It will not be necessary to go to Portland to receive them for we can cheer their bearts when they come to The Dalles.

Eleven freight cars on the O. R. & N. line were thrown in the ditch below Alto at an early hour Wednesday morning. The freight train was south bound and when descending the steep grade of what is known as the "Alto hill" the engine got beyond the con-trol of the engineer and the train plunged down the grade piling the cars up in the ditch just below the curve at the end of the long grade.

Yesterday J. B. Manly, of Victor, had quite a serious mishap on Typh hill with a loaded team. When near the top of the hill this side of Tygh Valley, the wagon went off the grade, draging the horses with it, and together they rolled down the hill half a mile. The team was badly cut and the wagon totally demolished, but fortunately Mr. Manly jumped off the wagon just as it left the grade and escaped injury.

When this change takes place it will mean something besides the mere ac quisition of a number of railroad systems. It will mean that a great rail-"oad terminus will be built up on the Pacific coast just inside the mouth of the Columbia, which when slightly improved will be one of the best, if the best, harbor in the world. The terminus of this great system is at Warrenton, and one of the roads enumerated above has large property holdings there, which would indicate that the intention was to build up the great shipping city of the Northwest at that place. Therefore present indications are that Warrenton is destined to become an important shipping point, the Robbed the Grave A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia was follows: "I was in a most dreadfu condition. My skin was almost yellow eyes sunken; tongue coated, pain cor tinually in back and sides, no appe tite-gradually growing weaker da Three physicians had give me up. Fortunately, a friend advise ber of years, was found dead by the trying Electric Bitters; and to my side of a cubin on Joe Staddleman's great joy and surprise, the first bottle place at the old mission about 8:30 last made a decided improvement. I con tinued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know the at Blakelee & Houghton's drug store The sawmill belonging to Russel Smith & Co., at Cascade locks, was destroyed by fire Tuesday, together with a large amount of lumber that was in the yard. The loss will be about $10,000, on which there was no insurance. The fire originated from sparks from the furnace that supplied the motive power for the mill. The mill was discovered to be on fire about 1:30 and by 2 45 everything was i ashes. The books and papers of the company were saved, and E B has been appointed by Sheriff Kelly as deputy to guard them and other property belonging to the company.

OREGON SOLDIERS

Acuditted Themselves With Credit i Forty-two Engagements. "The Oregon men have much to feel justly proud about." said Major M. H. Ellis, the regimental surgecn, in speaking to a San Francisco reporter.

"The splendid fighting qualities of the regiment were shown at their fullest in the battle of Malabon on March 25 was then acting assurgeon of Wheat on's brigade, and had an opportunity of seeing how well the Oregonians acted under fire. The record shows that 53 men were killed or wounded, and the whole story of the fight is re plete with examples of personal bray ery and the highest degree of regimental efficiency.

"Here is a case in point: Private Boliam of the hospital corps, whose home is in Portland, went out on the firing line regardless of a storm of the enemy's bullets and walked about as unconcernedly as if he were 100 miles from the nearest Filipino. On the top near future the Union Pacific will of one of the trenenes he found a man raised the injured soldier to his knee and was arranging a bandage when will be merged into one. It also looks a second bullet struck the wounded probable that the U. P. will assume man in the heart and instantly killed him. Bollam saw that further work would be futile and was about to retire when he noticed a wounded soldier near him. This was Private Hedley. who had been shot through the chest. Bollam hastily dressed the injury, and, the nearest hospital. 'Hedley is alive today, and soley for the reason that Bollam proved himself the proper sort of a soldier.

Crook County's Big Mine. Dr. Oglesby accompanied by Prof. Powers and Mr. Cook, two well known mining experts, returned Saturday from a tour of inspection of the quartz mines recently located by Dr. Oglesby of rock from different places on the mine, and if the assays are satisfactory steps will be taken at once for the de velopment of the mine. This mine, if it proves to be what is claimed for it, will develope into the biggest mining proposition in the world. It is a large mountain of ore, convenient to water power, and the rock will not have to be mined out of ground, but simply tumbled down off the mountain into ore chutes. The assays average about $3 90 to the ton, free milling, and if that average can he kent up, it will prove a great mine. for the expenses of mining and min
