largely attended by friends of the deceased. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. A. Bronsgeest. Secure seats at Blackley and Houghton's for the Metropolitan Dramatic Company's great production "La Mascotte." Seldom does such an able company appear in The Dalles and no lover of fine opera should overlook this chance of seeing them.

Noble's superb military band turned out at noon today and delighted our townspeople with their splendid music although their band consists of but ten pieces they play splendidly as does their orchestra which can be heard at the opera house tonight.

Last Week Mr. Wm. Edmiston, an old gentleman living near Blockhouse in Kllickit county, was severely kicked by a young horse he was leading to water. He was kicked in the chest and for some time was unconscious from the blow. He is coming out all right however.

Photographs of the Metropolitan Opera Co., which opens at the Baldwin tomorrow evening are exhibited at Blackley & Houghton's. These photographs would indicate that the company is composed of highly cultured people, and the press notices they have received bear out this supposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley of Hood River made a pleasant call at the Mountaineer office today. They are of the opinion that Hood River will be an exceptionally lively little town this year. The remainder of the March chisners for the spring is expected at almost any time, as the mill to the mill site is about completed so that it can be unloaded and put in place with little difficulty.

Saturday Robert Mays junior arrived in the city from the Antelope county with a band of 324 head of stock cattle which he sold to Cox & Pyle of Nebraska. Most of them were cattle which Mr. Mays bought last fall and wintered with the expectation of selling at a good profit this spring and although we do not know exactly what he received for them he appears perfectly satisfied with the deal.

It is strange that the farmers of Eastern Oregon cannot raise enough chickens to supply the home market, and thus make it unnecessary to ship them all the way from Kansas to The Dalles. Saturday, James Carnaby and Sinnott & Fish received a shipment of chickens which were fine and seen, weighing dressed over three pounds each which would sell for about 80c per dozen. With such varieties of fowl at 15 cents per pound farmers could make a handsome profit right here in Oregon and make it unnecessary for the consumers to send to Kansas for their chickens.

We learn from reliable sources that a party of civil engineers are now at work in the Satas canyon surveying a route for a new line of road from Yakima to Goldendale, and thence on to the Columbia river and Portland. There are five or six men in the party.

OUR BEARDED LADY. Designing men, through alluring and cunningly worded advertisements, constantly endeavor to work upon the feelings of sick and ailing women by inviting them to write to a woman (I) and secure a woman's sympathy. It is well to remember that the best sympathy is had at home and not from strangers, perhaps hundreds of miles distant. The object of the sick is to get well and however precious sympathy may be, it never yet cured a seriously ailing woman. While the sympathy of your milliner or dressmaker might be appreciated, and as just as beneficial, if not more so, than sympathy from a stranger, yet it can not effect your cure if you are an ailing woman.

It is loudly proclaimed through the press that a woman's ailments are not a woman's ailments, but are a woman's ailments. The sort of "understanding of her ailments" that is sought by a woman is not a woman's ailments, but are a woman's ailments. If a woman has this trained medical knowledge she understands woman's ailments not as a woman, but as a physician. If she is not a doctor she cannot get the best of a trained doctor, and cannot treat them successfully, because she lacks the necessary training.

As far as we know there is no regularly qualified woman physician connected with any of the medical institutions in this city. It is certain that there is no one, man or woman, connected with any of the medical institutions in this city. It is certain that there is no one, man or woman, connected with any of the medical institutions in this city.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies consist of several different formulas prepared, each for its own purpose. Mrs. L. C. Bramley, of St. Paul, Minn., writes: "For years I suffered from extreme nervousness and annoying constipation, developing into palpitation and weakness of the heart. I was unable to sleep, suffered much from headache, pain in my left side, palpitation and a constant feeling of weakness and prostration. I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies and after a few days I felt much improved, and the pains and aches and weariness left me. I then took Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies and am now restored to my former good health."

Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle free, if you are not satisfied, your money is refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nervous system, sent free on request.

A MODEL STORE. One of the institutions that show the greatness of The Dalles. Mays & Crowe are moving into their new building on the corner of Second and Federal streets, and will soon have their immense stock well displayed in the new quarters. The building is 100x100 feet square, two stories high, both floors of which are used by the firm, that gives them 2000 square feet of floor space besides the balconies which extend around the second floor a convenient distance from the ceiling, and a basement 40x100 feet. The store is a model of neatness and convenience, and is pronounced by all as one of the handsomest buildings on the coast.

The first floor is divided into two compartments that are connected by sliding doors both at the front and rear, and at the rear is the office which is raised some two feet above the main floor and is enclosed in glass and supplied with modern furniture. The west half of the first floor will be occupied with the retail department in shelf hardware, bicycles, stoves, guns, tinware, etc. while the east half will be used as a sample room for the wholesale department. It is reached by a stair way in the rear and also by an elevator operated by a water motor.

On the first floor the furnishings are most elegant. The ceiling is of pressed steel in appropriate figures, and the shavings are finished in oak. Around either side is a balcony, about seven feet from the ceiling, that reach the upper shelves. The building has a glass front and is constructed of pressed brick on the north and east sides, and is well lighted by a solid glass front on the lower floor, while the upper floor is lighted with commodious windows. During the night the building will be lighted by nine incandescent arc lights of 2000 candle power. It is supplied with steam heat through the city mains, and the architect has not overlooked anything in its construction.

The firm of Mays & Crowe is one of the best known in Eastern Oregon and does not only retail, but an extensive wholesale business in hardware, stoves, agricultural supplies and agricultural implements.

Some idea of the extent of their business can be gained from the fact that they have just received four car loads of farm wagons at one shipment and their other orders are in like proportion.

Discovered by a Woman. Another great discovery has been made and the credit is due to a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent, for three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, she has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lewis, of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Blackley & Houghton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Henry O'Flaherty Dead. In General Oda's last weekly report appears the name of Henry O. O'Flaherty, a private in Co. L, Second Oregon Volunteers, who during the week died of sickness in Manila.

He was about 22 years of age and left The Dalles with the 21st of last April. He was born in Clark county, Washington, and was a son of J. O. O'Flaherty, who lives at Barbertown, Washington.

He was a favorite with the boys in the company and much regret is expressed at his untimely death, as well as sorrow for his bereaved relatives.

A LONG AND FAITHFUL SERVICE. Mr. Adams Has Served Nine Years as Director. Probably there is no one individual in The Dalles who has done more for the public school and the cause of education than S. B. Adams, who now closes his nine years of continuous service in the capacity of school director. It was largely through his efforts that the Academy Park property, the handsome school grounds in Oregon, and the public school building, which may well be considered the pride of The Dalles.

He has indeed been a faithful public servant, and many will regret to know that he has determined to no longer serve the district as director, though it would be an imposition upon Mr. Adams to expect him to do so.

The funeral of Roderick McNeil was held from St. Peter's church this morning at 9 o'clock. The services, which were largely attended by friends of the deceased, were conducted by Rev. A. Bronsgeest who preached an appropriate sermon, commenting at length on the life of the departed. Many sorrowing friends followed the remains to the Catholic cemetery where they were laid away with the respect that was due to such a man as the deceased had proven himself during his lifetime. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family who were bereft of a good father by the unfortunate accident of Sunday morning.

Adams for the people to ask him to serve the long as an official which no salary is attached, for he has certainly devoted enough of his time and talent to them, and at this time he can retire with the full knowledge that what he has done for the cause of education is fully appreciated, and that he has created a monument to his memory in the building up of our excellent school system that will last forever.

In future times, when those who are now children become men and women they will look back over their school days and kindly remember Mr. Adams and the part he took in giving them an opportunity to secure an education, for as stated above, it is largely through his efforts that The Dalles public schools rank among the best in the state. But to ask him to devote more of his time to them, that he has approached an age when all men desire rest, would be asking too much, and all we can do is to hope that his successor will be fully as competent and energetic as Mr. Adams has been.

Glenn News. Comes from Dr. H. D. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Twelve bottles of Electric Bitters cured her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent. This shows that thousands have proved that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils, and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blackley & Houghton druggists. Guaranteed."

Made the Most of It. Yesterday afternoon some fifteen Dallesites were returning from Portland on the Spokane Flyer, and on reaching the Cascade Flyer, at 3:30 p. m., they were surprised to find information that there was a slide on the road about five miles above, that would probably delay the train for an hour. This announcement caused no exuberance, but since they were only to wait an hour, they took the delay patiently, and the train arrived near Mosier, while Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Sinnott, Mrs. Thornbury, Mrs. Hudson, Miss Martin, Judge Bradshaw, J. P. McInerney and the editor of this paper formed themselves into a mutual admiration society, and undertook to amuse themselves as best they could. An hour passed, and it was learned about a locomotive was off the track at the slide and a delay of some hours might result. This announcement caused the aforesaid admiration society to be merged into a consolation party, and while the rails poured out their grief, the party enjoyed a night. William T. Hight stated that he had seen Mr. McNeil at about eight minutes to four yesterday morning, while Bert Thurston was under the impression that he met him yesterday at about 11 o'clock. It appears that he intended going to Mosier on the 5 o'clock train, and was going toward the Umattilla House when Tiltot saw him, and it is likely that he walked out on the bridge to pass the time until the train arrived and in some manner lost his balance and fell to his death.

The deceased was a member of the Catholic Knights and carried $2,000 in life insurance in that order. The following is the verdict of the coroner's jury: We the jury summoned by W. H. Butts coroner of Wasco county, Oregon to enquire into the death of the body and body after careful examination of the body of the deceased and after hearing the testimony of the witnesses produced before us and after due and careful consideration and deliberation find as follows: That the name of the deceased was Roderick McNeil whose age was about 50 years, and that his residence was in The Dalles, Oregon and that he came to his death on the 13th day of March, 1899 in The Dalles, Oregon, by accidentally falling off the railroad bridge immediately west of Main street about 11 o'clock a. m. of said day. Dated at Dalles City, Oregon on the 13th day of March 1920.

Made the Most of It. Yesterday afternoon some fifteen Dallesites were returning from Portland on the Spokane Flyer, and on reaching the Cascade Flyer, at 3:30 p. m., they were surprised to find information that there was a slide on the road about five miles above, that would probably delay the train for an hour. This announcement caused no exuberance, but since they were only to wait an hour, they took the delay patiently, and the train arrived near Mosier, while Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Sinnott, Mrs. Thornbury, Mrs. Hudson, Miss Martin, Judge Bradshaw, J. P. McInerney and the editor of this paper formed themselves into a mutual admiration society, and undertook to amuse themselves as best they could. An hour passed, and it was learned about a locomotive was off the track at the slide and a delay of some hours might result. This announcement caused the aforesaid admiration society to be merged into a consolation party, and while the rails poured out their grief, the party enjoyed a night. William T. Hight stated that he had seen Mr. McNeil at about eight minutes to four yesterday morning, while Bert Thurston was under the impression that he met him yesterday at about 11 o'clock. It appears that he intended going to Mosier on the 5 o'clock train, and was going toward the Umattilla House when Tiltot saw him, and it is likely that he walked out on the bridge to pass the time until the train arrived and in some manner lost his balance and fell to his death.

The deceased was a member of the Catholic Knights and carried $2,000 in life insurance in that order. The following is
