

MILES AND MERRITT SLATED They Will Take Charge of the War.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—A special to the Record from Washington says: Nelson A. Miles, general commanding the army, will go to the Philippines to direct the military operations during the approaching campaign.

After 48 hours of almost constant discussion among the president, secretary Root, Professor Schurman, Sen. Beveridge, General Miles and Adjutant-General Corbin, it may be stated positively that General Merritt will go to the Philippines.

No statement is made as to what position General Merritt is to assume, but it is probable the movement contemplates the division of Otis' present duties into two departments, Merritt to have charge of the military and Otis of the civil.

Admiral Kautz said in an interview that the Iowa would not leave this port, in his opinion, until the Philadelphia is made ready. He had not heard of any plan of the navy department to assign to the Pacific coast two squadrons as has been reported.
