GRANDE RONDE.

Grande Ronde, thou lovely vale, sweet valley of the west,
Girdled around on every side, by mountains smooth and crest.
Thy stand like white-robed sentinels to watch thy midnight dreams,
And cast their gleaming shadows upon thy crystal streams.
Could thy lot only speak, what tales they would unfold
Of treasures hidden in their depths, of silver and of gold!
As far below, in beauty, upon thy fertile plain
The waving bunch-grass, and the daisy Indian warrior trail
Long ere the white man came to furrow thy green soil,
Who, once, once reigned, is heard the sound of his war cry,
And herds of sheep and cattle graze upon thy grassy hills.
While on thy peaceful bosom, reared by sunny smiling winds
Are numerous built, and thriving cities stand.
The iron horse, undaunted, thy mountain barriers break
And, dashing over thy bosom, the sleepy farmers wake.
Now from East and West will come the hardy sons of toil
To claim from thee a pleasant home upon thy virgin soil.
And ask in faith of thee, what honest toil demands
To yield thy hidden treasures into their brave hands.

YOUTH AND AGE.

Oh glorious life! with double stage,
How sweet thy joys to me,
I've tasted youth and long for age
To set my spirit free.
In earlier days, when all was bright,
And songs of joy gushed from my heart,
When sorrow, at my will, took flight
And left my mind, at ease, apart.
I thought that life would still be gay—
That trouble never could pass my door,
To mar the joy of one fair day—
And that "would last forevermore."
But now, those days are past and gone,
And dream have been the changing years,
"Till now, no old, I'm growing wane,
And know the bitterness of tears.
The prime of life is but a line
Where ends our upward path,
Thence downward do our paths decline,
And when we, mountain, ask
"Hath our past life been free from care
And have we, dubious, filled our part?"
A "Yes" to this is very rare,
But "No" is heard the most.

Elgin Echoes.

We have had a glorious rain, and crops are looking fine. Everybody in good humor.

Mr. Stevenson's large barn is nearing completion.

Our hay crop is going to be first class. Wheat, oats, and other cereals look very promising.

A young man by the name of Shears came to town to see the doctor, and on his way home took a fit, fell off his horse, and broke his arm. He is, we learn, getting along quite well under the treatment of Dr. McNaughton.

Our new Justice of the Peace, J. H. Cowan, is having considerable work in his line of business. He seems to be the right man in the right place.

A freighter from Walla Walla got into trouble with the Wyatt Bros, recently and a law suit is pending.

A very enjoyable time was had at the dime sociable given at Mrs. D. Chandler's, last Friday evening. The next is to be at Mrs. Stevensons' in two weeks. The proceeds are to go toward furnishing our places of worship.

Mr. J. E. Norris, the artist, has painted several new signs for our business men. He has also lettered the boxes in the post office.

ENJOY LIFE.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up, disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

SUMMERVILLE.

A Spicy Letter From Our Regular Correspondent.

Cold as blazes.

L. Baer, of San Francisco, visited our town on Saturday.

There will be a skating carnival at William E. Rinehart's Hall on July 4th. J. O. Smith, of the Cove, visited Summerville on Sunday, returning on Monday.

A fight over a peck yoke on Sunday caused an increase in the funds of the treasury on Monday.

F. B. Collins was at Elgin on Saturday looking after the property belonging to the R. A. Nance estate.

Mrs. Dr. W. E. Rinehart has gone to Portland to meet her husband who has located there permanently.

The new house of Uncle Henry Meyers is almost completed and presents a very neat and tasteful appearance.

W. F. Martin and Wm. Fine have bought a car load of horses in the Walla Walla valley which they will ship to Denver.

B. D. Hubers and S. L. McKenzie started to Portland on Sunday to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. which convenes the present week.

Lincoln Austin, son of our county surveyor, has been engaged by Wm. E. Rinehart & Bro. to canvass this and Walla Walla counties in the interest of hardware and agricultural stores.

A telephone line from J. H. Rinehart & Son's mill to the bank in Summerville will be put up at once. It is to be hoped that the citizens of this place and Island City will take the initiative steps toward extending the same between these two points.

It is rumored that E. S. Crane is somewhere in the wilds of Patagonia. It is well for him that he is out of the way of some of the citizens of our town as his bones would be left to bleach upon the prairies if all accounts are to be believed.

A cordial invitation is extended to Union and North Powder base ball clubs through the columns of the SCOUT to attend our celebration the coming 4th and match against each other for the purse of $30, offered in the program, published elsewhere in the SCOUT.

Here is $7.50, take that for the fine, its blood I'm after.—H. P. And blood you got.—Dick. I have fully recovered from toothache.—A. J. P. D—m that Crane.—many creditor We will fix Gossely.—A. J. P. We will that, Jack.—E. B. M. Got my life insured.—C. R. P. There ain't anything the matter with that mare.—H. W. They say that the mare I got from Waldeck balks.—J. M. S. I never go back on a horse trade.—H. W. They say the boys put up a job upon Waldeck but I don't believe it.—CRANE.

North Powder Nuggets.

June 15, 1887.

The road supervisor is stirring up the delinquents.

Frank Clark is preparing to ship a car load of horses East.

D. W. C. Nelson has made quite an improvement in his drug store.

W. J. Groves is making some improvements in his business, this week.

We noticed Uncle Dave Johnson, of Union, on our streets, one day this week.

Bill Dixon says that cayuse is a bad one that wipes the ground with him, don't it.

George Dorman says he don't like to trade horses with a child, even if he does get $2.50 to rub back.

James Knapp left the country, last week, with another man's wife, but she left her two little girls with William, this time.

C. T. Irwin, the shoemaker, left last Sunday to visit his father, near Cheney, W. T. Wm. Harris now, takes care of the people's soles.

Byron Vandace says the next time young ladies come to visit his bachelor hall, he would like to be at home and help them to arrange the furniture.

We refrain from commenting on "The Other Side" of the question as it appeared in the SCOUT last week, and will wait and see what disinterested reviewers will say about it, after court.

YANK.

If you want a fine pair of shoes or boots, call on Mr. C. Vincent, who has just received a large assortment of latest styles from the east. He will not be undersold for cash. Try him.

Cornucopia.

Work in the Mines—Preparations for a Celebration on the Fourth—Personal Mention.

JIM'S CONSPIRACY.

June 12, 1887.

D. F. Moore visited the camp today. Travel has slackened with the rainy weather.

James Hendershott and Eugene Foster, of the Cove, are in town.

We have been having regular Web-foot weather for the past week and still raining.

Work is progressing rather slowly on the O. G. M. Co's mill, the weather being so bad that outside labor is suspended.

W. R. Usher was elected president and R. C. Warinner vice president of the P. R. F. A. at the last meeting of the board of directors.

From and after this date stages will leave Baker City at 1 o'clock, P. M., arriving in Cornucopia same day at 10 o'clock. This will be a great convenience to the travel as there will be no layover at Sparta.

Messrs. Ben Stearns, Wid Wright, Wm. Bloom, Mr. Thomas and Alex Cochran arrived in camp, from the Cove, on Friday. It looks as if the Cove had not fully digested this morsel and the result has been a good old fashioned "puke."

Dan Moore informs your correspondent that the object of Jim Hendershott's visit is to get this part of Union county set aside as a separate state and himself appointed governor of the same. Jim denies the charge and says he is entirely out of politics and is only seeking a market for his fruit.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the association for the purpose of raising funds and taking steps toward celebrating the coming 4th of July, inform your correspondent that there will undoubtedly be a celebration and are talking of securing a brass band for the occasion. Why not have the Union band in attendance?

R. C. Warinner was elected a director of the P. R. F. A. at its last regular meeting, as Jos. Lince resigned. We are sorry he saw fit to resign as his influence and counsel has been a great benefit to the association, but he promises to work as indefatigably for the good of the order in the ranks, as if he were an officer and he is a worker in any capacity.

Theo. Cimietto, of Louisville, Ky., one of the directors of the O. G. M. Co., visited our camp last week. He expresses himself highly pleased with the company's property here and promises to return by the first of September, when their mill is expected to be running. The company have ordered 20,000 brick and 30,000 lbs of lime, which is being delivered by Wm. Lane.

Telocaset Tattlings.

Weather wet and cold.
Crops growing nicely.
Sheep shearing in full blast.
This vicinity is flourishing under the recent refreshing rains.

If grain commands a good price this fall, times will not be so hard. The prospects for a good crop are excellent.

A company from Ogden, Utah, Ter. contemplates the erection of a saw-mill in the mountains to the east of this place.

The work on the new road up Pyle canyon is not progressing very fast. Don't know the reason. Too muddy perhaps.

Mr. Thos. Lloyd, of this place has associated himself with the Standard Silverware Co., of Boston, Mass., and is acting as their agent.

Mr. L. Robinson and George Thompson, two of our most respected young men, are going to take their departure for the Blackfoot country next week to look up a location for a stock ranch. We regret to have them go, and they have our best wishes. Our ranks have been cut down considerably within the last few months, and the remnant of the once jolly band are somewhat lonely.

Why buy from immigrating agents of whom you know nothing, either of their responsibility or the character of their goods, when there are responsible dealers located near you, who carry full and complete lines of all farm and mill machinery and implements, and whose success it is for your best interests to support with your patronage? Frank Bro's Implement Co., of Island City request your consideration of their claim, and refer you to your neighbors who have had dealings with them. 3

ISLAND CITY.

Sally Ann's Weekly Budget of News Notes and Practical Pointers.

My name is June, sir; and I often laugh—see often cry. I cannot tell what makes me; Only as the fit o'ercomes me, I must sing, smile and frown, Laughing though the tears roll down, But 'tis nature, sir, not art, And I'm happy as my heart.

Mr. L. Baer, of San Francisco, is in town.

Mrs. A. Eberly, of Walla Walla, returned to her home Tuesday.

Don't eat soup with a fork; it is more elegant to use a spoon—and you get more soup.

The balmy days of summer and the copious rain at intervals, makes the farmers happy.

Mr. J. E. Johnson, of Walla Walla, is hauling his wool to La Grande. He has three thousand pounds.

J. O. S., of the Cove—"Please pass the school m'm." She don't pass worth a cent, but I'll take it up and make it clubs.

Don't drop your fork at the table; if you do, quickly secure it by placing your foot on it, thus hindering all others from getting ahead of you.

Don't hit your wife on the head with your umbrella, because she talks too much. Practice economy. Use a steel poker, and she won't talk again.

Mr. Henry V. Sterling, who is on route with his father's remains, is expected here by Thursday. It is probable the funeral will be held at La Grande.

The Island City M. and M. Co. have bought out Baer & Church. The goods will be transferred as soon as convenient. A hardware, crockery and a variety store will be opened in the brick.

SALLY ANN.

High Valley Happenings.

Everybody smiling over the recent rains.

Mr. John Smith, of Omaha was here recently buying horses for shipment East.

Mrs. Tom Wilkinson and sister, Mary, have been visiting relatives in Baker City.

A visit to Union showed us the charred remnants left by the late fire, speaking in silence of the necessity of a good steam fire engine. Union cannot and will not build up as it should until protection is secured against fire. The secret of town building—what is it? It is for all its citizens to pull together and work in concert. Towns do not grow of themselves, but grow because they are peopled by men who know the secret and are not afraid to prove their faith in their town by their works. A citizen who is not willing to do all in his power to advance his town is a positive detriment to it, and the town would be far better off without him. You can't build up by sitting on dry goods boxes, or standing on the street corners growing because the town hasn't manufactures and everything it ought to have, while you refuse to patronize what it has got, and send to Portland or Chicago for dry goods and groceries, probably getting less for your money by doing so than you could get at home. There never was a town on earth built up in that way, and there never will be.
