The travel between this city and the Pine creek region will soon begin. A daily stage line should be put on without delay.
The sheet and pillow-case party given by the Union Social Club, at Davis' hall last Tuesday, was an enjoyable affair, and largely attended.

Brother Hayes is going to yank that $10,000.00 out of our contemporary, now shortly. We will bet he gets every cent of it with the exception of that first figure.
J. Q. Shirley, who returned a few days ago from California, brought with him a lot of bulls to be placed on the range. He also brought a splendid English draft stallion.
The following named persons were drawn to serve as grand jurors: Al. Dickson, L. Blanchard, A. J. Hughes, Thos. O. Bryant, E. H. Chngan, J. B. Emery, and J. S. Clark.

The confirmation of Henry Rinehart as register of the U. S. Land office at La Grande, which has hung fire for some time, was settled the fore part of the week. Mr. Rinehart received a telegram apprising him of his confirmation.
Heyman Swisher, of Eagle Valley, was taken to the penitentiary this week by the Baker county deputy sheriff. He was sentenced to serve a two year term, but it is thought he is deserving of executive clemency and will be pardoned.
Hereafter county clerks will be required on the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October of each year to publish in an issue of a weekly paper of the county, a complete statement of the county finances. This is a good law. The people have a right to know exactly how all public business is transacted.
There are no cases in court this term of any general importance, with the exception of the case of Union county vs the Pine Creek Road contractors. This matter will no doubt be fully ventilated. It is a matter of great importance to the entire community that this road should be completed with as little delay as possible.
A number of Wallowa people were summoned to serve as jurors at this term of court, and some as witnesses. It appearing that that section of the country is not a portion of Union county they were released from duty and sent home. The cases on the docket from that section were stricken off and will be placed on the Wallowa county docket, and tried at Joseph.
Several weeks ago about 300 sheep belonging to Wm. Ross, of Pilot Rock, Umatilla county, died suddenly without any apparent cause. They dropped dead one at a time while being driven along. A poisonous weed among the hay with which they were fed had been found to have been the cause of their death. This weed is often eaten by sheep and is fatal in every instance.
The Sentinel man says he has a "longing curiosity" to see what kind of a valentine we got. Will say for his benefit that we got two highly colored chromes, which we tacked up in our office for safe keeping. Their brilliant colors will no doubt accord with his esthetic taste, and he is invited to drop in and inspect them. We had an idea that we would receive a number of tender missives from our lady admirers, but we didn't. Probably they were afraid of Mrs. J.

The weather is moderating.
Overcoats, coats and overshirts at cost at Drake's.
Choice garden and flower seeds at Jones Bros.

Rev. Hayes' suit against the publishers of the Sentinel for libel, came up for trial on Thursday. The case was fully ventilated and given to the jury, which had not brought in a verdict when we went to press, yesterday evening. There must be quite a difference of opinion among them.
A little difficulty occurred at the Depot saloon last Sunday, wherein Paddy Smith was struck on the head with a revolver, by Charley Marsh, the bartender. Smith entered a complaint before Justice Thomson and had his assailant arrested. The trial was set for Monday, at which time Marsh pleaded guilty and was assessed at ten dollars.
It has been found out that the whole matter of division of this county rested on the matter of jack rabbit bounty. If the county court had paid a good bounty for scalps furnished by people on the other side of the mountains no division would have been asked.—Baker City Exchange. Which recalls to our mind the words of the bard: "Great God! on what a slender thread hangs everlasting things!"
Governor Pennoyer has made the following military appointments: A. B. Compton of Huntington, major-general of Oregon militia; J. M. Siglin of Empire City, brigadier-general, First brigade; J. C. Golden, health officer at Coos bay.
Smith & Ames, stockmen of Grande Ronde valley, Union county, Oregon, arrived from the east Friday, with two car-loads—forty head—of fine horses, which they are taking to San Francisco to sell. They were shipped over the Oregon Short Line to Pocatello, thence to Ogden, on the Union Pacific, and from there here. The total cost from Grande Ronde to San Francisco would not exceed $240 a car, a reasonable rate, considering the distance traversed, nearly 1600 miles, and in marked contrast to the rate charged by the Central Pacific—$90 a car from Reno to the bay. The animals stood the trip remarkably well, and will, no doubt, bring good prices from the lovers of fine horseflesh in the metropolis.—Reno Stockman.

The Substance of it.
The farcial nature of our laws is never more forcibly illustrated than in a libel suit. A man hears, for instance, that a certain newspaper has made some allusions that he conceives to be injurious to his reputation and character. He goes to a lawyer, who informs him that he has just grounds on which to base an action, and it is taken to the courts, and allowed there, presumably for the reason that the man has been wronged, and has a right to a fair and unprejudiced hearing. But no sooner does it come before His Honor, than the lawyer for the defense, who seemingly is exempt from the law governing his client, proceeds to inform the jury and the assembled populace that the prosecutor is positively a liar, thief, perjurer, criminal of the deepest dye, and a villain unfit for the society of his fellow men. The attorney, who is not amenable to the law, it seems, on account of being on the inside of its temple, sits down and the attorney for the prosecution gets up and states in rebuttal that the defendant in the case has shown of what material he is made, that he is without doubt a greater villain, liar, and perjurer than his opponent. So it goes on. The original remarks made by the journalist sink into insignificance in comparison with the allegations made by the attorney. In the language of the poet they "are as moonlight unto sunlight as water unto wine." Both parties to the suit come out branded as monsters in human shape. The attorney for the defense gets paid for slapping the branding iron on the prosecutor. The attorney for the prosecution gets paid for branding the defendant. The journalist, in all probability, gets cinched for the remarks made in his paper. And so the dignity of the law is maintained and justice flops along on her course. We would like to trade this shubang off for some law books.
New County Officers.
Through the kindness of Senator Rinehart we are in possession of the names of the gentlemen that have been recommended to the governor as suitable officers of Wallowa county, and they will no doubt be appointed at once. The governor requested Rinehart, as senator, to submit a list of names for appointment, but he declined to take the responsibility alone, and called to his assistance Representatives Taylor and McCully, and made the recommendations as follows, which appear to be fair and just, as half are democrats and half republicans: For county judge, Peter O'Sullivan; commissioners, J. A. Rumble and J. A. Masterson; clerk, D. B. Revis; sheriff, Robert Coslaw; school superintendent, L. J. Rouse; treasurer, E. J. Foresythe; surveyor, —; coroner, Dr. Dean.
The recommendations for officers of Malheur county were made by Representative Lockett, seven of them being democrats and one republican. They are as follows: For county judge, Dr. J. R. Froman; commissioners, John Lackey and C. T. Lacy; sheriff, A. C. Murray; clerk, —; Test; school superintendent, Thos. Elms; assessor, Wm. Ritchie; treasurer, L. A. Seavy. The surveyor and coroner to be appointed by the court.
Compulsory Education.
Emmett's bill for compulsory education of children, provides that every parent, guardian or other person having control of a child between the ages of 8 and 14 years shall be required to send such child to a public school for a period of at least twelve weeks in each school year, of which, at least, eight weeks shall be consecutive, unless such child shall be excused from attendance by the board of directors of the district in which such parents or guardians reside, upon its being shown to their satisfaction that the bodily or mental condition of such child has been such as to prevent attendance at school or application to study for the period required; or that such child is taught in a private school or at home in such branches as are usually taught in primary schools, or has already acquired the ordinary branches of learning taught in the public schools. For violation of this act a fine of from $25 to $50 is provided in the first instance and from $50 to $100 for a subsequent offense. This bill is now in the hands of the governor.
The Liquor Law.
The Watt liquor bill passed both houses of the legislature and now awaits the governor's signature to become a law. The bill provides the license shall be $500 per annum, and that no license shall be granted for a less period than six months, and requires the applicant for such license to file a bond in the sum of $1000; that the applicant present to the county court a petition signed by a majority of the whole number of legal voters in the precinct in which the applicant wishes to sell and the same be published in a newspaper for four weeks, that no license shall be granted to any person to sell any spirituous liquors within one mile of the outer limits of any school house; that the bill gives circuit court jurisdiction in all cases of violation of the act. The act does not refer to incorporated towns.
Cure for Piles.
Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching after getting warm, is a common attendant. Bleeding, and itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 60 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Company, Figua, O. Sold by J. T. Wright, Union, Oregon.

O man! O man! In form, how like a clothes pin, in attributes, how varied. Thou tottledst forth in the morning of life with a cloying cavity before thee and an aching void behind. Thou changedst from cloy to corns and the thunder of the world is about thee, and the aching void is before thee, and things are turned around! Thou marriedst a girl with bangs. She can cook thee naught to fill the aching void, but can claw ivory, and howl like a mule! Thou hiredst a girl and she roils thy vitals with unceasing things, and thy wife getteth jealous and threateneth to go home to her mother! O tempora! O man! O man! HOMO.

We can heartily recommend it to others similarly afflicted, as we believe it will do all that is claimed for it. M. L. WHITE.
