Said the Lady: "Not many of the older members are aware that the Union C. of O. still continues to meet. This was prevented with the Jem, but the question was raised about the union's real interest, and brought about one of the most important meetings that the organization has held. The attendance was large, and the atmosphere of the conference was favorable to the spirit of union. It was decided to continue the meetings as long as the interest of the members was not impaired. The Union C. of O. has always been known for its devotion to union principles, and the members are determined to maintain the organization in its present form.

The meeting was held at the home of a member, who was home from the city. The atmosphere was very cheerful, and the members were in high spirits. The meeting was adjourned until further notice, and the members are determined to continue the organization in its present form.

The Union C. of O. is an organization that was formed many years ago, and has always been known for its devotion to union principles. It has always been devoted to the interests of the members, and the members are determined to maintain the organization in its present form.

The members are determined to continue the organization in its present form, and the meeting was adjourned until further notice. The atmosphere was very cheerful, and the members were in high spirits. The meeting was adjourned until further notice, and the members are determined to continue the organization in its present form.