STATE AND GENERAL.

Collected from the Press, and Various other sources.

Chinese highbinders are getting impudent at Victoria.

A jelly factory has been started at Phoenix.

Ashland has a suburb known as New Iowa.

The Indian school at Forest Grove contains 186 children.

The ware houses at Colfax are running over with grain awaiting shipment.

The Ashland Packing Company intend to make bacon of some 600 or 700 head of hogs this winter.

A second crop of raspberries are ripening on Dave Key's place, Howell prairie, Marion county, Oregon.

The cutting of the large irrigating canal in Klamath county, across the Link river flat, will be commenced soon.

The Sheriff of Wasco county declines to receive potatoes, turnips, etc., in payment of taxes. He wants chuckamin hyack.

Twenty thousand men is the number estimated to be required in the work on the Canadian Pacific railway during the winter.

Geo. Stone, aged 53 years, convicted of an attempt to rape a child, is sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

The Utah, Idaho and Oregon Company's line of stages have been withdrawn, and the carrying of the mail turned over to the railroad companies.

A new flouring mill is to be put up by the government on the Moses Indian reservation, in Stephens county. It will be on Prairie creek, in the Okanogan valley.

The new telegraph cable has been laid across Burrard Inlet between Moodyville and Hastings from Hastings a wire will connect with the main line at Granville.

Chinamen are now being smuggled across from British Columbia in large numbers. There are several parties engaged in the business, and they carry it on successfully.

The schooner Fleetwing was seized by the customs officers at Victoria last Tuesday for smuggling grain into the province. The grain had been sold to a Chinaman, and will be seized also.

The Oregon Improvement Company is selling Seattle coal at Walla Walla at $9.80 a ton by the car load and $10.50 by the single ton. This is a reduction of $2.50 a ton over last year, and the coal furnished is said to be better at that.

Samuel Ralston, father-in-law of Frank James, is circulating a petition to Cleveland, for his appointment to the postmastership at Independence, Mo. He is regarded as qualified for the place, and would doubtless receive the hearty commendation of his fellow citizens, were he not Frank James' father-in-law.

The Pendleton manufacturing company, with J. M. Leczer as president, has been organized for the purpose of manufacturing threshers and other agricultural machinery.

The bank of British Columbia directors are having plans prepared in Portland for a fine bank building, to cost $50,000. It will be of similar architecture to that of the First National bank building in Portland.

The case of George W. Emerson, who shot Adolph R. Speckels when she latter attempted to take the life of M. H. De Young, has been dismissed on the ground of hearing extending over the statutory time of six days.

But ten miles of the Oregon Pacific railroad remain to be laid and two forces are laying track at the rate of from one to two miles per day. The first through train is expected to pass over the road by the 15th of the present month.

A pearl weighing ninety-three carats, the largest known, and valued at $17,000, which was purchased of an Indian diver for $90, was shipped to London. It was found at Minieji, on the coast of Lower California.

There is a strong feeling in Shoshone county favoring a division of the same. Murrayville, in the Cœur d'Alene mines, is now 20 miles from the division will without doubt be made by the legislature at its next session.

A branch road from Rathdrum to Cœur d'Alene is talked of in railroad circles. It will be built for the purpose of connecting at the latter place with steamers in order to tap the great timber belts of the Cœur d'Alene, St. Joe and St. Mary's rivers.

The California Sugar refinery have reduced the price of sugar one cent per pound. This makes the price the lowest ever quoted on this coast. The new rates for patent cube A are seven and three quarter cents. This is six cents a pound lower than the selling price of eighteen months ago.

San Francisco experienced a terrific wind storm on the 8th inst.—the most violent ever witnessed at that place. Passengers on ferry boats were seasick. Street signs were blown down, and windows blown in. Several vessels broke from their moorings and washed ashore, and many others were seriously damaged. The American ship Edward O'Brien got into such a dangerous position that the captain paid a steam tug $5000 to tow her into a safe anchorage. Two sections of the sea wall were smashed in, and the breakwater at the foot of Green street was completely washed away. It is impossible to estimate damages. No casualties are reported outside.

Reports from the interior show that a cold wind storm prevailed generally throughout the state. At Hantford, in the San Joaquin valley, there was a light fall of snow, and at Bakersfield, further south, three inches of snow fell. This is unprecedented in that section of the state.
