The Oregon Scout.

UNION. OREGON, SAT. JAN. 15, 1887.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The SCOUT has a Much Larger Circulation than any Paper in this Section of the State, and is, therefore the BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

This is a True Statement, and we shall not allow it to be questioned by any other paper. Advertisers will do well to make a note of this.

THE "Salem Statesman" states that the legislature will be asked to appropriate $15,000 to build a wagon road through the Minto Pass into Eastern Oregon; a very proper thing to be done. It would be highly beneficial to the general interests of the people on both sides of the mountains. With proper management, Douglass county ought to have been in a position to-day to solicit State aid for a similar enterprise in the interest of a wagon road into Southern Eastern Oregon and Crater lake.

THE suggestion recently made by James E. Vinson, in the East Oregonian, that convict labor be utilized in the construction of a canal at the Dalles, is certainly worthy of the consideration of our Legislature. That is a great public work, that will benefit the whole state and Washington Territory, and would at once do away with all the cry about convict labor coming in competition with this or that industry. It would be healthy exercise for these fellows; they could easily be guarded and might be kept there in cheap temporary quarters and worked nine months in each year profitably, and for the other three months be housed in the penetentiary.

HERE is what the Corvallis Leader has to say about the board of immigration: "The State Immigration Board is a fraud, and should be abolished by the legislature. There is no particular sense in taxing people to pay for a clerk for real estate agents and railroad corporations. If immigrants want to come to Oregon, they can find the way now. The legitimate way to attract people is to treat those well who do come, build school houses and be white. MR. CARLISLE isn't needed to stand at the gate and show people where to go. Let MR. CARLISLE step down. He is the fifth wheel on the wagon. He is a superfluity. Let us strike him out, as the lawyers say, as 'surplusage.'"

THE legislature is now in session at the State capital. The fore part of the week was spent in organizing and testing the various ropes but at present work is fully under way. The following officers were elected by the Senate: President, E. C. Carson, of Multnomah; Chief Clerk, E. G. Hursh, of Douglass; Assistant Clerk, C. W. Watts, of Albany; Sergeant-at-Arms, Thomas C. Stephens, of Lafayette; Doorkeeper, J. H. McCormick, of Salem. The officers elected by the house are as follows: Speaker, G. F. Greig, of Marion; Chief Clerk, A. C. Jennings, of Lane; Assistant Clerk, J. P. Cole, of Clackamas; Sergeant-at-Arms, Henry Rogers, of Douglass; Doorkeeper, Thos. G. Young, of Multnomah. We shall endeavor to lay before our readers, each week, the most important measures that are introduced during the term.

INGERSOLL thus speaks of polygamy: "It is just as pure in Utah as it could have been in the promised land. Love and virtue are the same the world over, and justice the same in every State. All the languages in the world are not sufficient to express the filth of polygamy. It makes a man a beast, of woman a trembling slave. It destroys the fireside, makes virtue an outcast, takes from human speech its sweetest words and leaves the heart a den where crawl and hiss the slimy serpents of most loathsome lust. Civilization rests upon the family. The good family is the unit of good government. The virtues grow about the holy hearth of home—they cluster, bloom and shed their perfumes around the firesides where the one man loves the one woman. Love—husband—wife—mother — father —child — home —without these words the world is but a liar, and men and women merely beasts."

A TARIFF fight in one or both houses of congress seems imminent. Representative Anderson of Ohio said recently that the time had come when those surplus millions had to be stopped, in some way, from piling in the Treasury and that mutual concessions would have to to be made. For his part, he was ready to let every penny of duty be knocked off Ohio wool. "Would you really favor a reduction on an article in which your State is so largely interested?" was asked. "Yes," replied Mr. Anderson, "I will favor anything that will relieve the people at large of this halter about their necks. I know such sentiments will not make me more popular at home, but it is for the good of the country. It must come off sometime," continued he, "and if everybody looks out for every little interest in his particular locality nothing will ever be done." Mr. Anderson says he will vote for a bill to reduce the tariff thirty millions now, and more in the future.

THE Oregonian says it looks like it it would be a hard winter for the sidehill swamp land manipulators in Oregon. There is a storm brewing, and it is likely to be rough sailing and a high sea, with breakers ahead, for the holders of about fifteen millions of "swamp" land, on which you would have to bore an artesian well to find a tin cup of water. Mr. Shackleford, who was here for the department investigating the matter, has smelled out some transactions that are not very agreeable to the nostrils of decency and honesty, and the days of Hen Owens and such cattle are probably numbered in the land. Governor-elect Pennoyer also shows a disposition to put on the war-paint and dig up the tomahawk of uncompromising war against the breed of raræ aves in common parlance called "swamp angels," and which flourish with a peculiar exuberance in this climate. The people of Oregon will probably have to turn away and hold their noses when this nest is stirred up.

Dissolution of Co-Partnrrfhip.

The Co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name and style of "Tolman, Torrey & Co." is this day dissolved by mutual consent.
