

THE OREGON SCOUT.

JONES & CHANCEY, Publishers.

UNION, OREGON.

THE ANARCHISTS IN BAD SHAPE.

Evidence Piling Up Tending to Show the Diabolical Character of the Organization.

Chicago dispatch: Judge Gary's court was crowded this morning when the first witness, Lieut. Stanton, one of the officers wounded in Haymarket, was placed on the stand.

Officer John Wessler testified that he saw the bomb coming. It was on the ground four seconds before it exploded. He saw Fielden fire two shots from behind the wagon.

Officer Peter Foley said that the report of the explosion of the bomb had not died away when the crowd began to fire. He saw Webster fire at a man under the wagon.

Officer John Wessler testified that he saw the bomb coming. It was on the ground four seconds before it exploded. He saw Fielden fire two shots from behind the wagon.

Officer Peter Foley said that the report of the explosion of the bomb had not died away when the crowd began to fire. He saw Webster fire at a man under the wagon.

Officer John Wessler testified that he saw the bomb coming. It was on the ground four seconds before it exploded. He saw Fielden fire two shots from behind the wagon.

Officer Peter Foley said that the report of the explosion of the bomb had not died away when the crowd began to fire. He saw Webster fire at a man under the wagon.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS AND NOTES.

A Record of Proceedings in Both Branches of the U. S. Congress.

SENATE, July 15.—In the senate Pugh, from the committee on privileges and elections, presented a report in the election case of Senator Payne.

HOUSE, July 15.—Randall, of Pennsylvania, from the committee on appropriations, reported the joint resolution continuing in force until July 31st the provision of the joint resolution providing temporarily until to-day for the expenditures of the government.

HOUSE, July 16.—The house bill increasing the pension of John Ryan and the senate bill granting a pension to James Noyes were taken up and passed.

SENATE, July 17.—Senator Dawes, from the committee on Indian affairs, submitted a report on the message of the president vetoing the bill granting right of way through reservations in northern Montana.

HOUSE, July 17.—The house went into committee of the whole, Mr. Blount in the chair, on the fortifications appropriation bill. After extended remarks by Messrs. Butterworth and Reagan, the former offered an amendment increasing from $500,000 to $2,500,000 the appropriation for the armament of sea-coast defenses.

SENATE, July 19.—The senate took up the oleomargarine bill and Vance made a speech denouncing the measure as the most vicious of all the legislation ever attempted in the senate.

VENGEANCE OF THE LAW.

James Dacy Hanged for the Murder of Alderman Gaylor of Chicago.

Jim Dacy, the murderer of Alderman Gaylor of Chicago, who was hanged at Woodstock, Ill., on the 16th, made a desperate attempt at suicide the day previous.

He had a pair of large shears hidden in the mattress of his bed, and getting them attempted to stab himself. He was so violent that a hose had to be turned on him before he could be overpowered.

Dacy broke down late in the forenoon and manifested great contrition. He also asked for his brother, whom he hitherto regarded as his enemy.

HOUSE, July 21.—The senate, at noon proceeded to the consideration of the reports on the matter of the election of Senator Payne and was addressed by Pugh in advocacy of the position taken by himself, Salsbury, Vance and Eastie.

HOUSE, July 21.—Morrison's concurrent resolution providing for the adjournment of congress July 25 was passed by a vote of 145 to 36.

HOUSE, July 21.—The house went into committee of the whole on the senate amendment to the river and harbor bill. The amendment having been non-concurred in, the committee rose and the bill was sent to conference.

THE NEXT MEETING IN OMAHA.

The National Conference of Charities and Correctional Elect Officers for the Ensuing Year.

The 21st was the last day of the session of the national conference of charities and corrections, held in St. Paul.

A discussion as to the place for holding the next conference followed, and after a lively discussion Omaha was chosen.

Dr. Richardson, superintendent of the insane asylum at Athens, O., read a paper on "Functional Insanity."

In the afternoon the committee on organization reported the following officers and committees for the ensuing year and the report was adopted.

TOUCHED ON THE PROBOSCIS. An Old Feud Between Congressmen Results in a Pugilistic Encounter.

Washington special: The worthy duty of representing the people of Indiana and Laird of Nebraska on the floor of the house of representatives a couple of weeks ago in regard to some land entries made by the latter culminated in a sanguinary encounter near the south entrance to the floor of the house shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon.

SOMETHING ABOUT OUR SENATORS.

In the seventies there are but two senators, Payne being 75 and Morrill 76.

Out of a total of seventy-six senators thirty-four have been born in the states they represent.

Senator Morrill has been in congress thirty years, and is twenty years older than Edmunds.

Only fifty-three years of this world's life has McPherson seen, yet from his whitening locks, hollow cheeks and feeble gait he would quickly be taken to be eight or ten years older than Beck, who is eleven years his senior.

SENATOR BERRY'S RECREATION. Senator Berry's principal recreation is billiard playing. He has certainly had practice enough to make him an expert.

SENATOR HURST'S WEALTH. Senator Hurst has a fortune of $200,000. He is a widower and has three children.

SENATOR WALKER'S REPUTATION. Senator Walker is a man of great energy and ability. He has been in congress for many years.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE WOMEN.

Mrs. Senator Hurst gives $20,000 a year in private charities.

Mrs. Cyrus McCormick is a widow and worth $10,000,000. A prince at least.

Mrs. Garfield, widow of the late lamented president, is worth about $20,000 a year, but money makes not up for the deep and abiding sorrow of her life.

Mrs. E. R. Skidmore, of Washington, is credited with having made $1,000 out of her correspondence in connection with the president's wedding.

Mrs. Cleveland's book has beaten Queen Victoria's book in sales all to pieces, and the old lady is angry enough to discharge her lord chamberlain.

Mrs. Garfield, widow of the late lamented president, is worth about $20,000 a year, but money makes not up for the deep and abiding sorrow of her life.

Mrs. E. R. Skidmore, of Washington, is credited with having made $1,000 out of her correspondence in connection with the president's wedding.