NOT EXACTLY RIGHT.-A week or so ago, the Sentinel published that testimony given in the trial of the alleged murderers of Willis Skiff almost as it was given by the Scour at the that the men are " in a had box," etc. Can it be possible that all this is given at this late date under the impression that it is newspaper enterprise? or, is it done for the purpose of inflgencing public opinion against the accused parties? If the former, it can be regarded as pu-rility and silliness, but if the latter it will be condemned by ail. It is the wish of the people of the entire community that the prisoners have a fair and unprejudiced hearing and if them. found guilty, punished; and if not guilty, honorably acquitted. The newspapers of this section of the State. last week, contained various accounts of the affair, with Jark hints of other mysterious murders, and "more evidence," etc., all of which, we presume, is the outgrowth of the articles in the Bentinel. If there is any foundation for, or truth in these flying reports, we have been unable to find it.

AN INTELLIGENT CROW-Mr. Jerry Thompson, of this city, captured a young crow some time since and took it home for a pet. The bird seemed to take to its new quarters quite naturally, and has become so tame that it is allowed to go about the premises at will, and seems to have no disposition to leave. It possesses almost as much aptness as a parrot for imitating any sound that it hears and has learned to speak a number of words quite distinctly. It seems to have a considerable vein of humor in its make up, and when anything occurs that it considers at all ludicrous, it loughs immoderately. Jerry was building a stone cellar, yesterday, which was tedions work, and he says he may have used a little profamity, and as the bird was watching the work all day, he is fearful lest it should have equalit onto language not generally used in polite society, and is awaiting developments,

SALVATION ARMY .- This army has beseiged Portland and is carrying the war into the enemy's camp vigorously. Their war-like propensities are sometimes vented among themselves when their natural enemies, the sinners, are not in abandance. The News of the 2d inst. says that a disgraceful row occurred at their barracks on B street last night: Sergeant Robinson enungiated doctrine from the platform that did not meet with the views of the good sisters and they attempted to drag him off the platform. A general row ensued between the sergeat, captain and eadets, and in the melee the Sergeant as-Arms received a blow in the nose that produced claret. Word ed down.

KILLING IN BAKER CITY .- On Friday evening of List week, E. D. Cohen, an old resident of Baker City, was shot lawver. The shooting took place on Main street, about 8 o'clock in the evening. We have not been able to learn the exact cause of the shooting, but it was the result of a quarrel they had a short time previous. Israel gave himself up to the au horities, and C. M Thornton, who was with him, was arrested as an accomplice. The grand jury which was in session at the time. indicted both of them for murder in the first degree. Two motions were made to set aside the indictments but were overruled by the court, and the parties called upon to plead. They plead not guilty, and their trials were set for January 3, 1887, at special term | Lours and was unable to s cak of court.

To TAX-PAYERS .- Sheriff Hamilton or his deputy will meet the tax-payers of Union county, Oregon, at their usual place of voting in the different precincts, for the purpose of receiving their taxes for the year 1886, at the the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m.: Union Nov. 20, Big Creek 22, Bed Rock 23, Eagle 24, Lower Eagle 25, Pine Valley 26, Cornucopia 27. INDIAN WAR CLAIMS.—There is a large list of Indian war claims against the government yet unsettled, owned particularly in Southern Oregon, and steps are being taken by citizens of Jackson county to make a union of effort to secure a final settlement.

The postal service at Liverpool. Ringland, recently had an experience which, if often repeated, would prove the reverse of amusing. Some one whose ingenuity or economy was him on his sudden acquisition of Gent's Furnishing Goods, searching for new fields wrote a mesrage of twenty-rix words on the back of a two-cent postage stamp, which was duly posted and delivered. This success led to a second experiment and then to a third. But on the last occasion, a one-cent stamp was chosen and was accordingly hall as an insufficiently prepaid letter.
