A WORD TO VOTERS.

We have not felt called upon to take any part in the present political campaign, and have left the various candidates to work out their own salvation, but there is one man we should like to see elected on account of his past services to the county, his honesty and integrity, and his misfortune—that is E. C. Brainard, nominee on the democratic ticket for County Treasurer.

THE COMMUNE.

The disloyal and alien followers of the red flag in the cities of Chicago and Milwaukee have started out to capture the earth. They have raised the cry of treason against our government, whose laws they have not respect enough to obey, and whose institutions they have not sense enough to understand.

The Chinese indemnity bill is before congress. The opposition to the bill, which calls for only $147,000, is discreditable when we recall the fact that when thirty years ago in a Canton riot, the property of American residents was destroyed by a mob, a million of dollars was claimed from China for compensation.

SENATOR MITCHELL has introduced a resolution directing the secretary of the interior to suspend action for the present against innocent purchasers of lands from settlers, who have proved up, and who have final certificates, but to whom patents have not been issued.

Any one wishing one, can call on Mr. Marr or J. E. Yowell. There will be one of these machines here on exhibition during court week. Do not fail to see it work.
