

ITEMS IN BRIEF

From Thursday's Daily. Peter Limroth, of Dufur, is in the city today.

Will Wurzwiler, the Prineville merchant, is registered at the Umattilla house.

Thos. Kay, of the Kay woolen mills of Salem, is among the wool buyers who arrived last night.

James L. Cowan, Indian agent at Warm Springs agency, is a guest at the Umattilla house today.

Misses Joie Jenkins and Maud Gilbert returned from Portland on the overland train last night.

Walter Van Dura, an old Dalles boy who at present resides in Sumpter in the city visiting old friends.

Miss Daisy Alleyway left on the Regulator this morning for Portland where she will visit for a short time.

G. W. Miller and family left for Ocean Park this morning where they will spend the summer months.

Grant Mays was among those who returned last evening after having celebrated the 4th in Portland.

Mr. James Kelly a genial and prosperous farmer from the Kigley neighborhood is in the city today.

Mrs. Wilson's gallery, Second street opposite W. A. Johnson's. Photo-graphy $1 to $5 per dozen.

Harry Liebe returned last evening from Portland where he has been celebrating the 4th and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cornini returned last evening from Portland, where they have been visiting the past week.

Mrs. N. Harris and family left on the Regulator this morning for Ilwaco where they will spend the summer months.

Fred W. Schmidt and Bert W. Holter returned from Portland last evening where they have been celebrating the Fourth.

Recorder Ned Gate and Attorney Fred W. Wilson left on the boat this morning for Collias landing where they will spend the day.

Officers of the Degree of Honor and Workmen will be installed jointly this evening. The members of each lodge all allowed to invite one guest.

Prof. J. S. Landers left this morning for a trip to California. Before returning he will attend the National Educational meeting in Los Angeles.

Max Vogt is making extensive improvement in the drug store building. He will put in a plate glass front, and the store will be divided with a partition so as to make the sale room and way room separate.

Miss Ida McKibbin who for the past week has been the guest of Mrs. E. M. Wilson, left on the boat this morning for Portland from which place she will return to her home in Pennsylvania. She was accompanied as far as the Cascades by Mrs. Wilson.

Since taking control of The Dalles-Prineville stage line Mr. Cornett has made improvements that are appreciated by the traveling public. He has put on 20 new horses and established three more stations so that the run time has been reduced below the schedule. He is now giving the best service that has ever been on the line.

The O. R. & N. contemplates a considerable improvement of the track between this place and Umattilla during the next few months. It is their intention to put three steam shovels to work on the road leading gravel which will balance the track at various points so that the heavy grain traffic begins in the fall it will be in excellent shape.

William Robinson, who is in the city from Eight-Mile, purchasing harvesting implements informs us that the hot weather and east winds of the past week is ripening the grain so rapidly that a shower of rain within the next few days will do the crop in his neighborhood will be short. The same is true of the greater part of Sherman county as well as the Boyd and Nansen section and the only place that does not show the bad effects of the east winds is the Tugh Ridge country, the garden spot of Wasco county.

William Fredeen returned home last night from a weeks visit to Portland and Salem. While in the latter place he met J. C. Hertz formerly of this city. Mr. Hertz is making arrangements to go into business in that town in the near future. Mr. Fredeen is very favorably impressed with Salem, but cannot see why any man should prefer Salem to The Dalles.

Shortly after the train arrived yesterday on which Sheriff Kelly brought Billy Winton, who was accused of larceny of about $500, the defendant had a hearing and his bonds set at $1,000. A good and sufficient bond was given by three prominent business men and Winton was released from custody. He was represented by Hon. A. S. Bennett Justice Bayard's court this morning and waived execution and was bound over to appear before the next grand jury. There are grave doubts as to Winton's guilt, and it is not likely from all indications that a true bill will be found against him. When he was arrested he had but $27 in cash on his person.

Mr. M. Rand has purchased the California Restaurant from the Clarendon and will in future conduct the same under the name of the New California Check Restaurant. Mr. Rand is a restaurateur of 15 years experience and will certainly give his guests as good treatment as they would receive any place in the city.

In speaking of the fireworks on July 4th the reporters overlooked the grandest pyrotechnic display of the evening, that which was set off almost in front of the Times-Mountaineer office at midnight. Neither the editor, foreman, or next composers knew any thing about the same; they concluded that it must have been the work of the "devil."

Sheriff Kelly who returned from Baker city yesterday informs us that, that town had a celebration on a large scale on July 4th. A dancing platform was erected which covered an entire square and people of Baker began to trip the light fantastic at 10 a. m. on the 4th and continued until 3 a. m. on July 5. An enormous crowd from all over the county celebrated at Baker.

The wool markets evidently have not yet recovered from the Fourth of July celebration, as no clips have changed hands since that day. Most of the wool buyers have not yet returned from Portland where they have been to celebrate the national holiday and this accounts in a measure for the market being so dull. It is expected that it will open up tomorrow with renewed vigor when the prices will be at all probability range from eight to thirteen cents, and possibly as high as thirteen and one half cents.

Yesterday afternoon while Tom Kelly was seated in his accustomed place in the Umattilla House, in a dreamy condition, watching the rise of smoke rolling up from his havana, he was suddenly aroused from his lethargy by the patter of little feet, and his amazement can well be imagined when he saw a half grown jack rabbit strutting around the bar-room, seeking a hiding place. He concealed himself behind one of the open doors, where it was captured and placed in a cage. It proved to be a genuine jack rabbit and where it sprung from is the question. It is likely that some one brought the little animal in from the country and it escaped, or it may have taken a leap across one of the Mill Creek bridges and entered the brook, that being the first open door it struck in its wanderings. Tom is quite proud of his catch and will present the same to Tom Kelly jr.

From Friday's Daily. C. T. Bonney, of Hood River, was in the city last night.

The price of wool still holds firm at from 12 to 14 cents.

C. J. Stubling and C. F. Michelbach went to Goldendale today.

S. B. Driver is from Wainio, and says crop prospects are fine in that section.

Messrs E. Hannafin, Geo. D. Clemens, Roy Yinton and A. R. Wilcox, of Grass Valley, are in the city.

Court The Dalles, No. 12, F. of A., will have installation of officers tonight. Members requested to attend.

Frank Irvine, the Astoria merchant, left this morning for home. Mr. Irvine had been to Portland on a business trip.

The National Editorial Association closes its session in Portland today. From Portland the editors go to Astoria tomorrow, and next week will visit Southern Oregon.

Yesterday afternoon Frank Angie, billing clerk at the O. R. & N. warehouse, received a dispatch stating that his father was dangerously ill at Gray's Harbor, and Mr. Angie left on No. 1 for that place.

Last evening Sam Wilkinson and Miss Annie G. Francisco were married and left on the train for Heppner. Mr. Wilkinson and his wife will return to The Dalles to reside after having visited a short time in Heppner.

The recent hot weather has scorched grain slightly on the farms near the Columbia, but the damage is not yet of any consequence. The crops back from the river are not injured and bid fair to yield an immense harvest.

Jonathan Colby, Clay, city operator at the depot, has turned over a new ball, the result of a "round robin" presented by his associates, and hereafter there will be no swearing when people ask if the train is on time.

Rev. and Mrs. Rusling returned by yesterday's boat from Turner, where they have been attending the state Christian convention. Mr. Rusling will hold services in the Christian church both morning and evening next Sunday.

Wool buyers have evidently not fully recovered from their Fourth of

SOME SENSIBLE VIEWS.

Programmer and Fair Advertiser Dismissed by the N. E. A. (The Dalles) program, single in advertising or greater in proportion to the program of advertising and in proportion to the National Editorial Association is giving them a good airing. Half of these takes are purely blackmailing schemes. In taking the advertiser is forced into taking space on them "just to help somebody or some other fellow."

Already Dallesites are beginning to seek for cooler climes, and the favorite resorts or the beach and in the Cascade mountains will soon be populated with representatives of this city. A few have already gone, among whom are J. W. French and family who left this morning for Long Beach.

Attorney W. H. Holmes Wednesday served upon District Attorney Hayden a notice of appeal in the Magers murder case. Judge Burnett signed a certificate of probable cause for the appeal, and execution will be stayed.

Magers was sentenced to be hanged at Dallas July 21, for the murder of Ray Sink a young Shearman county man. An unusually large amount of money has been paid out since the last term of the county court as bonuses on wild animals. At least seven hundred coyote, wildcat and cougar scalps has been brought in which amounts to over fifteen hundred dollars. At this rate it is hard to see how the posts could hold out for a great while.

Mrs. Robert Kelly who spent the 4th in Baker City in company with her husband, informs us that she was surprised and delighted with the grand celebration that was held in that enterprising place. The fireworks alone were said to have cost at least $1200, and when the same were being set off, the heavens appeared to be a solid sheet of flame of all the colors of the rainbow and a sight so beautiful as not soon to be forgotten. Her entire stay in Baker City she says was a continual round of pleasure and she hoped to some day spend another Fourth with these enterprising and sociable people.

T. A. Rhea, a prominent stock dealer, of Morrow county, says the wheat crop of that section will be light this year, unless rain comes soon to help it along. A good many fields along Willow Creek bottom are even now beyond redemption, as the wheat is heading out at a height of a few inches. Grass, however, is good, and stock of all kinds is in fine order. A good many sheep and cattle have been bought up by Eastern men in Morrow county this year, Mr. Rhea says, but still "there are world's of sheep for sale." Yuccas have been pretty well cleaned up, but ewes and lambs are being offered at reasonable prices. The ranges of Eastern Oregon, however, have been badly overworked with sheep for several years, and yet today Morrow county is grazing more sheep than at any time since sheep raising was begun there. Cattle, however, are getting scarce.

Joint Installation. Last evening Temple Lodge, A. O. U. W., and Fern Lodge, D. of H., held joint installation of officers in their hall over Harris' store. Deputy Grand Master, C. F. Stephens installed the officers of Temple Lodge, who were as follows: P. M. W., Fred Lemke; M. W., I. W. Bassett; Geo. F. Rose; O. Geo. Jones; Recr. C. F. Stephens; Fin., C. W. Myers; Recr. J. F. Haworth; G. C. J. Crandall; I. W. Chas. Jones.

Mrs. C. J. Crandall, representing the grand child of honor, installed the following officers in Fern Lodge: P. C. of H., Mrs. McArthur; C. of H., Mrs. Sterling; L. of H., Mrs. De Wolf; C. of C., Mrs. Kretz; Recr., Mrs. Stephens; Fin., Mrs. D. B. Baker; Secy., Miss Longmire; U. W., Miss Hattipapp; I. W., Miss Jacobson; O. W., Mrs. Laurentson.

After the installation ice cream and cake were served by the ladies of the Degree and a very enjoyable time was had.

The Water Commission. Last evening the new water commission met and perfected organization by the election of T. J. Seufert, president, and J. B. Crossen superintendent. There was present Commissioner Fish, Bachelor, Moore, Phirman, Bachelor and Seufert.

Ex-Commissioner Dufur, who had been appointed to secure a right of way for ditches leading across the Mesplie place to the supply reservoir, appeared and presented deed for the same.

On motion of Phirman the superintendent was authorized and instructed to employ a man at $1.50 a day to look after the city's property at the head of Mill Creek. There being no further business the commission adjourned to the regular meeting the last of the month.

No Right to Optimize. The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Are You Using Soap? If you contemplate a trip east this summer take advantage of the $81.00 round trip rate from The Dalles to Detroit, Mich. tickets sold June 29th only, and good for return until August 31st. This will undoubtedly be the lowest round trip rate to the east this season.

This rate is made for the annual convention of Christian Endeavor Society at Detroit July 15th to 18th. Call on James Ireland, Agent O. R. & N. Co. for further particulars. 328-28

SCRIBES IN SESSION.

Fourteenth Annual Session of National Editorial Association. The National Editorial Association opened its annual session at the Marquette Hotel in Portland Wednesday morning. At the opening session Col. L. G. Hawkins presided, and on the stage were seated the governor, mayor, editor of the Oregonian, president of the Oregon Press Association, and officers of the National Association.

The session the first day was devoted to considering papers that had been prepared on advertising agencies, publishers union and other matters of importance to the association. The first day of the session was indeed well spent, all the delegates taking a keen interest in its deliberations.

Prof. J. S. Landers, superintendent.

A Jolly Picnic. Up with the lark on the glorious 4th, with flags flying and hearts rejoicing, in accordance with a pre-arranged plan, a jolly crowd of picnickers took to the hills. Now, take forty people placed in a circle, with their feet filled baskets and hearts content each vying with the other to make a pleasant day, and you have the party that spent the 4th at "Fishers Retreat" on Five Mile.

The spot is an ideal picnic ground with beautiful grove, splendid view of the city and the surrounding hills. Truly this spot was intended by Dame nature to gladden the hearts of poor city toilers.

The way the lunch disappeared was a revelation and, what with music recitations and dancing could musical heart with music. But all things have an end, especially the good things and after giving three rousing cheers for our genial host and hostess, we returned once more to the windy city, hoping that there may be many happy returns of the day. X. Y. Z.

A New Recorder. On calling at the city recorder's office gathering news the reporter found Lyndon Garrison occupying the office chair. He informed him that Ned Gates had gone to Stevenson, but as to whether he would permanently locate there or not, he could not tell. Lyndon says any one contemplating matrimony should avail themselves of this golden opportunity, for in the absence of Ned he will tie the knot at reduced rates.

SPANKED THE WRONG PERSON. A Chicago woman's funny attempt to suppress Cockfighting. The Bridgeman family have a good joke on master, reports the Chicago Times-Herald. She had promised ten-year-old Dick a spanking if he brought Tim Rogers and his game chickens into the basement again.

One night when she went down to see that everything was secure she found unmistakable signs of battle. The seven-year-old Dick had been unusually quiet and well behaved at dinner and had gone to bed early. So she went upstairs with stern determination in her soul, for the bill of maternal justice grinds surely in the Bridgeman family.

Straight to Dick's room she went, and if her heart softened at sight of the quiet figure in the bed and the dark head outlined against the pillow it did not stay her hand. She turned down the bedclothes and vigorously applied the slipper. Instantly a roar came forth in the bass of her grown-up son. "Thunder and blazes, mother, what the deuce is the matter?"

There was an explosive snicker from under the bed, but Mother Bridgeman was too used up to trace the snicker to its lair. And Dick didn't get a promised spanking.

The Washington's Mirror. A family at Warrenton, Va., see themselves daily in a large mirror before which George Washington used to regularly make his toilet. They have had it some 25 years, having acquired it at a sale of the personal effects of Laurence Washington, a great nephew of the great Washington.—N. Y. Times.
