The Oregon Scout, Union, Oregon, December 12, 1881.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Christmas at hand. Frank Johnson is on the wood committee.

Some of the past few days, but the weather continues cold.

Remember to see and give Hall every week and send the holiday goods.

The sudden death of Mr. Benson’s last Tuesday evening was an enjoyable affair.

Mr. A. K. Eaton is still bringing dangerously ill, and not much improvement noticeable in his condition.

Remember the New Year’s Ball to be given by the Old Folks at Summerville on the evening of Jan. 1st.

It is a great pleasure to say that John Burns is improving and is now able to sit up in bed and talk with friends.

There will be a temporary merriment at the E. K. Church on Friday evening, December 21st, by the Christmas Temperance Union.

A Grand Christmas Ball will be given in the evening of Christmas by Mr. Wright Bros. in this city, with a good band, and the port on the Town restaurant $2.50.

We hear that fourteen carpenters and workmen employed on the new mill will have been discharged which leaves four men only.

When the mill will be resumed, and what the people in dismising the men we have no learned.

A news item states that "a wild man" recently captured in Christian Swamp, or Christian Shoals, was carried to Talbottville.

The Lincolnites.

Snow four inches deep, and snow-stormy.

Late Humboldt has bought a half interest in Post’s Sunday newsp.

There will be a grand ball at the school of St. Mary’s on Christmas night, tickets including supper $1.25.

The members of the Lincoln Cornet Band have received their instruments and they have been rendered as follows: Mr. W. Newton, cornet; S. E. Elrick, cornet, wood, whistle; W. J. Wood, cornet and whistle; Chas. Newsom, tenor; Geo. Stewart, baritone; Chas. H. Elrick, tenor; Geo. Stewart, baritone; Frank Shields, cornet, drums. Under the leadership, of course, with due respect to the Lincoln band.

A MURDER ACCIDENT.

Last Thanksgiving night while David Thomas and wife were attending church at this place, their house was totally destroyed by fire.

Four of their children, aged respectively, thirteen, eleven, four and seven years, were in the house.

The two eldest made their escape in the two lower rooms, the other two children were buried to death in the house when the house was level with the ground. The remains of the children were placed in a neat coffin, and buried in the Lincoln cemetery.

The funeral services were conducted by Elder Baker, Sunday, Dec. 7th.

PROTESTS.

Fog Roll.

Very few fine last month.

Unhappiness has been very many times here in the last few months.

Class, Miller is attending the Business College.

The baldness to this country in the year of our Lord 1609, 000,000,000, in this city, is far from being the worst seen in the Valley of the Salt River.

Mr. While, who was formerly employed by Thomas & Portier, is now working for Mr. DeWitt in the future.

The excitement over the election has subsided down, and everything goes on as usual.

Although every body has predicted a hard winter, it is now evident the thing is not going to be something that is going to be a source of trouble to all, after our troubles in the Valley of the Salt River.

They are ready.

Yesterday a committee of one was appointed by the Mayor to see to the business of the town.

The prominent citizens in West Union, who are in receipt of any money by practicing on their court at social occasions, and the better look out and something will happen.

We are now beginning to understand that we are not going to have a hard winter, as the same.

It is very difficult to give us any idea of what is going on.

No signal will be given, and the whole course of the night will be over.

No signal will be given, and the whole course of the night will be over.

Christmas good of every description at Mr. Aker’s.

Some splendid photographs of Union for sale.

One choice selection of holiday goods at Mr. Aker’s, post-office.

Call at the post-office and examine Mr. Hall’s holiday goods and write, immediately.

On account of the exigency of the times, and for the benefit of the reading public, we are hereby, for a few days, will stop.

C. Yost has just received a splendid box of toys, venison, nuts, currants, etc., which he will sell for the benefit of the work of the school.

Regardless of the kind of Cost.

For want of a suitable representation of our school, and not desiring to increase the cost of the school, we have decided to charge a little less than usual.

THEI'R BRO'S.
