HIGHWAYMAN AT PENDLETON.

PENDLETON, OR., Nov 1 .- A bol highwayman performed within the limits of the city of Pendleson at 7 o'clock last evening, robbing three men and a woman, and having three rigs rounded up in the street at one end of town, near the cemetery. A man named Cheney, of Cheney Bros. dairymen, was on his way home from delivering milk to evening customers when he was stopped at the west limits short, heavy-set man, who wore white handkerchief over the lower part of his face. Chency was accom panied by his son, and both were or lered to throw up their bands. The highwayman then went through their pockets, securing only $3 in cash.

Just then a teamster in the employ of G. W. Rugg drove along, coming into town. The robber stopped him and the man made a fight, attempting to wrest the pistol away from the highvayman. The latter struck the teamster a heavy blow on the forehead, cutting an ugly gash, and putting him hors de combat. He had only 25 cents

Next came William Bowman, with Mrs. Bowman and daughter. Mr. Bowman yielded up $17 and Mrs. Bowman her gold watch. The robber then with pistol held in the ladies' faces, vilely insulted them. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1 .- The North American says: One of the greatest financial combinations of the century is in process of formation. The organizers of the Continental Telegraph, Telephone & Cable Company, recently organized in New Jersey, have obtained control of all the independent telephone companies in the United States and aim to combine these with the great telegraph companies and the five Atlantic cable companies. The office of the new concern is in the American Surety Company's building,

New York city. From various sources information reached the North American that the capitalists interested in the venture include J. P. Mergan, George J. Gould, John Jacob Astor, William C. Whitney, P. A. B. Widener and William L. Elkins. Verification of the story was obtained tonight from Mr. Widener at his home in Ogontz. He which, he says, will bring about a sweeping reduction in the cost of the over the country. Among other things

"The plan has been under consider ation for some time. Mr. Martin Maloy, who was the active agent in the enterprise, and may be said to have engineered it, has been in New York for about a year. His efforts culminseveral big financiers in New York

way with it." NEW YORK, Oct. 31 .- A dispatch to

"I formally accuse Great Britain," said Dr. Leyds, "of arming the colored position was commenced by the enemy | races of South Africa against the Boers Their fire became very searching and I make this accusation with a due sense of its gravity and an absolute knowledge of its accuracy.'

Wholley Promoted to be Major. WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 .- John H. Wholley, who rendered excellent servolunteer infantry, has been appointed major of the Forty-first infantry and ordered to join that regiment for service in the Philippines.
