SATURDAY.....JULY 15, 1899

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Hon. F. N. Jones is here watching the wool market.

Charles Butler, the Port Townsend cattle buyer, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Sargent left today for Seaside. They expect to stay there three or four week.

E. E. Allen, a prominent wool grower, of Mitchell, is in the city having arrived here at noon.

Messrs. Fitzgerald and Fraties, of Mitchell, yesterday sold their wool realizing about 13½ cents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jayne left by boat this morning for Wind river to spend a few weeks camping.

This morning the American market was supplied with watermelons, the first of the season. They were brought from California.

The sale of real estate for taxes on the '97 roll was conducted by Sheriff Kelley yesterday. The county was the principal buyer.

Spokane is to have a new telephone exchange. A complete underground system is being planned, to be constructed at an expense of $20o,000.

Last evening a photograph pin was found in the room where the Catholic ladies gave their social. It has been left at this office for the owner to claim.

Rev. Mr. Hool, of Tacoma, left today on the boat, and will return occasionally to hold services in the Lutheran church until a pastor for the charge here is secured.

The gross receipts of the ice cream social givan by the Catholic ladies yesterday were $72.65. The ladies are grateful to those who so liberally patronized their social.

C. M. and H. J. Lister, of Prineville, sold about 100,000 pounds of wool yesterday afternoon. They got 14½ cents for their this years' wool and 13½ for last years' clip.

Hon. T. J. Stites, formerly editor of the Albany Democrat, but recently postmaster of Albany, is in the city. Mr. Stites reports times good and business flourishing in Linn county.

Eugene Spalding, of Almato, was in the city yesterday visiting the family of C. J. Crandall. His father, Henry Spalding, was the first male white child born in the territory of Oregon.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Adams died yesterday afternoon, and the funeral was conducted at 10 o'clock this morning from the family residence, by the Rev. J. H. Wood.

Judge Mays returned yesterday from the Tygh Ridge country, and says from the ridge this way the grain is suffering considerably because of the hot weather. Some fields he says are badly damaged.

The sixth annual session of the Spokane industrial exposition begins on October 3d and continues to the 17th. It will be the best session ever yet held, and will make mining exhibits a special feature.

Hon. A. G. King, county clerk of Malheur county, was a passenger on the boat for Portland this morning. Mr. King is on old Dalles boy, but has been away from here for 13 years, hence found only a few acquaintances during his short visit to the city.

Since Jack Hardwick has closed his pawn shop, R. B. Hood has concluded to connect a pawn-brokerage business with his furnituae line. Mr. Hood has applied for license as a pawn broker, and when the license arrives will hang out the sign of the three balls.

John Bolt, one of the oldest and best known pioneers of Southern Oregon, died at his home on Applegate at 5 p. m. Saturday, after a year's illness, aged 65. Mr. Bolt was a native of Glarus, Switzerland, and came to the coast in 1847, and to Josephine county, Oregon, in 1954.

Word comes from Elberton that W. R. Gragg, who attempted suicide after a futile effort to kill his wife and Mrs. Carroll, of Spokane, is growing weaker and little hope of his recovery is entertained. Mrs. Carroll has recovered sufficiently to permit of her being moved, and was taken to Spokane Thursday.

A. M. Ruddick, an old man, was found dead in his cabin, on Spencer creek, by Gene Spencer, last Wednesday. Heart disease is supposed to be the cause of his death. Mr. Ruddick lived alone near Buck lake for several years, having 80 acres of land and about 100 head of sheep. The coroner took charge of the remains.

Messrs. Glavey and Sigmond returned yesterday from Willamette valley where they have been selling horses. They disposed of 27 head, most of them at fair prices. Mr. Glavey brought back with him a very fine jack, Young Morgan, an animal brought from Missouri to this state, and which is as well bred as any in the United States.

The financial statement of the First National bank, published in another column, shows that institution to have enjoyed a marked increase in its business since the publication of its last statement, on April 5. Then its total resources was $260,685.49, while now it is $413,668.91. Its deposits in April were $162,638.34, and now they are $311,626.96.

A great many people will go from here to Portland to welcome the returning soldiers, but there will be many who cannot do so, hence an opportunity should be given them to welcome the Wasco county boys at The Dalles. Let somebody take the matter of welcoming the boys in hand, and get up a rousing demonstration.

A considerable amount of grain between here and Dufur is being cut for hay. The past few days of hot weather caused it to ripen too rapidly, hence it would have yielded a very poor quality of grain, but will make first rate hay. Beyond Dufur the crops are not materially injured, and the prospects are yet good for a fair yield.

From Thursday's Daily.

T. A. Rhea, of Heppner, is in the city.

J. S. McMeen, of Crook county, is in the city.

Alf Allen and F. H. Powell are in from Prineville.

Last night Ketchum & Son shipped a carload of sheep to Seattle.

Mrs. J. A. Douthit and children returned today from a month's visit in Crook county.

Mrs. D. M. French and daughter Bessie and Miss Irene Adams left today for Seaside.

T. F. Wood and T. A. Van Norden went to Sprague today to arrange a camp for the summer.

L. O. Hawn and family have gone to Sprague, where Mr. Hawn will erect a summer camp for them.

Miss Elizabeth Bonn was a passenger on the boat for Portland this morning. She will visit in the city for two weeks.

The transports Ohio and Newport with the Oregon regiment reached the docks in San Francisco at 5:06 last evening.

Miss Rose Michell, of the Chronicle, returned last evening from a trip over the state with the National Editorial Association.

Mrs. W. C. Allaway and family and Mrs. Frank Clarke and family started for a summer outing today. They will camp opposite Cascade Locks.

Sherman county wheat farmers report their grain standing the hot spell excellently. The only damage thus far is in the north end of the county.

The Dalles will soon have a colony at each of the different summer resorts on the Columbia. The hot weather is driving Dallesites to a cooler clime.

Hon. J. B. Catron, warden of the penitentiary at Walla Walla, accompanied by Mrs. Catron and Miss Thomas, spent yesterday in the city visiting Mrs. Catron's uncle, Emile Schanno.

John Baldwin, who has been visiting in the city the past few days, went to Portland today but will return to The Dalles in a few days to reside here during the summer for the benefit of his health.

The late hot spell has injured and in some places about ruined late sown wheat in Umatilla county. Dr. Campbell informs the East Oregonian that all the late wheat sown in the Cold Spring section is utterly ruined.

In the case of the Hood River Lumbering Co. vs Wasco county, decision in which was handed down by the supreme court last Tuesday, Huntington & Wilson were attorneys for the appellants and W. H. Wilson and A. A. Jayne for the county.

This has been a pretty active day in the wool market. Both buyers and sellers have been mingling together freely, and sales amounting to about half a million pounds have resulted. The highest price paid was 14½ cents. Woolbuyers appear anxious to clear up what wool is here and get away, hence after this week the market will likely be a little dull.

The big log drive down Klickitat river to Roe & Co's. mill was completed yesterday, and now the company has 1,000,000 feet of logs in the boom. This is the first successful drive ever made on the river, and encourages the company to try it another year.

The visiting editors left Portland yesterday morning for Seattle and Tacoma. From there they go to Victoria and will return home over the Canadian Pacific. They expressed themselves as highly pleased with Oregon and its resources, and the account they will give of what they saw in this state will be such that many emigrants will be attracted hither.

Dispatches announce that both the officers and men of the Oregon regiment want to be mustered out in San Francisco instead of coming to Vancouver by boat. They have been so long confined on the transports that they are anxious to get ashore. An effort is being made by Governor Geer to get them to come to Portland first, and a decision will probably be reached tonight. If they determine to be mustered out at San Francisco they will come by rail to Portland, and a reception will be given them there, but the steamboat excursion to Astoria will have to be abandoned.

The contract for building Sherman county's new court house at Moro has been awarded to a Mr. Peterson, the contract price being $8,000. The building is to be constructed of brick, two stories high, the first floor to be occupied by clerk's and sheriff's offices, jail and county court room, while on the second floor will be the circuit court room, treasurer's and superintendent's office and two jury rooms. The building is to be 55x65 feet.

From Friday's Daily.

Second haad wheels, $10 to $15 at Faulkner's. j13-6d

Saturday spscial at Pease & Mays, 2½ cent lawns.

Judd S. Fish returned last evening from a trip to Portland.

Senator Hilton left this afternoon for Portland where he will visit his family.

Dry granulated sugar, best grade $5.50 per 100 lb. sack, at Maier & Bentons'. j13-1w.

Those organdy Adalisques at Pease & Mays, 6½ cents per yard are just right.

Weinhard's beer on draught at only one house in the city, the Columbia Hotel.

If you want to enjoy a pleasant ride rent a wheel of Fletcher Faulkner. j13-6d.

Don't think that Pease & Mays have only one special line for sale Saturday. They have a dozen.

Hammocks! Hammocks! The largest line and the best values at Jacobsen Book & Music Co. jy11tf

Mrs. Wilson's gallery, Second street opposite W. A. Johnston's. Photographs $1 to $5 per dozen. j6lw

Court The Dalles, No. 12, F. of A., will have installation of officers tonight. Members requested to attend.

All the latest and most popular magazines and periodicals can now be had a Jacobsen Book & Music Co. jy11

Roy Ballard, one of The Dalles boys belonging to Co. L, will not return with the remainder of the company, he having been left at Manila on the hospital ship Relief.

A carload of cattle purchased in Klickitat county by Roe Grimes is in the stockyard today and will be shipped to the Union Meat Co. this evening.

The wool market continues lively there being numerous sales reported at prices ranging from 12 to 15 cents. This is as much if not more than the producers figured on and the wool crop for this year will in all probability change hands rapidly.

Patrick Conroy, an enterprising and well known sheep man, of Grade, Crook county, is in the city en route to Portland where he goes to take a course of treatment for a serious attack of rheumatism from which he is suffering.

Mrs. F. Mensing and daughter, Jessie, of Tacoma, are guests of Mrs. August Buchler of this city. It has been eight years since Mrs. Mensing was in The Dalles and she notices marked changes in the city she being a former resident.

About 60 head of large draft horses belonging to A. Mason, the O. R. & N. railroad contractor, were brought in from pasture today and are in the stockyards awaiting shipment up the road, where they will be used in making improvements on the track.

The ferry boat has been busy this morning carrying sheep across from the Washington side for shipment east. About 4600, belonging to Mr. Vells, were transported over and will be shipped tonight to Colorado by Mr. Nelson who has purchased them. The sheep have spent the season in the summer range near Mt. Adams, and are in good condition.

Major C. U. Gantenbein refused a tempting offer at the hands of General Otis prior to his departure with the regiment. He was tendered a seat as supreme judge of the Philippines, to be one of a body of seven, constituting the highest judicial tribunal in that archipelago. The offer contemplated his mustering out of the military service, and assuming the duties as civilian. Major Gantenbein declined to accept.

Last evening Will Crossen returned from the St. Martin springs where he and Charles Twinam, the popular steward on the steamer Regulator, were rusticating for a few days. Will had several very startling adventures while away and it is remarkable that he is not troubled with heart failure as a result of the same. Such is not the case, however, and as we have a timidity about telling of his troubles we suggest that enquiring friends consult with him at the postoffice as he has resumed duties there.

The wire for the telephone line from Antelope to Prineville has arrived in the city and will be sent out as soon as possible and strung so that it will be but a short time until the latter town will be able to say "hello" to Oregon volunteers now in Frisco. The poles for this line are set as far as Hay creek and as the work is being pushed as rapidly as possible, the line will be completed by, if not before, August 1st. The company are using No. 8 aluminum wire and as this is the first time it has been used in this section of the country it is practically an experiment. It is better to talk over than copper and the only fear is that it may not stand the hard winds in this country as well as the latter.

Dr. D. A. Paine, superintendent of the Oregon insane asylum, reports 1160 patients in the the institution at present. An annex is being built, which will tend to relieve the crowded condition of the wards to the extent of 80 but still there will be very little room to spare, as the builders of the original edifice had no such number of inmates in view. Wards which were intended to accommodate 30 patients are now sheltering 40, but still the precentage of cures, Dr. Paine thinks, averages well with those of any other state in the Union. The climate and surroundings of Salem, he feels assured, are conducive to the well being of the unfortunates. The fall and winter population of the asylum will reach to about 1250, as a good many of the mildly insane ones are permitted to visit their friends during the summer.

A good buggy horse for sale. Inquire of Ed. Kramer, East End, or at this office. j17 tf

Welcome News.

On receiving news that the Oregon regiment had reached San Francisco, Dr. Sanders, this morning sent a telegram to his son Earl congragulating him on his safe arrival on American soil, to which he received the following answer at 3:40:

"Am well and hearty. All Dalles boys in good health. E. SANDERS."

And They Ate Ice Cream.

Last night was a tropical one for lodge members to be shut up in a close hall, so when the routine business was over, the members of Dalles Tent, No. 20, K. T. M., repaired to Keller's, where they filled themselves with ice cream at the expense of the lodge. Theodore Prinz acted as toastmaster, and kept the Knights of Maccabee from getting weary while they disposed of the refreshing and cooling substance. So pleasantly was the hour after lodge spent that the members have about concluded to repeat the experience every lodge night during the heated spell, unless a sufficient number of economical members shall appear at lodge to vote down the somewhat expensive pastime.

THE TAX SALE.

Why Collections of Taxes Due the County are Necessary.

Taxes like all other legtimate debts must be collected in order to keep the county from going into bankruptcy, and the county court of Wasco county seems to have opened its eyes to this fact, for at each term of court it dockets an order to affix a warrant to a delinquent tax roll, commanding the sheriff to collect by levy and public sale taxes that have become delinquent. The sheriff is sworn to do his duty, and the present sheriff, although using all legitimate means and leniency within his power to collect without adding costs to the property owner, yet he is determined to abide by the law. All property on which the taxes remain delinquent will be sold out closer this year and the books more nearly balanced than they have ever been since the county was established.

Property will be sold subject to redemption at any time during two years and the price bid must cover taxes and accruing costs. If not redeemed at any time within two years, the purchaser will be entitled to a deed from the sheriff. If redeemed at any time within one yeor 20 per cent will be added to the price paid, and after one year and at any time within the second year, 10 per cent more will be added. It therefore behoves all delinquents, who porsibly can, to pay their taxes prior to sale.

Sheriff Kelly has, by his strict attention to the duties of his office, collected more taxes and put the county on a better footing financially than it has been for years. He has been sheriff only a little more than a year yet he holds the county treasurer's receipts for $100,737.02 for taxes collected and turned into the treasury during his term. This amount ought to enable Wasco county's treasurer to call in a good many of the outstanding warrants that are at present drawing 8 per cent interest, and if the rule he has adopted is followed by future sheriffs there is a possibility that the county may at some future time be put on a cash basis.

ANOTHER BAD WRECK.

An O. R. & N. Freights Runs Into Some Derailed Cars Near Viento.

Another wreck occurred on the O. R. & N. line late yesterday evening near the town of Viento. Little could be learned concerning how the same happened more than that some cars got off the track when another train, the engine of which was at the time on a side track switching, got loose and ran into the derailed cars badly smashing five cars and injuring brakeman Robert Chambers. At first it was reported that he was fatally injured but later reports stated that his injuries were not as serious as at first reported and that he would recover. Chambers is an old Dalles boy and his friends here are pleased to learn that his injuries are not as serious as at first stated.

The wrecking train was taken from this city to the scene of the wreck and the track was cleared at about 2:30 so that the east bound overland arrived in The Dalles at about 4 o'clock this morning. The wreck seemed to have been unavoidable and no blame is attached to any one for the same.

Arrested for Larceny.

A young colored man went into M. T. Nolan's store last evening in company with a drunken whiteman and purchased some canned salmon.

While Mrs. Nolan was getting the salmon he put a can of beef under his coat and left the store. Mr. Nolan noticed that he had taken the beef and upon inquiring as to whether or not he had purchased the same was informed by Mrs. Nolan that he had not. Mr. Nolan followed the fellow and had him placed in the city jail.

He had his hearing this morning, H. H. Riddell appearing in behalf of the state while Recorder Gates acted as attorney for the defendant and J. P. The lad plead guilty and was given his choice to pay a fine of $25.00 or spend 30 days in the county jail. He was short of funds and was forced to spend a month under Jailor Fitzgerald's hospitable roof. It appears that the lad was not sober when he committed the theft while his companion was very drunk. He afterwards stated that his name was John Simpkins, and that he had been working for some time at John's mill. His companion, he stated, had all his money, and as he left without ceremony last evening, the colored gentleman is is in a rather bad predicament.

Rioting Strikers.

BRIDGETON, N. J., July 13.—The arrival of 15 nonunion glassblowers here today caused an outbreak. The strangers came from Indiana on a train over the New Jersey Central. They were met at the station by a large crowd of strikers, who immediately stormed the train and captured the nonunion men. A lively fracas ensued, during which many blows were exchanged. Manager King, of the Cumberland glass works, who was in charge of the party, was hit on the head with a brick and was badly injured. The car in which the nonunion men rode had the doors and windows shattered and a hack waiting at the station for mail was wrecked by the strikers in the belief that it was to take Manager King to the works.

The nonunion men were finally induced to accompany the strickers to the latter's headquarters, where an attempt is being made to force them to leave town.

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between C. F. Cathcart and J. D. Straus, under the firm name of Cathcart & Straus, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, C. F. Cathcart withdrawing. The business will hereafter be conducted by J. D. Straus, who will collect all bills and pay all debts of the firm.
