They placed an order for the necessary books, blanks etc. with Gco. D. Barnard & Co. of St. Louis, Mo. whose agent is here. The officials of the new county seem to be cetting down to work in good style, and are earnest in their endeavors to have everything move off right.

The Baker City people are making strennous efforts to induce the railroad company to locate the end of the division there. A meeting was held re-cently and a comittee was appointed to confer with the railroad authorities to be in good condition. The horse weighs about 10.20 hs, in good condition. in regard to the matter. They figure it out that the proper location for the end of the divisions are as follows: From Portland to The Dalles 100 miles, From Dalies to Unatilla 110 miles, From Untatilla to Baker 130 miles, From Baker to Caldwell 115 miles, etc. It looks plausible on paper and we may now look for a setto between Baker and La Grande.

From Horace Eaten, who was in town this week, we learn that the trees which had fallen across the road during the winter have been removed, but there are two slides which will have to be smoothed down before the road is practicable.
